ZETA Zeta Phi Beta Sorority
LEST Inc., Raleigh

ORCHIDS TO MISS CARNAGE
 Congratulations to Lillian Edna Beth Carnage, one of our Zeta Lest. She was the first president of the Zeta Lest organization here in Raleigh. Miss Carnage is the valedictorian of the 1957 graduating class of the J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School. This top-ranking of the 143 graduates was given in extra-class and community activities.

Dr. Parridge advises that in order to profit from such opportunities a young person must start with himself. What does he know of his abilities? His interests? His personality? How can one gain these understandings? By utilizing the services of his guidance counselor or teacher.

She was also the recipient of an award for outstanding excellence in Chemistry. She is a member of the Davis St. Presbyterian Church, where she is pianist for the Sunday School.

Having examined himself, the student is ready to learn all he can about the world of work.

Miss Carnage is the daughter of the last two years and Mr. Carnage of East Martin Street. Miss Carnage was Zeta's Basileus for these last two years and Mr. Carnage a popular Sigma has held many outstanding offices with the Sigma and is now treasurer of the Sigma fraternity. We wish Lillian continued success in her endeavors in life.

Dr. Parridge gives the following list of important areas that should be investigated:

DE. PARRIDGE ADVISES
 At a season of the year when thousands of boys and girls are graduating from high school, an article entitled "What Are Your Scholarship Opportunities?" by our grand basileus, Dr. Deborah Parridge, in the April issue of The Archon, seemed most timely. The lack of financial aid deprives many of our boys and girls of a
