

Durham Welcomes State's Tobacco Growers

CONCORD NEWS

By Mrs. MARY W. HOYT

Community Missions Nursery will open again on Tuesday September 3. The nursery will take care of temporarily sheltered children but as many as 20 children may be received because of the children do not attend school. All children should be referred to the Saturday Evening News for the complete particulars of the nursery.

Parents who wish to send their children to the nursery should contact Mrs. MARY W. HOYT at 219 Hasbans St. Saturday, the nursery is sponsored by the Community Council for Social and Economic Progress in Cabarrus County. Mrs. HOYT is president of the Council and Mrs. Louise J. HOYT is chairman of the Committee on Day Care for the School Children.

MRS. ANNIE B. SHELTONS
Mrs. Annie Belle Sheltons of Concord 21, Winston-Salem, Tennessee College two summers ago, has received a certificate for having attended the International Model Christian Conference sponsored by the Women of the North Carolina Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the United States. The conference was held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill during the summer of 1957.

ROCK HILL COMMUNITY
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gandy have recently received the keys to Rock Hill Church. Mrs. Gandy is the pastor's wife.

REVIVAL
The Cedar Grove Presbyterian Church closed a very successful revival meeting last Sunday. The revival lasted a week and was conducted by Rev. Thomas A. Jenkins, pastor of Statesville Ave. Presbyterian Church in Charlotte. Rev. J. W. Ward, pastor of Cedar Grove Presbyterian Church.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Cora Colwell of Princess St. returned from Washington, D. C. Tuesday where she spent two weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Mercer. Mrs. Mercer is the former Mrs. Mary Louise Caldwell. Returning with Mrs. Colwell was her grandson, Jerome Evans, of Broad Street. He also visited with the Mercers.

UNITED CHURCH BAZAAR
The outdoor bazaar sponsored by eight local churches was such a great success on Saturday night that it was continued on Sunday. Mrs. Louis S. Blair was mistress of ceremonies at the program Friday

Highlights Of High Point

By Mrs. ODESSA S. TYSON

PTA Council Meets
HIGH POINT—The High Point PTA council met at the home of Mrs. Jola M. Hill, 8 Woodbury St. Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Martha McKee as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. McKee, with the singing of the PTA song. The business portion of the meeting followed with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary, Mrs. Annie M. Barber.

Plans were completed for the "Welcome Back" program for all the teachers in the school system on September 3rd. In connection with this program will be a breakfast on Monday in the home-making department of William Penn High School.

There were also discussed various other making projects that could be sponsored to add to the treasury.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served a tasty dessert course to the following: Miss Matylene L. Glass, principal of Fairview St. School, Mr. S. E. Burford, William Penn High School, Mr. O. F. Hudson, Leonard Street School, Mr. C. E. Yoke, E. Griffin School, Mrs. Hazel Elzer, Mrs. Annie Archie, Mrs. Dorothy Stafford, Mrs. Odessa Tyson, Mr. John Gantington, Mrs. Fannie Parker, Mrs. Eula Amaker, and Mrs. Frances Latta.

Garden Club Meets
Members of the Alice Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Carrie Harris Saturday at 4 p.m.

The president, Mrs. Eula Amaker presided. Business centered around fall planting. Mrs. Alice Simpson made two beautiful flower arrangements, one of Zinnias and the other of Marigolds. Ice cream and cake was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the meeting.

Flower Lawn Tea
The Buds of Promise of Saint Stephen AME Zion Church sponsored a flower lawn tea at the home of Little Miss Barbara McCloud on Lamb Street Sunday afternoon.

Because of inclement weather the tea had to be given indoors. Attractive tables centered with red and yellow roses were arranged in the entertaining room.

The program, with Jackie Goins as master of ceremony was as follows: The Lord's Prayer, sung by Robert Clark, Solo, Jackie Goins, Reading, Helen Carter, Solo and Brief History of the Buds of Promise by Nancy Tyson. Reading, Barbara McCloud. A quartet composed of the 4 Clark children concluded the program.

A beautiful painting was presented to Miss Barbara McCloud by the supervisor of the Buds, Mrs. Fannie B. Thomas (for having the largest number of guests present).

Weddings
LEACH-JACKSON Mrs. Beatrice Leach announces the marriage of her daughter, Betty Virginia, to Mr. Timothy Jackson, Wednesday, August 21st, in Lexington, N. C. The Jacksons are temporarily at home 1009 Hoover Street.

CAMPBELL-LINDSAY Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Campbell, 403 Gordon Street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to Mr. Donald Lindsay, August 21st. The newly weds are at home, 1124 Downing St.

Club News
The members of La Colonia Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Fido Eason, Thursday evening at her home, 307 Mobile Street.

During the brief business session, over which the president, Mrs. Christine Fuller presided, the roll was called and reports were heard from the decoration and finance committees.

