WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1957

AGE FOURTEEN THE CAROLINIAN Louis Cards' Owner Offers $1,000,000 For Mays Busch Wants 'Most Representative Team In The Country,' Scribe Says By ROSCOE L. MCCRARY | er Willie Mays, it pointed up a! that time the Nation: ST. LOUIS - (Special) - When pledge made by the Red Bird presgue Club was among the few it was revealed here this week ident four years ago. holdouts on Negro ball play-It was in March, 1953 when that St. Louis Cardinal owner ers. In answer to a gurey from August A. Busch, Jr., had offered Mr. Busch first acquired the reporters on the future hir-$1,000,000 for Giants centerfield- team from Fred Saiga. Up to ing policy of the team, Mr Busch had this to say: Yankees May Cash In On "We hope the Cardinals will be one of the most representative teams in the country ... I can assure you our policy will be to have all players selected on Dodgers, Giants Transfer the basis of their ability . Mr. Busch, who is also president of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., has followed that policy down through his scouting staff and including the numerous clubs ave New York's 8000 000 was given a salary boost to in the Cardinal farm system. olks all to themselves, the New $20.000 a year. The Mays deal came to light ork Yankees are going out after Coleman is to be a good will this week when it was revealed igger attendances at their Bronx man for the Yankees and a that former general manager part time scout and trouble Frank Lane, under prodding from First change was in promotshooter in their farm system. Mr. Busch, attempted to snatch ing ferry Coleman from play-As yet, Elston Howard is the on-Willie in an effort to solve the er status to executive status. v colored member of the Brony Cardinal centerfield problem. The with his exact job not yet well $1,000,000 transaction was reported to have included Wally Moon among the Red Birds and farm Ray Mitchell's Winter Golf hands. A $750,000 cash offer went with the proposal

SHARP SHOOTER --- Desuit the defensive efforts of three Minneapolis Lakers, Deiroit's Nat. weetwater" Chillen (24) acts during play in the game at Madison Square Garden. wember 26th. The upsnecessful defende Vern Mikkelsen (19), Bob Leonard (21), and Corky ville (13). (UNITED DECISE PROTE

Beating The Gun

rterest in Larry ioned in a possible dea could have irch, then in 1954 at North Carolina College in Dur-During the Warld ham, receiving his M.A. Degree in Physical Education the followbetween the Los Anges was heard again. The ion of which this year i thed in this fall was Don-

Hampton To Open Cage Season Sat.

HAMPTON, Va. Hampton In stitute Fighting Pirates open th 1957--958 basketball season Saturday. December 6 against St. Paul Polytechnic Institute in Lawrenceville, Va., with a new coac

Frank E. Enty, 30, replaces Ben Whaley, now head football coach for the Firates, in the cad hardwood position. Enty came to Manuaton in 1955 as director of intermural activities.

ginia State College class of '50, Maynard and G W F Bates and River, Bahama December 10, were selected by Coach Tom Hart championship basektball teams, ready themselves for this first en- 13, High Point, High Point, Dec- seniors John Syphax and Harold After graduation he worked in counter of the season.

squad, which was hard hit by graduation last May, have a huge rebuilding job ahead of them. There are only two re-sophomore; and Lillian Mc-

Ghee, a junior. 'However,

Coach Bates expects quite a bit of help from Betty Cook, Barbara Pickard, Wylens Neal,

Shirley Brooks, Nancy Madden.

Doris Lee, Norma Stephens

and a host of promising sophomores and freshmen. Of course, the lack of experience will be felt quite keenly by Coach

Tourney Set For Miami, Fla.

NEW YORK, N. Y - The beauti- sted Golfers Association pro champ-1 Miami Springs Country Club ion, Ted Rhodes. St Louis, w all again be the site of Ray Mit- winner in the professional ranks. golf Dr. H. M. Holmes, Atlanta, is deournament which has been set for fending champion in the senior Miami, February 24-2 men's division

According to Mr. Mitchell, rida born pro who now resides in New York City, golfers all over the country are look. ing forward to the winter tourfrom all sections of the nation have gone to Miami for this outstanding go' competition. Last year Joe Reach and Eolin

In previous years, Dick Gardner and Myrtle, New York City, and Sam Woodson, U. S. Army, have been divisional winners in the tournament nament. In recent years, golfers which has seen such well-known names as Jackie Robinson, Don Newcombe, Billy Eckstine and Arthur Prysock as entries.

