Zebulon Boy Exhibits The Grand Champ

Four-H and NFA boys and girls from Wake and Johnston Counties won cash prizes and trophies at their 5th Annual Bi-County Junior Dairy Calf Show held on the athletic field of Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, Thursday, July 25. Three hundred spectators were on hand.

Grand champion was exhibited by George Latham, Jr., Zebulon, and Reserve champion was shown by Luther Walker, Route 6, Raleigh. Best fitted was won by Curdell Jones, Rt. 1, Cary and Showmanship won by Mary Maye, Route 1, Morrisville.

Twenty-seven fine dairy animals paraded the show ring escorted by 4-H Club and NFA members while officials of the sponsoring organization looked on with a smile of satisfaction. The show is sponsored annually by the Raleigh Merchant Bureau of which J. R. Thomas is president and G. Wesley Williams is executive secretary, and supervised by the Negro Agricultural Workers of Wake and Johnston Counties.

The show got underway at 9:00 a.m. with a short demonstration, "Good Points of a Dairy Animal," by R. L. Wynn, extension dairy specialist, Greensboro. Greetings were brought by Dr. James A. Boyer president of the college. Official judge was J. D. George, extension dairy specialist, State College. Assisting was G. W. Miller and Bob Long, Wake County Agents, and Harry Privette, representative of Pine State Creamery.

John R. Thomas and G. Wesley Williams of the Merchants Bureau had prizes for the 4-H and NFA boys and girls as they observed the progress over the 1956 show. The Danish system of judging. Franklinton Ceremony:

Bride Wears Heirloom Jewel As Anderson-King Vows Said

FRANKLINTON—Before an altar banked with gladioli, fern and lighted tapers, Miss Catherine Whitman King became the bride of John Anderson, Jr., at the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church of Franklinton, on Saturday evening, July 20. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Max C. King and the late Dr. King of this city. Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Miami, Florida.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony, presented by Mrs. Evelyn Pharr, soloist, and Mr. O. M. Pharr, organist, both of Oxford.

The Rev. Benjamin H. Baskerville, uncle of the bride, Wilmington, officiated at the double ring ceremony. He was assisted by the Rev. J. Enoch Kearney, pastor of the bride.

Given in marriage by her uncle, John H. Whitman of Columbia, S. C., the bride chose a full length gown of tulle over satin. The basque bodice featured a sweetheart neckline embroidered in seed pearls and iridescents and a yoke of tulle. The full skirt was appliqued with floral sprays having the same embroidery as the bodice and ended in a chapel train.

Her full length sleeves extended in points over the wrists and her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid, lilies of the valley and satin streamers.

As did her mother at her wedding, the bride wore an heirloom brooch of pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother.

Miss Louise K. Sindos of New York City was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a full-length gown of white tulle, the bodice of which featured three circles embroidered with emerald green beads and iridescents. Floating panels lined in emerald green tulle extended the length of the gown on the side. A circular veil complemented the hat which carried out the triple circles of the bodice. She carried a brocade satin bag topped with white feathered carnations and emerald green streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gladys A. Williams of Miami and Richmond sister of the groom, and Miss Frances H. Cuthin, Raleigh. They wore gowns and accessories identical to that of the honor attendant.

Misses Carolyn V. Levister of Louisburg and Louise McCrimmon of Franklinton were junior bridesmaids. They wore dresses similar to the other attendants, with cummerbund and floating panels extending the length of the back of the skirt.

Master Lawrence Anthony Sindos, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a satin pillow. Little Miss Brenda Latham of Raleigh wore a white organza dress and strew rose petals in the path of the bride.

Mr. Harold Brayton, brother-in-law of the groom of Miami, was best man. Groomsmen were Dr. Max King, brother of the bride, of Franklinton and Charlotte Mr. Henry C. Sindos, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Earl Raines, both of New York City.

Out-of-state guests included Mrs. John Anderson, Sr., Mrs. M. Soren and Harold Examan, all of Miami, Florida; Dr. and Mrs. Malvin Williams, Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Sindos, Miss Eva M. Lloyd and Noel Daye, all of New York City; Miss Lydia Sindos, New Orleans, La.; and John H. Whitman, Columbia, S. C.

Prof. Harris is a graduate of West Chester State College and Howard University. He has been at Livingstone College since the fall of 1946. Prior to assuming his duties at the college, he was a teacher of Social Sciences at St. Paul Polytechnic Institute in Virginia.

During World War II he served in the army as Personnel Officer with the rank of Warrant Officer.

As a writer, Prof. Harris has published one book, "The Athenian" in 1956, and several articles dealing with the Social Problems of Negroes in the "Negro History Bulletin."

Dr. John Hunter Is New Dean Of Virginia State

PETERSBURG — The appointment of Dr. John McNeil Hunter as Dean of Virginia State College was announced last week by President Robert P. Daniel. He succeeds Dr. J. H. Johnston who retires as Dean but will continue his responsibilities as Vice President and Professor of History.

