KINSTON—The Lenoir County Negro Home Demonstration Clubs held their annual Achievement Program at the J. H. Sampson School recently. Mrs. Quinerly Davis, county council president, presided and offered greetings. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Jessie Jones, county chaplain and the county achievement report was given by Mr. Rudolph White, council secretary.

The Dr. Rachel Davis Award was awarded to the Vance Home Demonstration Club, of which Mrs. Walter McNeal is president, for its outstanding home improvements, attendance at meetings and community activities.

A canning contest was held among the clubs with the Institute and Vance clubs winning first and second place, respectively. The Vance Club also won the award for having the highest percentage of members present at the program.

Mrs. William Vause of the Southwest Club gave a report of a tour she made of the Carribeans during the summer.

Miss Martha V. Mahnor offered a report of the 4-H Regional Camp which she attended during August.

Perfect attendance certificates were awarded by the Home Agent Mrs. V. B. Bynum to the following members: Mrs. Florence Wingate, Hickory Grove Club; Mrs. Theodore Alderman and Mrs. Raymond Williams, Institute Club; Mrs. William Vause, Southwest Club; Mrs. Quinerly Davis and Mrs. Richard Dunn, Vine Swamp Club; Mrs. Walter McNeal, Mrs. Cornelius Payton, Mrs. Grover Isler and Miss V. O. McNeal, Vance Club.

The Adkin High School PTA met in its Nov. meeting on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10 at 5 p.m. in the school auditorium. A brief, but timely and interesting American Education Week program was presented by the parents and teachers. W. N. Payton is the PTA president.

The St. Augustine's College Choir of Raleigh, N. C. presented a concert on Sunday evening at 7 p.m. to a large an dappreciative audience in the Adkin High School Auditorium. The group was directed by John C. Moore.

Soloists for the group were Geneva Wilkins, Ivene Hill and Edward Rayford. Proceeds from the concert were placed in the Band Uniform Fund.

Mrs. Alexander Hill was hostess to the Entre Nous Club members at her Gordon Street home on a recent Saturday evening. During the business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. James Cogdell, Mrs. James Henry gave a report for the gift and benevolent committee. Mrs. Hill offered a program committee report and outlined the agenda for the tree planting ceremony which was scheduled to be held at the Holloway Pool at 11:00 Saturday.

Three progressions of pinochle were played. Mrs. Bruce Patterson, Jr. and Mrs. Dannis Tillery were high scorers. Mrs. Harvey Beech received the consolation award. Invited guests were Mesdames E. S. Houston and W. L. Bynum.

The Hill residence was decorated throughout in the Veterans Day motif. A buffet luncheon was served on the dining table which was centered with red roses on a lace table cloth over a red linen covercleit. Red and white candles and miniature flags surrounded the rose centerpiece.

Members present were Mesdames W. A. Lawson, Lenoris King, Joseph Stanley, James Cogdell, Robert Crews, Bruce Patterson, Jr. Dannis Tillery, James Henry and Harvey Beech.

BURLINTON — Union Chapel Christian Church observed its annual Women's Day Program Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. with Mrs. J. A. Ivey as guest speaker. The meeting was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Morgantown Baptist Church had 3 nights of service that will long-be remembered last week, beginning Wednesday evening with Rev. M. Mills of Jeffries Cross as guest speaker. The Tumptee and Jeffries Cross choirs furnished the music. Mrs. Keith Gant sponsored the service.

The First Baptist Church, of which Rev. H. J. Cobb is pastor with its fall flower arrangements and young people and adults in attendance was carried back to the days of old to find the "old paths when the pastor chose for his theme "The Corn-Crib of Egypt", for meditation. "Have thine own way", was sung. BTU was held at 6:15 p.m. Evening service followed.

The members of the Missionary Union were guests Monday evening of the Mission group of the North-side Baptist Church of which Rev. Mr. Councilman is the pastor. The program's Theme: "Three Knocks in the night", was beautifully depicted by members of the various groups. A special musical number was rendered, remarks and a blautiful service on love and prayer brought to a close a very inspirational and informative program. We were conducted through the New Educational plant by the pastor's wife and other members of the group.

