To be a dietitian you must have a degree from an accredited college or university with required courses in physiology, bacteriology, chemistry, nutrition, storage and handling of foods, operation of equipment, food buying and preparation. For these courses you will register in a Department of Home Economics. You should also have required courses in psychology, social sciences and the principles of teaching. After graduation, you must also serve an approved dietetic internship.

Dietetic Internship A dietetic internship is a one-year training period approved by the American Dietetic Association.

More Information The American Dietetic Association will gladly furnish you full information, including lists of academic requirements, approved colleges and universities offering dietetic courses, and institutions offering approved dietetic internships. Just address your letter of inquiry to: The American Dietetic Association, Dept. C.D., 620 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

90th Zion Session Of NC Conference Held in Lenior

KINSTON—The highlight of the 90th session of the North Carolina A.M.E. Zion Church, last week, and presided over by Bishop H. T. Medford, who was celebrating 50 years as a minister in the A.M.E. Zion Church, was a special radio broadcast, over Radio Station WELS, Sunday 8:30 to 8:45.

The program was prepared and presented by the Public Relations Church, Alexander Barnes, Director.

for. The program began with background music furnished by Mrs. Ethel Daniels. Barnes told the audience that the purpose of the program was to give the public first hand information, on what the denomination was doing and to let it know that Bishop Medford had served a full century.
