Bill explained patiently that this appliance doesn't look like a machine at all. I was relieved when he described a compact green and gold cabinet less than 18 inches high. "If it's that small," I suggested,

"maybe we need two." Bill laughed at my ignorance. "Hardly! This dehumidifier removes over three gallons of moisture from the air a day--enough to control the humidity in a room 40 by 30 feet. And it can be hooked up to a drain to dispose of the accumulated water. Incidentally, it's mobile, too, Rolls on casters so you can take it where you need it." Well, who am I to talk myself out of a game room? We'll get the tile and the wood paneling as soon as we got that dehumidifier.
