

No Troops To Enforce Civil Rights, Voted By Senate

PLAN BEAUTICIANS MEET—Mrs. Kettle Workham, National President of the National Beauty Institute, (left) and Miss Dorothica V. Johnson, president of the Louisiana State Beauticians Association, have combined forces to make the institute of cosmetology and the beauticians' convention scheduled for New Orleans July 28 to Aug. 3 and Aug. 4 to Aug. 8, respectively, one of the largest in the history of the organization. Five hundred beauticians in the state are cooperating with them. (ANP)

Roll Call Vote Shows Unanimous Approval

BY STAFF CORRESPONDENT
WASHINGTON (ANP) — The Senate made history Monday when it acted by a roll-call vote of 90-0 to adopt an amendment proposed by Senator Knowland (R., Calif.) and Humphrey (D., Minn.) to strike out any reference in the U. S. code to the use of troops to enforce civil rights laws.

The amendment would repeal that section of the code which empowers commissioners to "summon and call to their aid the normal forces of the United States or of militia" if necessary to execute lawful performances of their duty.

The vote on this amendment caused capital observers to comment that they had never seen such unity in the Senate of the United States and especially on any part of a bill as controversial as the civil rights bill.

This decision was made on the eve of the big debate on whether or not Part III of the bill should be struck out. Senator Paul Douglas, leader in the civil rights fight described Part III as the tool aimed at guaranteeing "equal protection of the laws to all persons regardless of race, creed, or national origin" as provided in the 14th Amendment.

Part III is the essential part of the pending bill, proclaimed Douglas, as he emphasized his opposition to any amendment aimed at deleting it.

He credited liberal Democrats with refusing to accept any compromise which does not do both of two things:

1. Permit the Attorney General to intervene on behalf of individuals who are being deprived of their Constitutional rights.
2. Permit the Attorney General to intervene on behalf of localities which want to carry out decisions of the Supreme Court, but feel they are prevented either by local mobs or state authorities.

Douglas characterized the first of those cases as being far the more important, but perhaps the most reluctant to grant. Yet it is needed because the Negroes of the South who are poor and subject to economic, social and political pressure in their communities need help in fighting their case. Part III will give them this protection.

The Illinois Senator said he felt that "Congress should support and carry out the forward-looking rules of the Supreme Court in upholding the dignity of man in the law of the land which should not duck and run in the face of pressure from those opposed to the rights given to all in the Constitution."

"Golden Rule" Taxi Driver Performs $11,200.00 Deed

NEW YORK (ANP) — Though he stands a chance to receive $11,200 which he found in the back of his taxicab, veteran Cabot Harold Petrie, 65 years old, of Brooklyn, is as happy over his good deed of turning in the money. "I know it is what God would want me to do," he said.

Petrie, who has been driving a taxicab for 25 years, resides in Brooklyn and is a staunch member of the William E. Moss Brotherhood of Concord Baptist Church, Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, pastor.

He made his find Thursday morning, shortly after he had delivered a passenger to the Biltmore Hotel in Mid Manhattan. The passenger later was found to have been Democratic Chief Carmine DeSapio, who denied any knowledge whatsoever of the bundle of old notes of $50 and $100 denomination.

Petrie said he usually checked his cab after a passenger got out. But this time he failed to look in the back seat for some time after Mr. DeSapio had left. When he looked back he saw a little package in the middle of the seat. He took it up front with him, but did not have time to examine it immediately. When he did unwrap it the small fortune in bills rolled out.

He immediately drove to the East 35th St. Police Station and turned the money over to the police. After a search, officers agreed that it was a mystery where the package might have come from to get into the cab if not claimed within 90 days, it will become the property of Petrie.

When asked what he would do if he became the possessor of the money, he said only that he would put it to good use. Petrie, whose daily earnings amount to about $10 stands a chance to collect the equivalent of 1,120 days' pay.

Income from farm ownership is the only major source of income which has shown a slump since 1951.

