

Boy Scouts' Annual Recognition Dinner Is Attended By Nearly 500

Nearly 500 parents, scout leaders and guests were present Tuesday night at the Wake Division of the Oconee Council of Boy Scouts of America's Annual Recognition Dinner held in the cafeteria of Ligon High School. After the dinner meal, the Rev. C. L. Gidney, song leader, led the group in several scout songs.

The 1957 officers of the Wake Division who were installed by John L. Shutt, council scout executive, were C. H. McLendon, chairman; P. A. Williams, R. H. Toole, E. L. Ralford and S. C. Gidney, commissioner; W. W. Ralford, M. C. Hill and Joseph Schaefer, assistant commissioners.

E. L. Ralford presented the "Outstanding Service Award" to H. E. Jones, submaster, Pack 127 Crosby Garfield School, A. O. Carmichael, scoutmaster, Troop 198 St. Matthews Methodist Church and W. W. Hurley, cubbing commissioner and principal of Ligon High School. P. R. Robinson presented Pack 159 Fayetteville Street Baptist Church with the attendance award and Pack 127 Crosby Garfield School won for "best table decoration."

D. N. Howard, division scout executive, gave a progress report and recognition to leaders. T. L. Burgess, director of field service

JOINS LEADING WEEKLY'S STAFF — Wilbert Morris Sanders, 514 Freeman Street, is now associated with The CAROLINIAN in the area of advertising and circulation. Sanders, known throughout the city as a singer of some note, is a member of the First Baptist Church's Moseley Jones Choir and is constantly in demand to perform for religious and civic functions here. Married to the former Miss Annie M. Rogers of Raleigh, Sanders is the father of two children.

ASK BIDS FOR SCHOOL
WELDON—The Weldon Board of Education has called for bids on constructing a modern elementary school building for Negro children at Halifax. The Halifax area became part of the Weldon School District more than two years ago. Bids on the project will be accepted at the office of C. B. Thomas, superintendent of schools here until 2 p.m. on January 8, when they will be publicly opened and read.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S Campus Chatter

By NANCY RHICE

Hi everybody. This is Nancy again with a lot of news hot off the press. Well I guess I will start with probation week. There were three probates for the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority. They were Miss Helen Jordan, Miss Esther Bullock and Miss Bernice Williams. Congratulations, ladies, you were very nice during the whole week. For the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the following ladies were probated: Miss Elizabeth Olds, Miss Alice Ford, Miss Margaret Hartsfield, Miss Mary Kramer, Miss Nancy Rhice, Mrs. Lois Rogers, and Miss Ethel Wooten. These young ladies were tops during that week. Hats off to the Dean of Pledges Miss Yvonne Hart, who dressed the ladies so nice pro-week. For the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Miss Jean Catchings, Miss Cora Brooks, Miss Marjorie Ford, Miss Mary Burnett, Miss Barbara Thomas, Miss Helene Spencer, Miss Charlotte Jenkins, and Mrs. Doris Clements. These young ladies really did strive hard to cross those hazing sands. The Fraternities also had quite a few probates to go over this semester. For Omega Psi Phi, there were five young men who went over. They were David Bethel, James Beitzers, Talmadge Hunt, James (Jimmie) Schumpert, Paul Russell. These young men were on the ball, plus the right trick to become a "O". The Kappa Alpha Psi had as their probates Harold Bing, Ronald (Ronnie) Mammone, Mitchell, Nathan Perry, Cecil Perry, James Perry, and James Jones. These men say you have to be a man to be a Kappa. Ronald Landeau, the only Alpha Phi Alpha probate, really was glad to cross over into Greek land. Since he became an Alpha, the smile hasn't left him. He told me it was the Alpha smile (smile). The other Fraternity that had a lone probate was Phi Beta Sigma. George Flemming said if you want to be a Sigma you had work to do and he went down and got it over with. Yes, Mr. Fleming, a young lady on the campus was very much concerned about you during that whole week. I won't call her name, but it was one of my sorors that went over with me from Robbins, Illinois (smile). That concludes the news about Probation Week and now for other happenings around St. Augustine's Campus.

On the Campus, quite a few things have been happening lately. Naturally there have been some all-college dances. On November 30, the AKA's sponsored a ConaCn dance for Thanksgiving. The admission to the dance was a can of food for the needy people. It was real nice. On Dec. 6, the AKA's and Alpha's had a closed social. I wasn't there, but you know me, I can be a hundred miles from something and still tell what's going on. (You can believe me when I tell you.) On December 7, the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority gave an all college dance which everyone enjoyed to the highest. Especially the Freshman young men who were determined to make the best out of the night, (smile) especially Melvin Keyes, who dances like a champ that hasn't been recognized.

The Music Department has really been busy lately. On December 2, at 6:30 P. M., the choir gave a Christmas concert, including such songs as the "Hallelujah Chorus", "Swing Where He'll Be Born", and "There Shall A Star", and many other numbers. Yes, Orchids to the Choir for such a magnificent concert.

for the council, presented tokens of appreciation to Chairman McLendon and Commissioner Gidney.

The Reverend Paul H. Johnson, pastor Martin Street Baptist Church, gave opening invocation and the Reverend L. S. Penn, pastor Saint Paul Church gave the benediction.

Chairman C. H. McLendon presided.
