verential prayer at the memorial the day of full and COMPLETE FREEDOM for all his children, ragardless of race or color.

Indeed, it was as Moses went on the mountain top with God to get instructions on how to lead the Israelites to freedom. Almost every mement and utterance was filled with sacredness and certainly with * DETERMINATION TO FOLLOW THROUGH TO THE END RE-GARDLESS OF THE COST!

It was THRILLING to see our modern Moses' - youthful Dr Martin Luther King, Jr. - recognizedd much after the fashion of the Moses of the Bible. It was inspiring to see leadership coming from below the 'Smith and Wesson line' in our freedom fight with thousands of southerners coming along to back up that leadership.

Our two principal personal regrets were that we could only get two stalwarts - the Rev. J. A. Mebane, grand chancellor of Knights of Pythias of Tarheelia, Tarboro: and Prof. W. Claude Chance, Sr. retired Parmele school founderprincipal and civil rights advocate. to accompany us to Prayer Pilgrimage's and that we did not make up the desired 50,000 we desired in attendance We also wish there could have been an offering taken that day for NAACP. THE MOTHERS MARCHED FOR FREEDOM Driving back from Dee Cee late Friday night and getting home at daylight, we caught little sleep before our Raleigh date with Jackie Robinson and the 20 noble NAA-CP mothers who marched up from over the state with more than $3000 for the freedom fight. Even though Mrs L. L. Graham of Burlington, won first place with $654 reported and Mrs. U. S. Brooks, Charlotte was close behind with $600: AT.T. THE MOTHERS WON A MORAL CROWN by contributing of their time and effort to raising funds for the NAACP. WE THANK THEM ALL! ! (A complete list is published elsewhere in this issue of the CAROLINIAN
