

ROXBORO-REIDSVILLE

ROXBORO — Brady (Tall Boy) Johnson got a baseball scholarship to Shaw University word has reached this corner that he has gone out for an end position on the football team and is doing well. Brady Johnson stands six-foot four in his stocking feet and weighs 204 lbs. He should do well at Shaw. Brady was a three-letter man while at Person Co. High School.

Mr. Heredine McGhee and sister came to town a few days ago from Washington and Baltimore, respectively, to pay a return visit to their mother, Mrs. Unice McGhee, of Reade St. in Roxboro, who a week or two before had dropped in on her children while on an extensive trip north. Washington, Baltimore, Newark and Miss Arlene Winstead Temple, of New York City, spent her two-weeks vacation with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Toran, of the Sugar Hill Section of Roxboro. Arlene is rounding out her twelfth year as a New Yorker. She reports that Roxborites in New York are doing well.

Billy Toran, of the armed forces is also home visiting his parents on Sugar Hill. Billy is a favorite son of Roxboro and everyone enjoys his presence and company.

SATIERFIELDS SODA SHOP on the hill is the only colored place of its kind in Roxboro. It is hoped that the shop will get the proper encouragement from the citizens so that we will, for a long time, have a place to go where we can sit down and drink milk shakes and eat ice cream in peace.

In Burlington a child under sixteen must attend school regardless, unless he is sick. If he fails to show up at any time that school is in session, a quick check is made and the probation officer notified at once.

Within an hour the probation officer contacts the child's parents. If no justifiable explanation is given, the police is notified who in turn go for the parents or child whenever it is found. The child must go to school unless sickness prevents.

Big Landers Tapp, who marks and grades lumber at Pat Brown's Planter Mill is a graduate of Person County High School and was a star basketball player while there. Wallace Cash reports that it is Tapp's high school training that enables him to hold his present post at the mill. His job requires pencil work and brains and Tapp fits the bill. Others at the mill can do the work, but Tapp's got a high school education and that's the difference.

Coach Matt Brown and his nephew Charles Brown, of Columbus, Ohio, spent the weekend with the Brownings. Coach Brown brought his nephew down to put him in A and T College. Young Brown was a star at Massillon High School, in Massillon, Ohio, the same school where the Great Paul Brown coached before he went to coach the Cleveland Browns.

Word is around that a decision is soon to be handed down in the Bradsher-Moien money case.
