Medea Planned By Players At Virginia State

PETERSBURG, Va. — When the Virginia State College Theatre Guild presents Medea on Wednesday, May 15, it will be entering a new chapter in its long history of presenting the best in amateur theater.

The play, which is a Greek classic, is being presented by one of the prominent members of the college community in connection with the 75th anniversary of Virginia State College. The Medea was first presented as the Annual Guest Production in 1933.

Members of the original cast will return to play in their respective parts. Holmes Morrison of Petersburg is playing the role of Jason opposite Valerie Feltz as Medea. David Gunter of Philadelphia will as Creon, King of Corinth, bring to his audience the fine interpretation of character and emotion which characterize him.

His role of Iago in Shakespeare's Othello will be remembered as one of the all-time highlights in amateur theatricals. Harriet Galt of Gary, Ind., is playing the part of the Nurse. Miss Ballew will be long remembered as Princess Amarna in Pharaoh's harem.

Interest and enthusiasm are running high for the Medea production not only in the east but in the entire college community. The Medea will be presented on Wednesday evening, May 15, at 8:00 p.m. in the Virginia Hall Auditorium. The public is invited.

Washington Senators Want 'Top Flight Tan Players'

NEW YORK — (AP)— After ten years the management of the Washington Senators baseball club has awakened to reality. Says Calvin Griffith, "I'm hunting for a top flight Negro player." And, strangely enough, Mr. G. says his club has been searching for such a man for the past 10 years.

Few people outside of Washington realize that 63 percent of the population of our city is Negro. To improve radically over our 450,000 attendance of last year, we must find a really good Negro player. That's what the man said.

BUT — every good Negro player in baseball was paraded before the Washington management's eyes for years — before 1947 and even since. Washington was the scene of some of the best baseball Negro league staged and Mr. Griffith's predecessor, the famous Old Fox, Clark Griffith never missed seeing a baseball game played between two Negro teams in his park!

Going back a few years — around the days of the famous Hilldale team — Washington's first baseman Joe Judge arranged a post season series between the American League All Stars and the Hilldale Joe had Sammy Rice, one of the great hitters of his day in the line up. So what happened? The Hilldale, well-paid Judge's team so badly, it ended all post season all-star games.

Then came the days of Satchel Page's all stars against Dizzy Dean's all stars with both pitchers appearing for three innings before a crowd the likes of which had never jammed a Washington park before.

Now with the baseball park which is part in the heart of the Negro section of Washington, bordering the Medical and Dental schools of Howard University, the pinch is on. Pickets have marched around the park and crowds have stayed away. Gone are the days when faithful Negro fans paraded
