Thirty-Two Year History Of School Recalls Change

ROXBORO — During its thirty-two year history, Person County High School has undergone many changes in both location and size.

In 1925, under the name of Person County Training School, it had its beginning in a four-room frame structure (Olive Hill School) located six and over one half miles west of Roxboro. At this time the principal acted as the only full-time high school teacher of the few students in that department. The enrollment in the school year 1928-1929 had increased to forty-five, and there was one part-time teacher, and four full-time teachers.

In the fall of 1929, Person County Training School was moved temporarily into another building (Cedar Grove Academy) in Roxboro. In January 1930, it was moved into its permanent quarters—a new sixteen-room structure on South Main Circle.

As Person County Training School, the school consisted of grades from one to twelve. When the school was moved to its present location, and the name was changed to Person County High School, no elementary grades were included.

The present building, in 1950, contained nine classrooms, two laboratories—science, and home economics, a library and an auditorium. Since that time eight classrooms, a spacious gymnasium, and shower rooms have been added. The faculty has been increased from one full-time high including the principal in 1957, four high school grades.

The enrollment has increased from forty-five in 1928-1929 to 655 in 1957.

The number of rooms has increased from four and an auditorium for eleven grades in 1925, to seventeen classrooms, two laboratories, a library, shower rooms, and a gymnasium for school teacher including the principal in 1925, to twenty-one

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.—(Timothy 1, 7.)

When we trust in God completely, we are freed from the fear and fearful imaginings which are born of human weakness. We become strong and courageous in the release and the exercise of the divine strength and power that is within us—the God-given spirit that fills and rules us when we let it do so.
