CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mr. James F. Dunn acknowledges with deep appreciation the many telegrams, cards and letters of sympathy.

MRS. DAISY DUNN

In times of illness, life would be intolerable without friends who understand and care. We would like to express our thanks to all who were so kind in every way in our time of illness. Words can never truly express our gratitude to those who stayed in our time of need, so we say thank you from the bottom of our hearts. God bless you, every one.

Employees Of Jesse Jones Sausage Co. Get Bonuses

Earl Jones of the Jesse Jones Sausage Company here told THE CAROLINIAN this week that his company held its annual Christmas Party Friday afternoon at which time the annual Yuletide bonuses were distributed.

The employees of the company collected approximately $325 to buy memberships for underprivileged children in the white and Negro YMCA's here.

Jesse Jones Sausage Company started in 1947 with 4 employees. At least ten of the original group are still working for the company. Six are members of the Ruffin Yancey family of Garner.

The longevity of employment of Jones Sausage employees is recognized by giving $10 for each year in excess of four years of employment.

The employees also presented gifts to their supervisors and the department managers.

W. C. CHANCE

It goes unthought, unwept and unsung. It has always been an albatross dangling around the necks of the American people," Chance further emphasized before his club associates.

In conclusion, the speaker ended upon the note we must work for the coming of a brighter and more perfect day when righteousness which exhalteth the nation shall lift us to higher ground."

HOLDS UP MOVIE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) a movie box office with a knife and got $100. He took six blank checks, filled out one and tried to cash it at a cafe. He left when the owner questioned him about the check.

Police said he also broke into the re-capping plant.

He was in the Burke County Jail a few hours after his spree, officers said.
