SUNDAY SERVICE

GUILFORD — Rev. P. S. Albright was guest speaker at Persimmon Grove A. M. E. Church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. M. L. Johnson was away at his home church for a brief visit.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNICS
All Sunday Schools in the community held their picnics Saturday, Aug. 10th. Persimmon Grove and Reynolds Chapel went jointly to Burlington, N. C. while Raleigh's Cross Road went to 14th St. Center in Winston-Salem, N. C. All reported having a good time at both places. Ice cream and lemonade along with all the picnic baskets were plentiful and as one little girl put it, she was full clean up to here—pointing to her neck.

SERVICE SUNDAY
The Rev. F. R. Mason of High Point will render service the third Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Reynolds Chapel Baptist Church. His choir and congregation will accompany him. Everyone is cordially invited.

SERVICE AUG. 21
Rev. Eugene Black, choir and congregation of Basses Chapel and Raleigh's Cross Rd. will render service at Reynolds Chapel Baptist Church, Wednesday night, August 21st. Everyone is invited to attend this service. Sponsor is Mrs. Gladys Gilbreath.

MISSIONARY MEETING
The Missionary Circle of Reynolds Chapel Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Robins with the vice president, Mrs. Fuller, in charge. The business session was presided over by the president, Concluding the business session the lesson Proverbs, 6th chapter was read and discussed by the ladies. A short report of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention was given by the president and vice president. The hostess, Mrs. Robinson served ice cream and cake to the following ladies: Mesdames Laura Fuller, Kathie Maxwell, Essie Hairston, Gladys Gilbreath, Annie Harris and Vera Waddell, Misses Maggie Gilmer and Geneva Alston.

SICK AND SHUT-IN
Mrs. Nellie Cooper and Mrs. Emma Minor are patients at L. Richard hospital. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

VISITING AND VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Minor spent a week visiting their parents and relatives. The Minors live in Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Amanda McCullum of New York City, spent two weeks at home, visiting relatives and friends here, in Greensboro and High Point. Before leaving Guilford Miss McCullum subscribed for the CAROLINIAN and will keep up with the CAROLINIAN happenings. We were glad to see Amanda home and hope to have her make peacocks to our homes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sapp, Mrs. Annie M. Hill and Vincent Stamps returned to points north on a week's vacation trip. This trip was also a celebration of the first anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Sapp. Miss Thomassene Gilmer has returned home after a two weeks vacation in New York City.
