Contractor Tries To Belittle Man Who Saved Ben Hooper

NEW YORK (AP)—At this late date, while a physician was being publicly rebuked for submitting a $1500 bill for his services, Sam Woodson, "hero" of the Benny Hooper rescue is being called a fake.

Woodson is the colored man who climbed down into the hole and brought the imprisoned lad out safely. Now contractor Mike Stitz, who supervised the rescue job for 23 1-2 hours at Manorsville, L. I., is saying that Sam Woodson was no hero although he pulled Benny to the surface.

"He risked the boy's life by disobeying orders in entering the tunnel," Stitz said. Further he declared "Sam Woodson didn't touch a spoonful or a shovel full of sand. He went into the hole without anyone telling him to, after the other men dug the hole out and the boy was ready to be brought out."

Woodson furiously denied the charge and said it was he who insisted on tunneling to Benny. 7 when other rescuers were ready to pressure Benny was dead, and to go after the body with picks and shovels.

June Brides: Remember To Change Names On Social Security Records

By Ernest F. Fitzpatrick
(Manager of the Wilmington, N.C. District Office)

June brides who plan to continue working need to do something more than sign the marriage application and slip on the ring, according to Ernest F. Fitzpatrick, Wilmington social security office manager. They also need to change their names on their social security records.

"Any woman who changes her name should be sure to submit a 'change of records' card to us," he said, "so that her new name may be tied in with our records under her previous name."

Records may be changed by calling at the social security office at the Custom House in Wilmington or by requesting a change of record card from that office by mail.

"It's a very simple procedure," Mr. Fitzpatrick added. "But it's one of those little things that mean so much. Future benefits under the old-age and survivors' insurance system will be based on the work record, and that record cannot be complete and up-to-date in all respects unless the ladies remember to change their names on our re-