Big whist and pinocle furnished entertainment for the members and guests. At the conclusion of play prizes were awarded for each game. High score prizes for whist were won by Mrs. Louise McCloud and Mrs. Odessa Tyson. High score prizes for pinocle were won by Mrs. Beatrice Bright and Mrs. Fannie Archie.

For refreshments, members and guests enjoyed a delicious outdoor supper served on the spacious lawn.

There were participants from First Baptist Church from First Baptist Little Alice Gamble sang "The Lord's Prayer" and William Pearson II read "Your Mission" from Grace Lutheran. The Junior Choir sang and Misses Margaret Assury and Marjorie Nelly rendered solos: "Oh, Give Christian, Miss Mary Wallace and the Senior Chorus sang the Silver Hill Patriotic. The Junior Choir rendered two selections, the Senior Choir of First Congregational sang selections from Zion Hill. Mesdames Elizabeth Bluford and Eva Tillman sang a duet and Mr. Frank Stewart a solo, from Beulah Baptist. Mrs. Helen Patton sang and both the Sunday School and Glee Clubs appeared, and the new, by Mrs. William Kiser from Zion Hill. The choir sang a duet. The outdoor stage was the Show Women belonging to the City Recreation Department.

The United States is the world's largest producer of soybeans, a crop that until recent years was largely grown in the Orient.

The trend toward bulk cooling and handling of milk on North Carolina farms is proceeding rapidly.

PERSONALS
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Rice of Route 1, Mebane, a son, August 21, at Alamance County Hospital.

PERSONALS
Miss Mozell Jones of Brooklyn New York is visiting her mother and family. She and her children will leave Friday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman, on August 14, a baby daughter, at Alamance County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hill have returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John McKethan is spending her vacation in New York.

Mrs. T. O. Satterwhite and children Mrs. Vashel Galvin, Harry and Mary V. have motored to Boston, Mass. to visit another daughter, Mrs. Margaret S. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McKay and Mrs. M. F. Crowe spent the weekend in Asheville, N. C.

We are happy to hear that Miss Willis Robinson, a recent graduate of N. C. College, has accepted a teaching position in Spartanburg, S. C. and Mrs. Martha Strickland Taylor of Dunn has already gone to her job at Armore High School, Armore, N. C. as teacher of Library Science and French.

Dallas Lee Dafford won the highest award for having the cleanest room and the P. T. A. congress gold pin for being the most outstanding student at Camp in Brick, N. C. Dallas is in Penn. now visiting his aunt.

Della Ann Dafford learned to swim while in Pennsylvania this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ledbetter and family have returned from a trip to Western North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Carter and Mrs. Josephine Grady of Dudley, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. John Grady of New York were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brewington.

Mr. Marion Cox and Lee Wynn of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Josephine Eason of Washington, D. C. visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dafford had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Wynn of Indianapolis, Ind. and Mr. Dafford's aunt, Mrs. Della Finalyson of Goldsboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Garner and daughters Edith and Norma of Springfield, Mass. are visiting Mrs. Garner's aunt, Mrs. Mabel McBay. Mrs. Garner is the former Alice Crowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hill have returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John McKethan is spending her vacation in New York.

Mrs. T. O. Satterwhite and children Mrs. Vashel Galvin, Harry and Mary V. have motored to Boston, Mass. to visit another daughter, Mrs. Margaret S. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McKay and Mrs. M. F. Crowe spent the weekend in Asheville, N. C.

We are happy to hear that Miss Willis Robinson, a recent graduate of N. C. College, has accepted a teaching position in Spartanburg, S. C. and Mrs. Martha Strickland Taylor of Dunn has already gone to her job at Armore High School, Armore, N. C. as teacher of Library Science and French.

Dallas Lee Dafford won the highest award for having the cleanest room and the P. T. A. congress gold pin for being the most outstanding student at Camp in Brick, N. C. Dallas is in Penn. now visiting his aunt.

Della Ann Dafford learned to swim while in Pennsylvania this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ledbetter and family have returned from a trip to Western North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Carter and Mrs. Josephine Grady of Dudley, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. John Grady of New York were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brewington.

Mr. Marion Cox and Lee Wynn of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

CREEKS CROSSING COMMUNITY

PERSONALS
Miss Mozell Jones of Brooklyn New York is visiting her mother and family. She and her children will leave Friday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman, on August 14, a baby daughter, at Alamance County Hospital.

Dunn News

By Mrs. M. F. CROWE

DUNN—A large group of our town's people attended the funeral of Miss Gladys Smith on Sunday at Spring Hill Church. Mrs. Smith was the wife of Mr. Neil Smith. Rev. Jackson delivered the eulogy. Funerals Home was in charge of the service.