A large number of social eve are planned for the period of the

Burlington's Jordan Sellars High Opens 20 Game Schedule

SURLINGTON - With only one ibert Enoch. eck's practice, the 1957-58 edition James Boone, Elijah Wade, De I the boys and girls cagers of Jor- Witt Shanks. Clyde Ratford, dan Sellars High School was sche- reserve Andrew Grene, From last fuled to play host to the strong junior varsity will be: Joseph Merrick-Moore teams of Durham Short, a six-four center, County Tuesday night, Dec 3rd. The season's twenty gam

Last Tuesday was the beginning ule follow mural activities. As a member of the West Vir- ration on the part of coaches D. L. Burington, December 6, Little CIAA their charges in their offerts to High Point, Burlington, December to start against Smith. They were counter of the season. Coach Bates and his girls 3 Reideville Burlington January Eaton, both from Dunbar High;

Second Science

Grant To NCC

For Over 50 G's

DURHAM - North Carolina

College has received a second

In announcing receipt of Science Foundation, NCC

the grant from the National President Alfonso Elder said

the institute would again be directed by Dr. W. H. Robinson, professor of physics.

tute.'

Howard U.

Begins 23 Game Slate

WASHINGTON, D. C - Howard University opened its 23-game 1957 58 basketball schedule Monday. December 2nd, meeting Johnson Smith University in a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association game at Charlotte, N. C.

This was the fust of four gains, all in CIAA competition, for vincible this year in the National he Bisons on the road before reurning home to meet Maryland have one of the most formidable ketball championship teams in Tuesday, December 10th, all-around cage combinations ever at Capital Arena, Game time at fashioned in pro basketball.

Other early season road contests find Howard at Virginia State, December 3rd; at St. Paul (Vat) December 4th; and at Lincoln University (Pa.), 7th The Bisons m Smith December 13th and St. Paul December 14th at Capital Arena before breaking for the Christmas recess. The Smith game begins at 8:30 p.m. and St. Paul contest at 3:15 p.m.

Four letterman and one freshman

CRACKING A 'NUT' - Mexico's sensational lightweight prospect, Ricarde Moreno, pumps strong lefts and rights to Ike Chestnut's boad (left), in the first round of their recently scheduled 10-rounder in Los Angeles. Moreno won by a TKO in the sixth

Label Bill Russell Big Gun In Lineup Of Boston Celtics

two stories on Negro players in the National Basketball Association.)

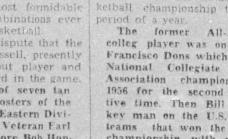

CHICAGO (ANP)- The Boston Celtics have been practically in-Basketball Assocation. The Celts

But no one will dispute that the hig man is Bill Russell, presently the most talked-about player and the best drawing card in the game. Russell is one of seven tan players on the roosters of the four teams in the Eastern Division of the league. Veteran Earl Lloyd and sophomore Bob Hopkins are with Syracuse; Willie Naulis and Ray Felix are with the New York Knicks, and ord of having played on three basWoody Sauldsherry is a memher of the Philadelphia Warriors.

Sam Jones, a rookie from North Carolina College, has a good chanc to stick with the Celtics

Russell has the unmatched red period of a year

The former All-American colleg player was on the San Francisco Dons which won the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship in 1956 for the second consect tive time. Then Bill was the key man on the U.S. Olympic teams that won the world's championship with ridiculous ease. Finally, he joined the Celties last winter and the Bos ton aggregation took the bacon in the NBA.

round. (Newspress Photo).

infielder

that Deby mich Justicies has indicated that he of the White unhappy about such a tu

Before the Tigers acquired

$395

REENDER CODDERHAM & WORTS LTD PEORIA, ILL

When asked about the squad this season Enty declared, "We have only one senior letterman, Capt. Bland T. Brokenborough of Washington, D. C. I've been pleased, though, with the caliber of players that tried out and made the squad. There are several promising sophomores ing to part with plenty to and standout rookies that should add up to a hustling team. We hope to maek up with defensive tantics what we lack in height and experi-

