We spent last week in Philadelphia attending the 58th grand lodge of IBPOEW and resided with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. (Elizabeth Haughton. Sr., 1813 N. Van Pelt St. There we met a 77-year-old native of Tarheelia - the Rev. Levi A. Freeman from Raleigh, whose nephew, Percy Freeman, is chairman of the deacons at Martin Street Baptist Church, according to Mr. Freeman, who has been preaching 59 years and has built two churches since he 'wentnorth' in 1963. Rev. Freeman said he received his ministerial license from the late Herman Pair at Shotville (Riley Hill) after having atfended the interracial school taught by the noted John Chavis, at whose knee many white youths, (who later became famous men in Tarheelia) took instruction. Chavis taught whites by day and colored by night. it is reported.