Church Work

II Corinthians, 5th chapter and 17th verse records "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature." This was the text used by Rev. W. W. Moore Sunday morning, Nov. 17th at St. James AME Church. The sermon was heartfelt and those present enjoyed it.

Rev. Moore filled the pulpit at this service as the pastor was attending the annual Conference which was held at St. Matthews Church in Raleigh. Reverend Moore was accompanied by Rev. E. D. Baker, who gave some very timely remarks. We were pleased to have them both with us in Sunday School.

Mrs. Georgia McCullers was delegate to the the Conference from Saint James Church.

Rev. Mrs. Mary Frazier attended the Conference also.

The Little Folk and senior choirs rendered music with Mr. Lemuel Smith at the organ and Mrs. Willie Gaynor at the piano.

OAK CITY BAPTIST CHURCH

At 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning regular preaching service will be held at this church. Let all of us who are able to do so attend this service on the 2nd and 4th Sundays each month. Rev. C. R. Trotter is pastor.

CHRISTIAN TABERNACLE CHURCH

Attend preaching service each 1st Sunday at the above-named church. Rev. Harvey Haywood is the pastor.

PRAYER SERVICES

Each Monday and Wednesday nights prayer services is held in Method churches. Monday night the Rev. Mrs. Frazier conducts prayer service at St. James AME and Miss Susan Wilcox has charge of the prayer service at the Christian Tabernacle Church.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE

The Missionary Circle of St. James Church meets each 2nd Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. The last meeting was held with Mrs. Lillie Rogers and Mrs. Marion Marriott. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Cora Haywood on December 8th.

CLUBS

The Willing Workers Community Club meets each 1st Wednesday night. A call meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sarah Smith Wednesday night, Nov. 20th at which time and Mrs. Georgia McCullers' birthe the club will celebrate Mrs. Smith's days. Names will also be drawn at that time for the club members annual Christmas party which is held yearly at the home of Mrs. Mary Ida Harris.

The last regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Verila Hagans. Her birthday was celebrated then and a grand time was enjoyed by all present. The club is out for service to the people here and elsewhere.

From the small dues paid in, the group has made it possible to help some in all of the churches and community work besides helping the sick and aged by their benevolence. The club will render a thanksgiving service on Thanksgiving morning at 11 o'clock.

At that time packages of nice things will be given to the sick and aged ones. At Christmas time the Missionary group will have charge of the same work.

SCHOOL WORK

The Berry O'Kelly PTA will meet in the auditorium building Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Parents and all persons living in this vicinity are urged to be present. We cannot gain results for the betterment unless we meet together and make a strongly-linked chain for good. Miss Susan Wilcox is president.

CIVIC LEAGUE

This worthy organization meets on the 1st Tuesday night in each month. There has been some fine work done by this organization during the past year or more.

Much more can be accomplished if we join our forces together and work for what we want. E. Curtis presided.

DEATH

Mr. Phillip Alston, Jr.'s father passed at St. Agnes Hospital on Nov. 9th and was funeralized from the Williams Grove Baptist Church last Wednesday. We give the family our heartfelt sympathy. We greatly mourn the passing of our friend, Mr. J. R. Williams of West Raleigh and Mr. Joseph Moye of Poole Road, Raleigh.

SICK

Mrs. Hettie Williams, Mr. Herbert Stroud, Mr. Walter McCray, and Mr. Baker remain on the sick list. We stand ready to help them or their families at any hour.

Shaw University's Homecoming parade was tops — If the weather man had dealt the promoters an even break there is no telling how great the crowd would hav been — Even as bad as the weather was old grads, well wishers and former "big name" athletes came from far and near — "Shag" Creecy, former All C.I.A.A. football and basketball star, Clarence "Cool Breeze" Moore, All C.I.A.A. first baseman Kenneth "Bim" Diamond, All-American basketball center, All-American first baseman, All-Conference halfback and a past master on the piano, Robert "Bob" Earl, star football and baseball player, Kelly Bryant, star football and basketball player, Herman Fields, all conference tackle and star linesman with The Ole New York Brown Bombers . . . Scipio Easterling, All C.I.A.A. tackle and many others that could not be contacted. Former coeds from everywhere weathered the storm to put in their homecoming personal appearance . . . old grads of the early twenties and further back came to town with friends and families to view the 1957 edition of The "Bellowing Bears" who rose to the occasion and trounced the pitiful Lincoln Lions 46-0.

