PITTSBORO NEWS

By GUTTANA M. HORTON

PITTSBORO — Sunday night, September 13, marked the end of the Virgin Drive at the St. Luke Church. Goldenrod, the Rev. R. V. Horton was guest speaker for the evening.

THIS AND THAT
Around 50 children gathered on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson's home to attend the birthday party of Master Jerry Lambert, New York, who was celebrating his 8th birthday August 31.

Those celebrating holidays recently were Mrs. Batavia Richardson, Aug. 30; Miss Minerva Horton, August 29.

A back-to-school party was held at E and B Restaurant on Aug. 27. It was enjoyed by all.

VISITORS
Mrs. Massie Walker, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Birdie Lambert and family of New York returned to her home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. F. L. Ellis of Pittsboro.

Mr. David Reeves recently returned to New York City after visiting in Pittsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Burnett and friends of Philadelphia, Pa. were visiting in Pittsboro over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Brown of 618 East Eleventh St. became the bride of Robert Lee Manson, Sr. of Bronx, New York, at 7 p.m. Aug. 23 at Mount Zion Baptist Church.

The Rev. K. O. P. Goodwin performed the ceremony. Miss Annie Ingram played the piano.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of lace over satin with a Japanese neckline, long sleeves ending in calla points and a full skirt. Her wrist length veil of illusion fell from a queen's crown of lace pearls.

Mrs. Luella Govan was honor attendant. She wore a turquoise street length organdy dress. She carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

Misses Betty Leach, Annie Farrar and Margaret Bryant of New York, and Arnette Head and Iris Venable of Winston-Salem were bridesmaids. They wore rainbow colored dresses and carried matching summer flowers.

Jacqueline Govan and John Brown, Jr. were children attendants. Charlie L. Brown was best man. Nathan Simms, Nathaniel Tucker, Maurice Scott, John Brown and Howard Shaw were ushers.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at the church. The bride is a graduate of North Carolina College. She is employed as a clerk in Plymouth, Inc. in New York City. The bridegroom is a graduate of Samuel Gompers of New York City. He is employed as a postal clerk.
