RIGHTS BILL PASSES—The first Civil Rights Bill passed through the Senate in three quarters of a century, is discussed by three legislators, who had a hand in deciding its fate. The senators, left to right, are: Russell, who led fight against bill; O'Mahoney, Johnson, Senate Majority leader; Knowland, Minority leader; and Anderson. All except Russell voted for the drastically revised bill, which was returned to the House of Representatives for further reworking. (Newspress Photo).

During Summer:

Bennett Teachers Studied

GREENSBORO — Five members of the Bennett College Faculty engaged in graduate study this summer at eastern universities.

Studying at Columbia were Mrs. Louise G. Street, instructor in clothing and textiles; Miss Amalita Moore, director of residences; and Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics.

James J. Scarlett, business manager, studied at Pennsylvania State University and James McMillan, art instructor, at Syracuse University.

INTERIOR REDECORATION — GREENSBORO — Complete redecoration of the interior of the Annie Werner Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College was begun last week.

The charm, dignity and simplicity of the edifice will be perpetuated by the use of the same soft color tones in the walls, ceiling and doors. New red carpeting is also being installed and lighting fixtures burnished.

All work will be completed in time for the opening of the fall semester on September 11.

Brown Spot disease is known to reduce the overall yield of corn by as much as 15 per cent. Now is the time to take soil samples for fall seeded crops.

CHANGE OF COMMAND — Major Fred L. Allen, left, St. Louis, Mo., last week became the new Professor of Air Science at A and T College. In charge of the Air Force ROTC unit at the college, he succeeds Major Theodore Wilson, right, Roanoke, Va., associated with the outfit since the fall of 1953. Wilson, a member of the famed 99th Fighter Squadron in World War II and had his plane shot from under him over Anzio in Italy, has been assigned to new duties in New York City.

THE OLD MASTER — It wasn't too long ago that LeRoy "Satchel" Paige was tying both major league hitters and sports writers into knots, with the sluggers trying to solve his curve ball and the scribes attempting to unravel the mystery of just how old he really was. One record book (The Official Encyclopedia of Baseball) lists his date of birth as July 7, 1906. That would make "Satch" 51, but he's still around, as a relief pitcher for the Miami Marlins in the International League. Here, he shows the club's bathers, Chet Fields (left) and clubhouse boy Bobby Porter how to hold the ball for that famous curve in Miami. (UNITED PRESS PHOTO).

I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.—(Isaiah 43, 25.) It is the still, small voice of conscience which abides within us all the days—and especially the nights—of our lives that "remembers our sins But God, our merciful Father, will forgive the humbly, truly repentant, and give us new life in His loving-kindness.
