STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

From The Bible

But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you.... —(Isaiah 59, 2.)

It is our own willfulness, selfishness, weakness, that keep us from most enjoyable living and being fully in God's love. His perfect word—and yet, His mercy forgives and accepts the truly repentant heart.

Weekly Church Roundup

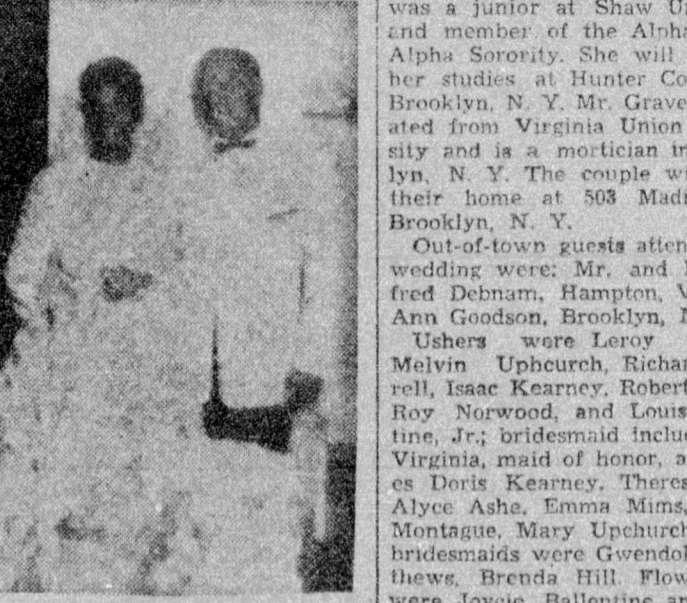

ST. PAUL AME CHURCH — The Church School began at 9:45 with the Supt., Mrs. Hattie Mitchell, in charge. This was a promotional day and we were favored with a very fine address by Mr. W. S. Smith, history instructor at Shaw University. His subject was "The Role of the youth in Christian Leadership." Mr. W. A. Rainbow introduced the speaker.

The pastor, Rev. L. S. Penn, preached a wonderful message. The text was from Matt., 9:37. "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few." It is our responsibility as Christians to help in the saving of souls. The Chorists, rendered the music. Mr. R. H. Toole, organist. At the evening service, The Emergency Club of the church presented a Religious Pageant, "The Banner of Faith," by Bessie M. Stratton. It was a very fine presentation.

Miss Barbara Hill, Mr. Graves Wed At Watts Baptist Church

RHAMKATTE — Miss Barbara Ella Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron D. Hill, Jr., and Orin McDonald Graves were married in a double-ring ceremony at the Watts Chapel Baptist Church Saturday, October 12, at 7 p.m., with Rev. Isaac Lee officiating. Mr. McClain, pianist, rendered music for the occasion, while Paul Crump sang "Because," Miss Elsie Matthews, "Lord's Prayer," and solo by Laticia Fields.

The bride entered the aisle of the church with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a formal wedding gown of chantilly lace over nylon netting. Her head veil was attached to a coronet encrusted with pearls. She carried a white prayer book with pearl orchids and tuberose attached.

Other members of the wedding party were gorgeously attired, including the bride's mother who wore a teal blue lace dress and a lavender orchid. The bride's aunt was attired in blue lace dress with over blue topper and a red rose. The groom's sister wore a mint green dress with a pink carnation, while the grandmother of the bride paraded a blue lace dress and pink carnation. The groom's brother was the best man.

A RECEPTION WAS held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride, Mrs. Graves was a junior at Shaw University and member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She will continue her studies at Hunter College in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Graves graduated from Virginia Union University and is a mortician in Brooklyn, N. Y. The couple will make their home at 503 Madison St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