Now is the time to take out samples for fall seeded crops.

Lloyd-Gilliam Reception Held

By J. B. HARRIS
ROCKY MOUNT — The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd, 425 Magnolia Drive, was the scene of a delightful reception this month honoring the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maggie Ree Lloyd, to Pfc. George Gilliam, Jr., of Fort Eustis, Va., which was consummated June 25th.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white embroidery lace, fashioned with a round neck. A white satin bow draped at the side and the dress was sleeveless. Mrs. Gilliam wore short white gloves, a white lace hat and a corsage of pink carnations. She carried a white purse also.

Arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used to decorate the living room for the occasion. The dining room table was covered with a white lace table cloth and centered with a triple tier wedding cake which was flanked by white candles and green ivy.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ruth E. McLaurin, pianist, and Mrs. Ella B. Miller, soloist. Presenting guests to the receiving line was Miss Leila Laws. Mrs. Mable J. Hines received the gifts. Mrs. Mavis Knight and Miss Eloise Pittman presided at the punch bowl and served cookies, mints and nuts to the guests.

The bride is a J. C. Smith University graduate and a member of the faculty at Conover, N. C. High school.

The groom is a native of Tallahassee, Fla., where he attended Florida A and M College. The couple took a brief unannounced honeymoon.

Bride's From N. C.

Brooklyn, N. Y. (ANP) — The wedding of the Rev. Charles E. Lewis, Sr., to the former Miss Jessie Daniels was solemnized at New Canaan Baptist Church Saturday. The Revs. John Arnold, George Wright and Y. Sanders stood by as the Rev. A. W. Wilson, pronounced the sacred vows.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the newlyweds, and the cutting of the four-tier wedding cake by the bride highlighted the bridal supper for the wedding party. Many gifts were received.

The bride wore a torquoise semi formal bridal gown of net with matching veil and crown in sequence, which was designed by her sister-in-law.

Members of the bridal party were the Rev. William H. Anderson, Philadelphia; Mrs. Mabel Daniels, the bride's sister-in-law and her husband; Mrs. Lucille Daniels, mother of the bride; Mrs. Pearl Jenkins of Savannah, Ga., mother

Four Dramas Staged At A&T College

GREENSBORO — Four plays, produced by a class in Acting and Directing at A&T College were warmly received last Friday night. An audience of a few more than 400 persons sat under a clear, starlit sky to witness the productions presented out-of-doors from the steps of Holland Hall.

A melodrama, "Fog" the first play featured; Eva Dillard, as an elderly woman; Mary P. McKay, as a middle aged woman and Marie Foust as a young woman. It was directed by Ernestine M. Green, Damascus, Ga.

"In The Mist", a chilling thriller has a cast including Carrie E. Johnson, Taylorsville; James A. Streater, Greensboro; Luther Johnson, Jr., Greensboro and Iola Clark, Newberry, S. C. It was directed by Anthony Gittings, Belhaven.

A comedy, "Meddlin", featured: Marian B. Morris, Pendleton; Mosella Ritter, Carthage; Nan Shelton, Martinsville, Va.; and Clyde E. Faye, Wilson. The play was directed by Edna Seales, Winston-Salem.

The final production, "The Bell" was directed by Nina M. Pearson of Lillington. The cast included: Vivian L. Hayes, Greensboro; Elizabeth S. Jones, Asheboro; Mary G. Kruckles, Gaffney, S. C.; Gertrude Johnson, Greensboro and Virginia L. McLaurin, Bladenboro.

The class producing the plays was instructed by Sylvester P. Clarke, chairman of the Drama Department at the college.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from The Bible

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do... (St. Luke 23, 24.)

Do you ever find it hard in your heart to forgive anyone? Do you sometimes find it hard even to forgive yourself?... On the Cross, Christ Jesus asked God to forgive those who were crucifying Him — for the Eternal God of Love and Mercy will forgive — and He hears even the smallest prayer.
