

Apex High

BY MRS. E. H. WILLIAMS
APEX, NORTH CAROLINA — The First Baptist Church of Apex, N. C. has called its new pastor, Rev. W. T. Bigelow, of Greensboro, North Carolina.

The new pastor will fill the pulpit at the 11:00 o'clock service on the first Sunday in next month, May 5th and thereafter, the first and third Sundays in each month.

Rev. Bigelow has rendered very inspirational sermons in our church here during the time while the membership was without a pastor.

Not only does the new pastor preach, but he sings very well and is able to aid in playing the piano. Much interest has been added to the service since his brief substitution here.

Rev. Bigelow is also pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church in Chatham County. He renders service there on the second and fourth Sundays in each month.

We are inviting you to come and worship with us at any time. You are always welcome.

Mrs. E. H. Williams of the Apex Consolidated High School spent Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, the 11th, 12th and 13th in Charlotte, N. C. attending the State Teachers Association.

Four Oaks News

FOUR OAKS — A beautiful Palm Sunday brought many members and friends to the Episcopal Church for morning worship. Reverend W. L. Williams, pastor of the church, delivered a powerful message taken from 12th Psalm. He chose for his subject "Joy in the House of the Lord." The senior choir rendered music for this service. Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and daughter, Mrs. Clifton.

Sunday evening worship was conducted by a visiting minister and his church, from Johnson Chapel Church. He preached an inspiring sermon from Matthew 21: 22. The choir sang beautiful songs that filled the house with the talk, frankly and tactfully, "if people don't know how you feel, they don't know where you stand," said Mrs. Herring.

She closed with a hymn, "Lift Up Your Head." From these points her attention should center: (1) Be courteous. (2) Have faith in yourself. (3) Work for excellence, and (4) Be known by some outstanding thing that you can do well.

Our contributions will mark us.

 The services at Saint Matthew last Sunday began as usual with the Sunday School at 9:45.

Seventh Day Adventist
BY MRS. VERA E. LANIER

It was a very spiritual day Saturday, April 20th, at the Gettysburg Seventh Day Adventist Church. Sabbath School began at the usual time with the superintendent, Mr. James Ray, in charge. Morning worship began at 11 a. m. with music being rendered by the Junior Choir and Mrs. H. Howard at the organ.

Elder I. J. Johnson's text was taken from the first chapter of Saint John. Everyone was inspired and enjoyed this wonderful sermon. Revival services began at the church Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. with Elder S. McLamb of Atlanta, Ga. in charge of the services. The guest speaker is delivering sermons on the Bible Prophets. Everyone is invited out to hear this wonderful speaker.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Artis of Florida are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Teannie McCoy, for a few days. Mr. J. W. Smith accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Artis.

Poultry is second only to tobacco as a farm income producer in North Carolina.

ST. MATTHEWS AME

Promptly at 11 a. m. the morning worship began with the Senior Choir furnishing the beautiful Easter music. Miss Ella Mae Giles accompanied the choir. The inspiring hymn was "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name". This hymn was led by the pastor, Reverend Upshaw, after which he read the scripture.

The scripture lesson was taken from the 23rd chapter of Saint Matthew, first through the tenth verses. The text for the morning message was also taken from this scripture. Subject for the morning message was "You can't hold back Dawn". The church is doing nicely, but we cannot stop there. Let us not become STAY in our thinking for in our season we shall reap what we have sown.

The public is cordially invited to hear the evening Five Quartette at Saint Matthew, Sunday, April 28. This program is sponsored by Mrs. Isabel High. We are looking forward to a glorious Woman's Day celebration on May 12. The program will be announced later. The Men's Day program will be May 19. Dear Points of Interest will be their speaker. Visitors are always welcomed at Saint Matthew AME.