William Young (Yock-A-Mein) Marshall of Norfolk brought his beautiful young wife Laura along to join the Shaw family in their homecoming festivities. They were house guests of the Frank Watsons on Idlewild Ave. . . . Incidentally Frank was one of the greatest baseball players to ever wear a spiked shoe for Shaw University . . . and in those days you couldn't just bull your way to greatness with your mouth or by making one or two "circus plays" a year . . . whether it was baseball or football, keen competition was always haunting your every move . . . What! with such celebrated athletes around as Biggie Ligon, "Doll" Haywood, the late Hubert Towns, Jimmie Lytle and "Red Top" Turner. . . Miss Melba Cherry Armstrong flew in from Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Rodney Compton Wright round-tripped from Louisville, Ky., via Eastern Air Lines to Chavis Park . . . Mrs. Ochia Dover Lee double-timed from Washington, D. C. after doing the same thing a week earlier by mistake . . . Ditto for Mrs. Mary Della Wilkins Bass who Air-lined it to Raleigh a week ago to enjoy the delayed homecoming . . . Mrs. Mildred Thompson and a host of down-easterners were on hand to witness the "hoss-tromping".

Another old yesteryear football center showed up from Charlotte in the person of "Hots" Wells . . . He was accompanied by the old original playboy himself, Lee North . . . Athletic Director Jimmy Lytle, one of the best all-around natural athletes to ever walk on two feet, was at the side of Coach Anderson to lend whatever assistance was necessary . . . And that guy Anderson must have been a "hated baby" because everybody loves him now. Dr. Nelson H. Harris, the undercover workhorse, evidently contacted every known living graduate through his unique mail order ticket disposal system.

Dean Foster Payne was all smiles and enjoying both the game and "howdy doing" to the many grads that he had helped to reach pay dirt in the teaching profession . . . You know he is a recent "papa" which should have been the case years ago . . . so next week he will be listed as a full bona-fide member of the All-America family team.

Another Raleighite that has come up with a delayed all-American approach is Mr. James Louis Atkins of Johnson Terrace, who after stretching his years far beyond the "baby age", came up two months ago with a very cute new addition. He is married to the former Miss Martha Louis Good.

Certificates will be sent to the family All-Americans soon. Dean Foster Payne will take over at left halfback and Jimmie Atkins will step into the left end position. Two more positions are open on the first team . . . center and right guard

Coach Herman Riddick of North Carolina College is having nightmares over thinking about how glad Jake Gaither is going to be to see him when he and his football team land in Florida Dec. 7th. Jake always gives him an arousing welcome on his periodical visits. The last time it was 68-6.

Shaw has been North Carolina's best bet against Jake Gaither's Florida A&M Rattlers. In the late forties Shaw beat Florida 19-0 or 19-6; down there it was Florida 7, Shaw 6 or a touchdown difference in the low score. Call in the "betters" and lay 'em odds.

COLLEGE PRESENTS DR. MARGUERITE ADAMS

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society of St. Augustine's College presented Dr. Marguerite Adams, Shaw University Counselor in a lecture on Sunday November 17, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Adams spoke on "The Road to Good Scholarship". She was introduced by Miss Zenobia Browning, president of Alpha Kappa Mu.

Miss Patricia Welch, treasurer, gave the invocations. Mr. Thomas Thornley, III gave a musical selection with Miss Janet Schumpert singing "Gebet" with Mrs. Albert W. Grauer, accompanist. Miss Bessie Smith recited "It Couldn't Be Done" by Edgar A. Guest.

ELECTED CONFERENCE ORGANIST — Mrs. Leola Smith Haywood, 321 Haywood Street, Raleigh, was elected organist for the North Carolina Congregational Christian Church Conference recently. She was also elected a delegate to the General Council of the United Churches of America which convenes in Boston, Mass. in June, 1958. Mrs. Haywood hold other positions as organist for the following churches: Elevation Baptist, Eagle Rock Congregational Christian, New Bethel Congregational Christian, Malaby's Cross Roads Baptist, and Maple Temple Christian Church's Chorus.
