MARTIN STREET BAPTIST CHURCH — Sunday Morning worship at 11 a.m.

TOTS 'N' TEENS

The Tots 'N' Teens Club entertained their children with a Harvest Party at the Chavis Heights Community Center on Sat. Nov. 9th. Each child brought a gift to be put into a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family.

The Center was beautifully decorated in the Thanksgiving motif. The children enjoyed playing games and dancing. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, party cakes, souvenir baskets of candies and peanuts.

This event served also as a Get-Acquainted Party for the new members. These members are: Mrs. Clara Hunt and children, Martha and Donna; Mrs. Dorothy Baker and daughter, Bertha; Mrs. Julia Smith and daughter, Fabette; Mrs. Marie Winters and children: Frances, John, Michael, Donna Faye, Naomi Regina, Rebecca and Ronald; and Mrs. Letha Daniels and children.

THE CHARMETTES MEET

The Social Charmettes met recently at the home of Mrs. Ruth Curtis on East Lane St. The meeting was opened by Pres. Moore. Then the house was opened for discussion of old and new business matters.

Since the aim and purpose of the club is to bring cheer and happiness to the children's Ward at St. Agnes Hospital, plans were made for purchasing a Xmas gift for the Ward. Plans also were made for a Xmas party which will be held Dec. 23rd.

A new member, Mrs. Janie Chavis, was welcomed to the club. One member was remembered for having a birthday in Oct., Mrs. Ruby Curtis. She was given a present from the club.

QUETTES MEET

What a charming evening it was for the Quettes when they met at the home of Mrs. Willie High, 1008 S. Person Street, November 17, with Mesdames Virginia Blount, Nellie Boykins, Sara Brower, and Elizabeth Coffield as Co-hostesses. A round of business activities and the Collection of clothing for needy families claimed the spotlight on the agenda.

Plans and suggestions were offered for the year's activity calendar. Plans are now underway to effect a Christmas project which will stimulate and recognize in some way those entering the competitive drive to decorate homes in unique and fascinating ways. Watch the paper for further details.

A fall floral centerpiece, artistically designed and made by the hostess, adorned the table while a luscious repast of orange delight cake and hot wassaila was served and enjoyed by all.

The Quettes' initial meeting was an equal success as it was held at the home of their newly elected president, Mrs. Gladys Johnson in late October. Several business items and formulation of new plans for the year were launched.

A crowning delight of the meeting was the refreshment break when all partook of frosty lemon meringue pie and hot coffee. Hostesses making the evening so pleasurable were: Mesdames Gladys Johnson, Ann Hurdle, Mamie Flagg, Thelma Clark and Merca Yarborough.

The World Fellowship of the Southern Truth Branch of the Y.W.C.A. had its 13th Observance of the Week of Prayer and World Fellowship, Sunday, November 17, at the YWCA, 310 E. Davis Street, 8:00 p.m. The program was based on the theme "God So Loved The World."

The prelude and other music based on the theme was played by Mrs. Ruby M. Banks. Call to worship was given by Miss Mildred McTyre, instructor at Shaw University. Prayer was given by Mrs. Pauline Stagers of St. Augustine's College.

A solo "Eternal Life" was sung by Mr. Paul Crump accompanied by Mr. Harry Gil-Smythe. A poem "Father of Lights" was read by Mrs. Kathryn Y. Steward with a music accompaniment. Mrs. J. D. Delaney gave the meditation.

Foreign Students and professors from Shaw University, St. Augustine's College, Meredith College and State College appeared on the program.
