Chavis Heights
 BY MRS. MAY BROADIE

O God make clear the eyes of our faith and unshackle the certainty of our belief that seeing the invisible we may follow aright the leading, through Him who is the light of the world, even Christ, our Savior.

MARTIN STREET BAPTIST
 Sunday School was as usual with Miss Josephine Hunter, assistant superintendent, in charge. There was a very large crowd out for the morning worship at 11 a.m. Music was furnished by the Choral group with Miss Minnie Mintz at the organ. The pastor, Rev. P. H. Johnson, lifted his voice high as he brought a forceful message from the book of Revelation 21:13. His subject was "Twelve gates to the City." This was followed by a solo by Mrs. Hortense Fleming who sang "Twelve Gates to the City."

UNION BAPTIST
 At 10:30 Sunday School was opened with the superintendent, Walter Price, presiding. The lesson was very well explained by the superintendent. Morning worship was at 12 which began with congregational singing. The inspiring message was delivered by the pastor, Rev. George Mitchell. Subject for this message was "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

LILLY OF THE VALLEY
 The members of the Lilly of the Valley Baptist Church are in deep sympathy with Mrs. Mary Barrett and family in the death of a relative, Mr. Robert Richardson whose funeral was held at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Wendell last Sunday.

OBERLIN BAPTIST
 Mr. Walter Curtis, superintendent opened Sunday School at 9:45 and this was followed by morning worship with the Senior choir rendering music and Mr. Alvin Blount directed and Mrs. Lucy Campbell was at the organ. The morning message was preached by Rev. Frederick Terry. His subject was "The Lord Watch Beside me and there while we are absent." All visitors were made welcome to attend all services of the church.

WILSON TEMPLE METHODIST
 At 9:45 Sunday School was opened of our Parliament requested a showing of the new all-African film called 'Freedom' produced by MRA. This film is giving our nation the ideology that will secure our independence on the right basis, because it shows men how they can be free from the slavery of bitterness and ambition.

 He announced that three members of the Ghana Parliament were on their way to Mackinac.

FAKE BLIND MAN SENTENCED
BROOKLYN—(ANP)—The usually lenient Flatbush Magistrate Charles Solomon gave a 43-year-old man 30 days in the workhouse last Friday for posing as a blind man and begging by tapping with a cane through the cars of the IRT Subway.

The man Charles Wright, had a record of 24 previous arrests on the same charge.

"I don't know why people are so vulnerable. This is the easiest racket there is," the Magistrate said.

President Strasser stated that the income from this grant is to be used solely for teachers salaries. The total amount may be used for any educational purposes after the expiration of 10 years.

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich. — forward.

The Toton Na, a Senior Member of the Opposition in the Ghana Parliament was dressed in his Mecca cap and flowing white robes. "We had unity," he said, "when we mobilized toward the common objectives of national freedom. That unity could be destroyed now if selfishness and ambition take over."

"It was because of this search for something greater ahead," he said, "that recently the members