Dr. Hunter has served as Acting Dean of the College on two previous occasions when Dean J. H. Johnston was away for advanced study during the academic years 1931-32 and 1934-35.

He came to the faculty from a position as teacher of physics at Prairie View State College, Texas. Joining this faculty in 1935, he became head of the Physics Department in 1937 and Chairman of the Science-Mathematics Unit, 1939-40; and in 1939 when the State Board of Education authorized courses for the master's degree to be given at Virginia State College, Dr. Hunter was appointed by the President to serve as Director of the Division of Graduate Studies, in which capacity he has served most admirably to this time.

Dr. Hunter has been entrusted with several assignments of administrative responsibility including Supervisor of Instruction for the Enlisted Service Men's School, 1942-43, and Institutional Representative of the Engineering-Science-Management War Training Program, 1942-1945.

Records indicate that the late President Foster used him as his chief assistant in preparing many reports related to the development of the College.

These include rewriting portions of the Code for the name change of the College, preparing the projected building plan for the College, helping in the preparation of many special reports dealing with salaries, promotions and capital outlay plans as used by President Foster in many of the special presentations which he made. He planned and supervised the construction of Colson, the present science building.

That was five years ago (their visit) and since then "Sweethearts of the Blues," Born in the Crescent City they went to school together and sang duets at the assemblies.

This week they headline the show at the Apollo theatre, their first date at this famed vaudeville house. Although manager Frank Schiffman has sought them for over two years this was the first year that they have been free to accept an engagement there.

And with them they bring their new hit tune "Rock All Night" which bids fair to become another record gold record award for them.

Shirley And Lee Singing Team Started As A Joke

NEW YORK — When one of their school chums in New Orleans asked them to put their voices on a new tape machine that had been given to him, Shirley Goodman and Leonard Lee were hesitant about doing so. But with a little urging they did and thus was the beginning of the Shirley and Lee rock and roll singing team, a duo that hit a million sales with their first big record, "Let The Good Times Roll."

LIVINGSTONE — Prof. E. L. Harris, Chairman of the Division of Social Sciences at Livingstone College has just been awarded a special graduate fellowship by the Danforth Foundation to complete the work on his Ph.D. degree at the University of Pennsylvania. It was announced today by Acting President J. H. Brockett, Jr.

Fifteen teachers were selected out of thirty nominations made to the Foundation, which has recently initiated a plan to aid colleges in the improvement of their education program. The fellowships carry a grant estimated upon the applicant's base salary, and number of dependents, plus tuition at the graduate school of his choice. Prof. Harris has been granted a one year leave of absence effective September 1 and expects to finish his requirements for the doctorate by the end of the 1957-58 school term. At the completion of his work, he will return to his regular position at the college.

Prof. Harris is married to the former Clara Corritsen, and they have two children, Susan and Eibert, Jr.

Women's Aux. To Host Medical Ass'n Members

CLEVELAND, O. (ANP)—The Cleveland women's auxiliary to the Allied Medical Professions will be hostess for the 21st anniversary convention of the Women's auxiliary of the National Medical Association which meets in Cleveland at Hotel Hollenden, August 12-15.

The present WANMA is an outgrowth of the Virginia State Auxiliary to the old Dominion Medical Society. In 1926 the old DMS decided that theirs would be a stronger organization if their ladies were organized to help carry out their progressive program.

Dr. J. H. Roberts of Roanoke and Dr. G. Hamilton Francis of Norfolk secured the necessary organization material. In 1927 at the State meeting in Portsmouth, Mrs. D. W. Byrd was selected as the first president. Dr. Francis and Dr. W. P. Dickerson of Newport News were appointed as advisers.

Theme for the meeting is "Rebuilding Sound Values in a Delinquent Society." Under the guidance of the national president, Mrs. Charles E. Hayes of Niagara Falls, New York, extensive research and preparations have gone into the making of an excellent program for this year.

Howard Wilkinson was felled by a bullet from a .45 calibre revolver. He was dead on arrival at a Fort Smith hospital. Wilkinson was stationed at nearby Fort Chaffee.

Police are holding Robert Shropshire, 72, another Negro, as a suspect in the shooting.

He is St. James A. Wilkinson, 43, who recently returned with his family from Germany.

WHICH IS YOURS?

With the outdoor season upon us, compare your broom with those pictured above. If yours looks like the broom on the left, you are working four or five times harder than necessary when you sweep. Only a lively, resilient broom, like the one on the right, will sweep clean with little effort. The broom is a good summer cleaning implement outdoors, since it gets into the cracks of concrete and brick patios, porches, and sidewalks. In the house, a well-shaped broom in seconds will sweep away sand and dust tracked in from beach and sand-box. In preparing for summer, check your broom to see if tread is torn and if the strands are uneven at the bottom, worn too smooth, or curled at the end. If so, it won't sweep clean.
