Rev. M. F. Booker, pastor, preached a wonderful sermon which was uplifiting to everyone. The junior choir had charge of music, while the junior ushers served the public.

All visitors were happily greeted and asked to visit again. At 3 o'clock Rev. W. D. Carson, the pastor, and congregation of Rush Memorial A. M. E. Z. Methodist Church rendered service here, honoring Rev. Booker's tenth anniversery. Rev. Carson preached a wonderful sermon.

Will the circle be unbroken? Yes, the circle of your church has been broken by the death of a faithful member, Mrs. Cornelius Watson of Montague Lane. She had been a member of this church for a number of years.

After the singing of the Spiritual, "He Knows How Much We Can Bear," the minister chose his text from the same scripture read, St. Marks 10:17, "And when He had gone forth into the way, there came one running and kneeled to him, and asked Him,

Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life." Theme: "The rich young Ruler." The text was discussed from the following view points. (1) Persistent Inquiry, (a) What must I do to inherit eternal life. (2) He addressed the Master with a spirit of humility. (4) Jesus is the only one that could answer him. (5) The result was, he went away sorrowful. This was indeed a powerful gospel message which is al-
