Chavis Heights

BY MRS. MAY BROADIE

"Our Father, we learn from the shadow of Christ's Cross that if our lives are to be crowned with victory they must first know the meaning of suffering. We do not seek pain, but help us not to shrink duty or responsibility."

ST. PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH
Women's Day was observed last Sunday. The morning speaker was Mildred McTye, director of Missionary Training at Shaw University. The lives of Lois and Eunice were brought out and stressed in speaking of the importance of the influence of women in the home, as well as the part she plays in the church and community. It was a very challenging message.

Mrs. Hattie B. Edmondson was chairman of the day's activities with Mrs. Effie Young as co-chairman. Other participants in the service were Miss Jessie Sebane, and Mesdames Ida Hawkins, Annie A. Massenburg, Addie Logan, Rosalie Williams, Sara Smith and Lillian Hunt.

At the evening service, Mrs. Effie Young presided. A Panel Discussion was held. Mesdames Lillie M. Clemons and Bernetta Sheppard were the senior leaders. Subject, "How Christian Parents Face Family Problems." Mrs. Nancy Teddell and Phyllis Mann were the Junior speakers who gave the teenagers' view point. The discussion was very timely and interesting. Other participants for this service were Miss Ellen Marie Hackaday, and Mesdames Nellie Burch and Laura Crumby. The ladies of the senior choir and chorists furnished the music with Mrs. Hani Stredwick at the piano and Mrs. Doris McAdams at the organ. Thus a very successful Women's Day observance.

Oberlin Road Baptist Church
Sunday morning worship services were held at 9:45, morning worship at 11:00 o'clock. The senior choir had charge of music, under the direction of Mr. Alvin Blount, organist. Mrs. Lucy Campbell. Scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. F. Haywood, 19th chapter of St. Luke, Rev. F. Terry brought a high message from the Book of St. Luke, 19th Chapter, 28th verse, "They are the people that were made free."

Wilson Temple Methodist Church
Sunday morning worship: Church School at 9:45, superintendent, Miss Nannie Morgan presiding. Morning worship began at 11:00 o'clock. The junior choir had charge of music, under the direction of Mr. Leon Haywood, Professional, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

The pastor, Rev. C. L. Gidney, preached from the Book of Romans, 15th chapter, 11th verse, "Joy and Peace."

Martin Street Baptist Church
Sunday morning worship: Church School at 9:45. The superintendent, Mr. H. C. High, Sr., presided.

Maple Temple Christian Church
BY MRS. JOSEPHINE TERRELL

He is not here... but is risen. Happy greetings to you dear friends in the name of the Lord Jesus. Services began Easter Sunday with a large attendance at Sunday School. Everyone enjoyed the lesson. Music for the day was furnished by the three choirs and the altar and pulpit were flanked with lovely Easter Lillies.

All visitors were welcomed by the pastor. We were happy to have Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Durham of New York. They are former members of the senior choir. The junior choir sang "We are soldiers in the Army" and the senior choir sang "Christ is All," after which the pastor, Rev. M. F. Booker, brought the morning message from the subject "Where is He?" The doors of the church were opened and Mr. and Mrs. Person joined in fellowship with us.

At 6 p. m. the Sunday School gave its Easter Program. This was a very entertaining affair.

At 8 p. m. Baptizing services were held. This was a very spiritual meeting. Our deepest sympathy went out to the families of Mrs. Mary Freeman and Mrs. Maggie McDaniels. Other visitors in our morning services were Mr. John Moore, Sr., father of our organist, Mr. William Moore, Rev. McFarland and Misses Betsy Linda and Minnie Lou High of Kriehdale.

North Carolina is now selling approximately one-half of its annual broiler output outside the state.

Fayetteville St. Baptist Church

BY MRS. R. W. JUDKINS
Sunday School opened at 8:30 with Mr. J. E. Richburg, associate superintendent, in charge of the senior department and Mrs. Lula Bass in charge of the primary and beginners departments. Morning worship began at 11 a. m. with music being furnished by the junior choir. Scripture was read by Rev. Thomas of Shaw University after which prayer was offered by Rev. Salisbury, also of Shaw.

The pastor, Rev. J. W. Jones, delivered a very inspiring sermon from the subject "In The Beginning". This sermon was enjoyed by a full house. The Missionary meeting will be held at 4 p. m. at the church on Sunday, May 4th. Everyone is invited to attend. Also on May 4th at 5 p. m.
