Congressman Adam Clayton Powell Sees Northern Liberals Becoming Victims Of Well-Known "Creeping Eastlandism"

WASHINGTON -(ANP)- Congressman Adam Clayton Powell (D., N. Y.) last week charged northern whites and American liberals with becoming so weakened on the issue of civil rights that they are unwittingly becoming allies of

The charge was made in an address before the mass meeting of Internominational Mir ister's alliance held in Atlanta, Sunday. The New York Congressman described Georgia as heing the hard core of defiance of the law of the land. There is that section trying to hold back the day of destiny, he said, but it cannot be done. "No force nor individuals nor combination of groups are able to stop the momentum which will carry the Negro to complete and full equality."

He labeled the civil rights proba combination of powers in "Such Sweet Thunder":

Award Four Scholarships To A And T

GREENSBORO - Four bright youngsters were this week named vinners of the four $1,000 scholarships for study at A&T College beginning next fall. The grants are given annually by the A&T College Alumni Association.
The winners included Lilliane L.

Williams of the Williston High School, Wilmington, Robert Bogan, Henderson Institute, Henderson; Bessie M. Littlejohn, Atkins High School, Winston-Salem and Walter T. Johnson, Dudley High

School, Greensboro, Dr. F. A. Williams, dean of the Graduate School and chairman of the Alumni Testing Committee. stated that all had accepted and will enroll next September. The young men will enter the School of Engineering and the girls have signified intention of studying in the School of Education and General Studies.

They won out in competition with 862-students, representing the top fourth of their classes from 109-high schools in the state. Miss Williams led the entire group with a score of 140-out of a possible 150. She ranked in the 91st-percentile of the national average for the test. The test was administered in late March by members of the A&T faculty at 21-centers located about the State. Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, presitient of the college, stated that approximately 50-scholarships of smaller denominations are to be offered other students who turned n high scores.

He took a crack as Mrs. Roosevelt, the great liberal woman whom he will always respect as the First Lady of the world. But Mrs. Roosevelt, he said, has unknowingly succumbed to the philosophy of "creeping Eastlandism". His argument was based on a column written by the former First Lady recently in which she condemned Powell for pushing so vigorougly for an anti-segregation amendment to the school construction bill

"I'm not against gradualism, mo deration, nor go slow", said Powell "But I insist that go slow at least lar, is that of twisting good, sound means move, that moderation does English words into new meanings | not mean standstill."
