Kasper Advised To Stay Out Of State

N. C. Patriots Want No Part Of Kasper

GREENSBORO—The anti-integration Patriots of North Carolina expressed disapproval last week of plans by segregationist John Kasper to visit North Carolina and "educate the people on the state's Pupil Assignment Law."

C. L. Shuping, a Greensboro official with the Patriots, said Kasper's visit would "not serve any good or useful purpose."

After being convicted of conspiring to hinder integration of a Clinton, Tenn. high school, Kasper said he would like to educate North Carolinians on the state's Pupil Assignment Law so they can exert pressure to the fullest extent.

Knoxville sources said the Washington, D. C. segregation leader wants to organize White Citizens Councils in North Carolina.

Kasper said he began planning a visit to this state after learning of this week's action by school boards in Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Greensboro in opening to 12 Negroes the doors to previously all-white schools.