While the prospects for the apence." pear rather dack, the prospects for Hampton and St. Paul have Cosch Maynard's boys look exceed-43 times, Hampton winning ingly bright. Only one member of 38. They did not met last season last year's squad was lost by gradbut ran neck and neck in CIAA uation. Returning lettermen from final standings, Hampton 14th, just year's squad are: Captain Rob-St. Paul 15th. The Pirates journey to Greens- ert Murray, Stanley Pinnix, Al-boro, N. C., the following day to meet the formidable N. C. A and sophomore. Newport News, Va. sponsor a special Summer Insti-T College Aggies, always leading Malcolm Dillard, junior, New tute for High School Teachers of contenders in conference play. York City; Rubin Graig, junior, Science and Mathematics. The Pirates first home game will New York City, Leslie Hardy, be played Tuesday, December 10 freshman, Portsmouth, Va.: against Shaw University of Ra- George Johnson, freshman, Lexlleigh, N. C. ington, Ky.; Albert Law, sopho-Gondhis menorial here Last year's two-game series re- more, Roanoke, Va.:

Bates.

The supearance one of Miss Ane Sulted in an even split. Shaw, Earl Maxwell, senior. Charles-however, ranked 13th in CIAA ton. S. C.: Julius Singleton, freshmany engagements on her play, one spot ahead of Hamp- man, Weldon, N. C.; Albert department eponsored ton in all time series play, Hamp- Thomas, sophomore, Hackensack, ra countries brought ton has won 15 and lost 4 to N. J.; Nathaniel Trader, sopho-0.000 persons to Shaw. more "Baitimore; Francelle Walk-Members of the Pirate squad er, freshman, Philadelphia: Wal-ier Ward, freshman, Hampton. Cyril Collins, sophomore, New Val and Harold Watson, sopho- expected money to be available ed recognition as co-champions of Brunswick, N. J., George Davis, more, Portsmouth, Va.

7. Merrick-Moore, Durham. Janu- | end O'Donnell Hooks (Cardozo); e vie Yanceyville, Burlington, and Rodney Coleman, a first-year January 17, Graham, Graham, Jan- man from Newburgh, N. Y. uary 24. Little River, Burlington | Syphax, a 6-foot-1 honor student turning lettermen from last January 28. Yanceyville, Yancey- in chemistry, was a unanimous year's squad-Eleanor Boone, a ville January 31 Pleasant Grove, choice for All-CIAA honors for the

Pleasant Grove, February 4, Reids- past two seasons. He led the 18ville, Reidsville, February 7, Chap- | learn conference in scoring last el Hill, Burlington, February 11, year with a 24.8-point average in Chapel Hill, haCpell, February 14. 23 ga Graham, Burlington, February 21. Eaton, a 6 pot-7 center, led the Howard team in rebounds Pleasant Grove, Burlington, February 24. Leaksville, Leaksville, last year with 11.3 per game February 26. Leaksville, Burlingand compiled a 14.4 scoring average. He will be teaming with Syphax for the seventh consecutive year, including three seasons at Dunbar. Bell, 6-foot-1, and Hooks. a 5oot-7 playmaker, were regulars on last year's squad. Coleman, a 6foot-1 sharpshooter, was the leading scorer at Newburgh Academy in 1956-57.

EIAC Names grant of more than $50,000 to Livingstone Co-Champion

"who did such an outstand-SALISBURY-November 27 . It ing job with the 1957 instihas become a time-worn football cliche to speak of a team effort Dr. Robinson, who will attend that won a game But the Living-special briefing session in stone "Bears" brought it to life ashington in December, said he last week and earned unquestionfor more than 50 high school the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

The Livingstone College Rears won their sixth game of the season by defeating Area Trade of Denmark, South Carolina, 20-0. This victory enabled the "Bears" to finish their season with co-championship honor in the conference. Late in the first quarter of the game with a 29-yard run. This run game, Ray Reid set up the first touchdown with a 20-yard run. This run placed the ball on the 7-yard line. Reid carried the ball from the 3-yard line to hit pay dirt Willie Graham carried the ball over for the extra point Charles Littlejohn intercepted a Trade pass on their 42yard line and carried the ball to the 8-yard line. Willie Graham carried the ball over from the 2-yard line, Charles Mellwain carried the ball over for the extra point.

The Bears went to rest at half-time with a 14-0 lead.

Nelson Pharr threw a 21-yard pass to Charles McIlwain who galloped 12 yards for the final touchdown of the game. The "Blue Bears" ended their eason with an overall record of 6 ins. 2 losses and one tie. Their

the last decade or more

Constraint Strengton and Constraints and a short on Second Strengton and a second second and a second second

