PITTSBORO NOTES

BY GITTANA HORTON

PITTSBORO — The Missionary Society of Mitchell Chapel presented a play on Sunday night, May 26. The title was "Mrs. Wigglesworth Gets Religion." The characters were Mrs. Wigglesworth by Mrs. Alene Brooks; Mr. Daniel Wigglesworth by Mr. James Bell; Loretta Wigglesworth by the daughter of Mrs. Christine Brooks; son of Mr. Jessie McCrimmon; Rev. Palmer, the pastor who fell in love with Loretta by Rev. Lynn Baldwin; Mrs. Bobbkin, who loved to eat all the time by Mrs. Minnie Alston; Mrs. Simpson, the town gossip by Mrs. May Lou Alston. Approximately 100 persons attended the party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fearington in honor of the senior of "57," of Horton School on May 21. The Fearingtons home is located near Chapel Hill. A light menu of a meat, salad, rice crackers and delicious punch was served. Souvenirs were also given to the seniors. It was an enjoyable occasion for all.

BIRTHS AND BIRTHDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Pittsboro are now proud parents of a daughter. Those celebrating birthdays recently were Miss Willa May, May 24; Master Richard Horton, May 25; Mr. Henry Richarda, May 27.

Rush Memorial Church News

BY MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE

A veil of sadness hung over our heads on last Sunday, because of the passing of one of the sainted Mothers of our church in the person of Mrs. Judy McCutcher. We were very cognizant of the fact that another link in our chain had been broken, and another seat in our pews would be vacant. We say, Peace to her Ashes. The Processional "God of Our Fathers" by the Chorus meant that our services were well on the way. After the prayer of consecration at the altar, on ascending the choir loft, the singing of the Doxology and pastoral prayer followed. The 1st hymn No. 309 "Talk with us Lord thyself reveal" was sung led by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson. The responsive reading was for the 10th Sunday, "Love never faileth." The scripture lesson was then read by our pastor from Ezekiel, the 2nd Chapter comprising the entire chapter. The fervent prayer was offered by Bro. Neil Sanders. Our 2nd hymn No. 292 "Go, labor on" was sung led also by our pastor. After the singing of the spiritual, "We'll Understand it better By and By," the minister chose his text from the same scripture read, Ezekiel 2: 1 and 2. "And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet and I will speak unto thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spoke unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spoke unto me." The minister began by saying that God is very careful in choosing men to speak for him. Many interesting points were discussed as the Commission of Ezekiel. The instructions given. This was another gospel message full of power and the Holy Ghost, as is customary for Rev. Carson to deliver. Due to the many programs of the School and Colleges and so many of our people being connected with the same the services were brief, at the evening services. We are continuing to invite you to one of our services at your earliest convenience because we feel sure that once you hear Rev. Carson not only will you have the urge but you will come to hear him again. We are praying continually that God will ever keep our pastor strong and well that he may continue to impart to us the gospel truths.

"Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God believe also in me. In My Father's house are many mansions if it were not so, I would have told you." John 14:1-6.

Greetings to you dear friends in the name of the Lord Jesus. Sunday was a beautiful day and everybody was in the spirit of worship.

Our Sunday School was well attended with the superintendent, Mr. Hayward in charge. The general topic was "A man of peace in a world of strife." Genesis 26:1-6.

Memory verse—"Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." Truly this was a fine lesson.

During the general offering and prayer by Deacon William Hinton, the Junior Choir sang "He Will Understand and Say Well Done." Just before the sermon, the choir sang "I Want Somewhere to Lay My Head" featuring the voice of Mrs. Jessie Hightsmith. This was very enjoyable. Reverend Booker took his text from St. John 14:5. "I am the Truth and the Light, no man cometh unto the Father but by Me."

The altar was decorated by the Floral Club very beautifully with white lilies and lovely red gladiolus. Doors of the church were opened and all visitors and friends were welcomed. Invitational hymn was "I have heard so much of Jesus."

"To the sick and shut-ins we say 'Let not your heart be troubled. He said I am the way, the truth and the light.'"

SILVER CITY NEWS

Sunday School opened at the usual hour, with the superintendent and staff at their post. The morning worship services began with a spiritual devotion conducted by Mr. Edward Brickle. A dynamic message was brought by the pastor, Dr. R. L. Upshaw. He chose his text from Isaiah 61. His subject was "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me." The spirit continued to run high as he emphasized the main reason why the spirit was upon him because the Lord had anointed him to preach good tidings unto the meek. This high powered message caused a person to join the church, which was a thankful church, for last Sunday being a special effort day, it was successful both

PLEASANT HILL BAPTIST CHURCH CELEBRATES 45TH ANNIVERSARY

The public is invited to attend the 45th anniversary of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Corner of 10th and Brevard Streets, Rev. L. J. Shipmon, the minister, beginning May 27 - June 2.

FIRST MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Last Sunday morning we listened to an old fashion revival sermon that was delivered by the Rev. E. D. Gennings, assistant pastor. The text was taken from Mark 8:27. He spoke from the subject "Jesus is the Doctor." He said we may have all we need, such as nice homes, fine cars, good jobs and plenty of money. Rev. Gennings went on to say that all those things are nice, but some day you will surely need a doctor. The able minister also said that since Jesus is the master of all doctors, why not take Jesus for all your needs?

Music was furnished by the senior choir. The spirit was very high during the morning services.

At 3 p. m. the choir worshipped with the Gettschmane Baptist church as they held their usher's program.

Visitors that attended the services at our church were: Mrs. C. N. Evans, and daughter, Mrs. Mary Young of Hopeville Church; Mrs. Louise Fair, Shelby; Miss Elizabeth Owens, Bethlehem Baptist Church, and Mrs. Catherine Holloway.

On next Sunday the church will have its homecoming dinner served on the lawn of the church. Visitors are welcome. Rev. F. G. Lowery, pastor, Gertrude Williams, reporter.

Pastor

The pastor, Rev. R. L. Shirley chose for his sermon the title, "Power of Love."

"He, who seeks to save his life shall lose it." He who loses his life for my sake shall find it. No greater love is this than that a man shall lay down his life for his friend.

One of the dangers of being caught out in the snow is going to sleep. If you are ever caught in a snowy climate, the possibilities are you will not wake up.

"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that who-so-ever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

"Love is a many splendored thing. It was a motivating force that Beethoven was induced to write "Moonlight Sonata."

Love makes us take a different attitude toward people. When love is basic in the work, we do we are happy. Why is there so much juvenile delinquency? Wars, uprooted homes, divided churches, etc? The answer is lack of love.

LOVE is a good word. Why can't we use it? The reasons are many. One great professional person gives his views: "Don't get too personal with people because they will take advantage of you. Always have a little fence between you and your friends." The Duke of Windsor served as a symbol — a man willing to give up his rights to the throne of England for LOVE.