Class number nineteen of the Free Will Sunday School had an outdoor party on the lawn of Miss Mabel Smith on Wednesday evening. They had a delightful time.

Mary Hagone and Bobbie Darden were delegates from Mingo Hill Church to the Sunday School Convention at Mt. Zion Church in Broadway, N. C.

Mrs. Elizabeth McLean of N. Magnolia Ave. is ill.

Raymond Codrington had as his week-end guest Rev. Samuel Edwards, medical student at Howard University, Washington, D. C. Rev. Edwards preached a fine sermon at the morning service at St. John Baptist Church on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. T. McDaniel are attending the Lott Carey Convention in Orange, N. C.

Miss M. R. Leary the Vocational Home Economics teacher of Hargett High School is already on the job. We wish to welcome Miss Leary who is new in our town.

Again we welcome more visitors—Mrs. Mary Sellers of Georgia visited her sister and brother-in-

PERSONALS
Miss Linda Martin, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Bessie G. Sugar on High Street, has returned to her home in New York City. Accompanying her on her trip home was her great aunt, Mrs. Cora Hill of Pittsburgh. Pa. who had also spent some time visiting Mrs. Sugar here.

Mrs. Fannie B. Thomas and Mr. J. A. Eubanks spent the day in Pittsboro, Tuesday, August 21st. They were the dinner guests of Mrs. Henry Emerson. A delicious course of peach tapoca topped with spiced green cherries was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Torrence of Beach Street left the city on Friday for an extended vacation. While away the Torrenses will visit Mrs. R. L. Morris, Charlotte, Mrs. Mary Phillips, Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Alston, Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, Portsmouth, Va. Accompanying them is Miss Louise Alston.

Hillsboro News

HILLSBORO—Fannie Wright, a 21-year-old beauty, was at one time "all shook up" over "Honey-boy" Ford, popular disk jockey for W. S. R. C. The tempo of the friendship cooled when he took her out for a steak dinner and she refused to eat it. A friend girl who was invited to join the company of the diners ate the steak.

Here of late Miss Wright is beginning to feel that she is ready for the steak.

Miss Betty Thompson, if a glamorous coed of Central High School is counting the remaining summer vacation days. She reports having spent one of the best vacations ever.

Mr. Leroy Kirby leaves Sunday for Washington, N. C. to resume teaching duties as band instructor at the P. S. Jones High School.

Mr. and Mrs. James Collins, Collins had as their recent guest Mr. and Mrs. John Alston. Mr. Daniel Collins and a great grandson DaAnny Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. David McPherson has returned home after visiting relatives in New York and New Jersey.

Central High School is in the process of getting a gymnasium.

Mebane Notes

MEBANE—Preston Tate of Mebane said that he was leaving for New York Friday. He should be there soon. He will drop a card to most of his friends.

Mrs. Virginia Jones returned to Newark, N. J. after a brief visit with relatives and friends here.

The shrimp dinners at the Mebane seafood cafe are as good as they come.

Mr. Pettway the principal at Mebane Colored High School was once a top baseball player.

Rhamkatte News

RHAMKATTE—Sunday School opened Sunday morning, August 26, at 10:45 a.m. with the superintendent, Mr. Chester Debnam, in charge.

We had a wonderful lesson. The subject was "Amos, crusader for righteousness." After the lesson the teachers took charge of each class and finished with the lesson. Deacon Stanley Ballentine reviewed the lesson.

The missionary net right after the Sunday School with the president, Sister Estella Jones, presiding.

Mrs. Odell Harris and daughter Marilyn are visiting Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Goodman.

PERSONALS
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Rice of Route 1, Mebane, a son, August 21, at Alamance County Hospital.

PERSONALS
Miss Mozell Jones of Brooklyn New York is visiting her mother and family. She and her children will leave Friday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman, on August 14, a baby daughter, at Alamance County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hill have returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John McKethan is spending her vacation in New York.

Mrs. T. O. Satterwhite and children Mrs. Vashel Galvin, Harry and Mary V. have motored to Boston, Mass. to visit another daughter, Mrs. Margaret S. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McKay and Mrs. M. F. Crowe spent the weekend in Asheville, N. C.

We are happy to hear that Miss Willis Robinson, a recent graduate of N. C. College, has accepted a teaching position in Spartanburg, S. C. and Mrs. Martha Strickland Taylor of Dunn has already gone to her job at Armore High School, Armore, N. C. as teacher of Library Science and French.

Dallas Lee Dafford won the highest award for having the cleanest room and the P. T. A. congress gold pin for being the most outstanding student at Camp in Brick, N. C. Dallas is in Penn. now visiting his aunt.

Della Ann Dafford learned to swim while in Pennsylvania this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ledbetter and family have returned from a trip to Western North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Carter and Mrs. Josephine Grady of Dudley, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. John Grady of New York were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brewington.

