Interest Is Mounting For Wake-Johnston Calf Show

Four-HF and NEA CWP members in Wake and Johnston Counties are giving their dairy calves a good working over in preparation for the 5th Annual Wake-Johnston Dairy Calf Show. The event will be held on the athletic field of Saint Augustine's College Thursday, July 25.

The Danish System of Judging will be used with all animals falling in one of three groups: Blue, red or white. Cash prizes for blues are $10; reds, $8; and whites, $6. A total of 38 animals were shown in last year's show. A greater number is expected for the July 25th exhibition.

Sponsors of the show are the Agricultural Workers of Wake and Johnston Counties and it is financed by the Raleigh Merchants Bureau.

Committee members are M. B. Albright, Richard Thacker, M. E. Reddick and Leroy Johnson of Johnston County. W. L. Graham, B. T. Williams, J. T. Locke, T. J. Culler, Leroy Burton, G. L. Laws, C. L. Boone and W. C. Deavenport of Wake County.

About 29 per cent of the tobacco produced in 1956 was exported. Efficient planning is the key to successful farming.

Remembers Commandment: Singer Lavern Baker Gives Mother New Home And Money

NEW YORK — When she was a little girl going to Sunday School, singer Lavern Baker never forgot one of the Ten Commandments that spoke of "honoring thy father and thy mother". Now a success in show business, she just bought her mother a home in Chicago.

When Al Green, manager of the Tweedle-Dee girl presented the keys to a $22,000 home on the southside of the Windy City to Mrs. Anna Evans, she was so dumbfounded that she fainted. Upon being revived she learned of another surprise in store for her: her daughter had also given her a $200 weekly allowance as the result of a trust fund that will continue on until she passes on.

Talking to a reporter backstage at the Paramount theatre where she was headlining the show, Miss Baker said that what she did for her mother was a deed that she thinks any successful son or daughter should do without urging. What she has accomplished in the world, she stated, is due to the teachings of her mother who worked as a domestic until three years ago.

and many were the days that she would go without buying herself a much-needed dress in order that I could get shoes, take music lessons and have spending money. That I never forgot and I hope my buying her a home and giving her a lifetime allowance in some small manner compensates for what she has done for me," she said.

Shade trees need little pruning except to remove low limbs, dead wood and an occasional thinning. Good feeding, breeding and improved herd management results in increased milk production. Plant vine cuttings now for seed sweet potatoes next year. Broiler prices should be relatively high this summer.
