Ohio State's Aurelius Thomas Places On Look's Football All-America Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 5—Aurelius Thomas, the redoubtable guard of Rose Bowl-bound Ohio State has been named to the 1957 Look-Football Writers Association All-America. It was disclosed today.

"Aurelius Thomas keyed the Ohio State line that implemented Coach Woody Hayes' beloved power-possession game," Look said in announcing the All America selections, which will be published in the issue out Tuesday.

"It was the blocking of Thomas that contributed much to Clark's running," Look declared, "and Aurelius also did well defensively."

Picked by the 824-member Football Writers Association, this season's Look All America features the twenty-two top stars from major conferences (two service academies and an unsung Midwestern independent).

The Midwest for the second consecutive year landed six players, with the football-happy Southeast a close runner-up, placing five on the Look All America.

Karras, the lone repeater from last season's Look team was awarded the John B. Outland Trophy, given annually by the Football Writers Association to the nation's outstanding interior lineman.

Dayton University produced its first All American in end Fred Dugan.

The Southeastern Conference landed five men in the 1957 Look squad: Auburn's brilliant end, Jimmy Phillips; Lou Michaels, Kentucky's beefy tackle and one-man wrecking crew; LSU's rugged linebacker, Jimmy Taylor; Jackie Simpson, Mississippi's cat-quick guard; and another swift moving guard Bill Johnson of Tennessee.

Notable among the selections were sophomore halfback Bob Anderson, who broke the legendary Glenn Davis' ground-gaining mark at Army, and Virginia's fullback Jim Bakhtiar, a native of Iran and presumably more at home in a fez than a football helmet.

Following a precedent set by Grantland Rice, the late dean of America's sportswriters, the Football Writers Association picked a 2-man All America, in which each player enjoys equal first-string stature.

Shaw Bears Win First 2 Basketball Games

The Shaw University Bears opened their basketball season by defeating the Virginia State College Trojans, 88-79, Friday night in Spaulding Gymnasium. The Bears made the first score at the beginning of the game and from then on stayed in the lead. Lewis Garvin, senior forward of Apopka, scored the first two field goals. Reginald Spears junior, forward of Bridgeport, Conn. with his jump shot from near the free throw circle, and Galloway Polhill, sophomore center from Orange, New Jersey and Lawrence Ivey, junior center, from Asheville, with their fine rebound, kept the Trojans from getting control of the ball.

At half-time the Bears led 39-36.

At the beginning of the second half Spears and Garvin scored to put the Bears out front. Captain William Murphy's continuous drive-in offset the Trojans' defense. Five of Shaw's seven players scored in double figures: Reginald Spears 26 points, William Murphy 20, Lewis Garvin 10, Galloway Polhill 14, and Thomas Allen 10.

Virginia State's Clyde Bonds led the Trojans scoring with 17 points. The Bears won their second game of the season on Saturday night when they scored over the Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University to the tune of 84-73.

Paced by Captain William Murphy, who tossed in 31 points, the Bears led all the way, with excellent support from Lewis Garvin, Robert Hall, Galloway Polhill, and Reginald Spears.

At half-time the Bears held an eight-point lead and turned on the fire in the second half by scoring 55 points.

Many Lettermen To Return:

Texas Southern To Field Strong Gridiron Aggregation During '58

HOUSTON, Texas (ANP)—The Texas Southern University, which closed out their 1957 season with a 57-6 victory over Mississippi Vocational last week, will present a strong aggregation for 1958.

Of the squad of 41 players only 4 were seniors. Missing in 1958 will be Alexander Durlay III, quarterback; Co-Captain Walter Davis center and guard Billy Jackson.

Hampered with early season injuries, the speedy Houston eleven walked through their last 5 opponents with shocking results. The return to the lineup of key players sent the Tigers on a late season scoring rampage that saw Langston fall 39-19, Jackson College 23-7, Grambling 59-14, Arkansas 13-0 and Mississippi Vocational 57-6.

Early season losses to Wiley 6-12, Prairie View 8-7, Lincoln 13-53 and victories over Southern 19-6 and Texas College 39-20 left the Tigers with a 7-3 record.

Lacking capable reserves in 1957 to pick up the slack of early season line injuries, the 1958 Tigers will be faced with the same problems. However, the Tigers will return the most exciting backfield in history.

Two of the conference's leading ground gainers, William Guitley and Willis Perkins return at fullback; James Gardiner, the sensational freshman with a 7.8 yard per try average; Hosea Jackson 175 pound halfback sophomore with a 6.8 average and freshmen speedsters like Donald Johnson, Hubert Johnson, Henry Mooney, Leroy Bobstie and Johnny Youngblood, will bolster a strong backfield unit.

Eleven hard nosed lettermen return plus the return to eligibility of Big William T. Evans, 216 pound guard, who won the freshman Moset Valuable player award as a freshman.

Production of wheat this year is down about 6 per cent.