Mr. Marion Cox and Lee Wynn of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Josephine Eason of Washington, D. C. visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dafford had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Wynn of Indianapolis, Ind. and Mr. Dafford's aunt, Mrs. Della Finalyson of Goldsboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Garner and daughters Edith and Norma of Springfield, Mass. are visiting Mrs. Garner's aunt, Mrs. Mabel McBay. Mrs. Garner is the former Alice Crowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hill have returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John McKethan is spending her vacation in New York.

Mrs. T. O. Satterwhite and children Mrs. Vashel Galvin, Harry and Mary V. have motored to Boston, Mass. to visit another daughter, Mrs. Margaret S. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McKay and Mrs. M. F. Crowe spent the weekend in Asheville, N. C.

We are happy to hear that Miss Willis Robinson, a recent graduate of N. C. College, has accepted a teaching position in Spartanburg, S. C. and Mrs. Martha Strickland Taylor of Dunn has already gone to her job at Armore High School, Armore, N. C. as teacher of Library Science and French.

Dallas Lee Dafford won the highest award for having the cleanest room and the P. T. A. congress gold pin for being the most outstanding student at Camp in Brick, N. C. Dallas is in Penn. now visiting his aunt.

Della Ann Dafford learned to swim while in Pennsylvania this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ledbetter and family have returned from a trip to Western North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Carter and Mrs. Josephine Grady of Dudley, N. C. and Mr. and Mrs. John Grady of New York were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brewington.

Mr. Marion Cox and Lee Wynn of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

86 PROOF

Old Gold

Straight BOURBON Whiskey

$2.10 PINT

$3.35 4/5 QUART

TRIPLE DISTILLING COMPANY LAWRENCEBURG, KENTUCKY

Mechanics & Farmers Bank

WELCOMES

The Tobacco Growers To DURHAM

IT OFFERS THE BEST IN BANKING FACILITIES

SAVINGS                      LOANS

Your tobacco money is hard-earned money. You can get interest on your savings at a minimum risk, without having to make an investment. Your savings are insured up to $10,000.

Checking Accounts                      SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

Besides the risk of loss or theft, cash has a way of disappearing much faster than money in a checking account. Keep track of income and outgo by depositing your money and paying bills by check. It's safe, sure, convenient and low cost.

Your Mechanics and Farmers Bank is the place to go for loans. You deal with local people that you know and have confidence in. People interested in you. You also build valuable banking credit.

To insure your valuables against loss by fire or theft get a Mechanics and Farmers safe deposit box. Provides a safe place to leave securities, deeds, insurance policies, valuables and personal papers of all kinds and precious jewelry.

UPTOWN OFFICE:

116 PARRISH STREET
Convenient To All Warehouses

BRANCH OFFICE:

615 FAYETTEVILLE STREET
WHERE PARKING IS NO PROBLEM

Compliments Of

LIGGETTS

—And—

MEYERS

TOBACCO

COMPANY

Makers Of

- CHESTERFIELD
- L & M
- OASIS

CIGARETTES

TOBACCO

STARTED DURHAM

WE STARTED QUALITY

PRINTING

FOR DURHAM

SERVICE

PRINTING CO.

504 EAST PETTIGREW STREET

DURHAM, N. C.

"Printers Of Distinctions"

Sunday night services were under the direction of the Rev. Aaron Johnson and his congregation from a Fuquay-Springs Church. This service was sponsored by the senior choir of Watts Chapel.

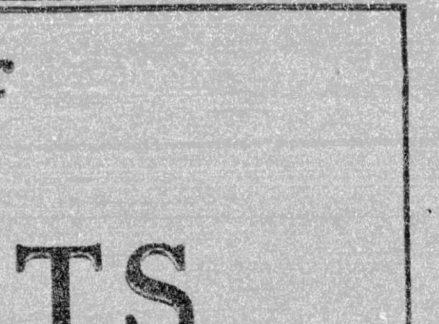

The Rev. Sister McNeil held a week-long revival service at St. Mary's A. M. E. Church in Apex recently. The Rev. F. A. McVory is the pastor of this church.

VACATIONING
Miss Aborn Pettiford, Miss Lena Burt and Melvin Upchurch are visiting Miss Pettiford's sister in New Jersey for a week.

Mrs. Louise Williams and her three children from Washington, D. C. visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burt recently.

The Glenn family visited in Washington recently. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glenn and their children, Elsie Mae, Gloria Jean and Thomas. It visited in the home of a cousin.

HOUSEWARMING
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ballentine held a housewarming Saturday night before last in their new home. Mrs. Clara Ballentine served from the punch bowl and Miss Ann Pollard and Mrs. Jackie Hood were in charge of the gifts.

My Neighbors

"I didn't go to work today. Confiscatory taxation completely destroyed my will to succeed!"