Dungee-Caldwell Vows Spoken

GREENSBORO — A colorful ceremony... Dungee and Caldwell... vows spoken...

Ferns interspersed with white and blue chrysanthemums... background against which the brief but impressive ceremony was performed...

at its conclusion... The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace...

She wore a seed pearl tiara from which extended a waist-length veil of net and arm-length white net mitts... Her only ornaments were the small white pearls that tipped her ears and a single strand of pearls around her neck...

Her maid of honor — Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas, wore a blue-green taffeta cocktail-length gown, with a torso waist line, elbow-length sleeves and a breast bow tie, and matching satin slippers...

The bridesmaids — Miss Vera Kennedy, of Elm College, and Miss Josephine Boyd, of Greensboro — wore sky-blue gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor, with matching satin slippers...

Best man was Donald Mays, of Henderson, Ky., a schoolmate of the bridegroom at the Boston University School of Theology, Ushers were Clyde Dungee, of Greensboro, a brother of the bride, Andrew Johnson, of Red Bank, N. C., and John Sneed, of San Antonio, Texas...

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V. Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Miss Cora D. Boyd of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Kennedy...

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, where she was active in many organizations, among them Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Mu. She is presently employed at the Boston University School of Nursing...

Mr. Caldwell, a 1956 graduate of A and T College, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June. He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon retreat immediately after the reception and will be at home, after December 7, at 14 Buswell St. in Boston.

RADIANT BRIDE — Mrs. Gilbert H. Caldwell, Jr., the former Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro is all smiles at reception which followed her marriage on Saturday, November 30.

New Zealand School Head FSTC Guest

FAYETTEVILLE — Mr. W. A. B. Goodwin, Member of the UNESCO Technical Assistance Missions in Sierra Leone, British West Africa, and supervising teacher now on a one-month leave from the New Zealand School System, recently made a three-day visit at the Fayetteville State Teachers College and at certain of the city and county public schools...

At the assembly period on November 25, Mr. Goodwin remarked the type of curriculum employed in certain of the schools in a segment of New Zealand and went on to mention some of the current pros and cons of that curriculum...

In the evening the discussion was extended at a faculty seminar and reception Mr. Goodwin remarked the concentrated effort being made to reduce formalism in New Zealand education to a minimum...

Asked for impressions of American education as he had observed it, Mr. Goodwin concluded: "There is a freshness and vitality in all schools visited which is most encouraging. The attention given to oral use of English Language in the first year of elementary school before proceeding to use reading books seem to be productive of excellent speech."

I have seen excellent teaching methods in social studies. Discussion techniques and lectures by children are fine."
