

President's Committee:

Extends Invite For On-The-Job Training To Youth

Polio Fund Helps Many Tar Heels

By STAFF WRITER
During the period 1946 to 1957, twenty-one students from North Carolina have been awarded $28,629.58 in scholarships by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to pursue training in medical social work, physical therapy, science, health education and public relations.

To carry on this program this year, this is one of the reasons why the March of Dimes campaign is sponsored at this time each year.

The Raleigh March will march upon polio on Thursday, January 30, between 7 and 9 p. m. Keep your porch lights burning at this time.

North Carolina students receiving these scholarships include:

MEDICAL SOCIAL WORK:
Shirley E. Cannon of Asheville, 1947-1951; Donald Winston of Durham, 1948-1951; Carolyn G. Lige of Greensboro, 1949-1951; Thelma Melvin of Hope Mills, Howard University, 1950-1951; Leroy Jones of Winston-Salem, Howard University, 1950-1951; Ethel Smith of Lexington, Columbia University, 1951-1953;

Ernestine Hill of Raleigh, Atlanta University, 1953-1954; Frances H. Cullen of Raleigh, Atlanta University, 1957-1958; Thelma L. Martin of Stanley, Howard University, 1953-1954.

PHYSICAL THERAPY:
Moore of Clinton, New York University, 1947-1949; Robert Evans of Greensboro, New York University, 1946-1947; Doris McKnight of Greensboro, New York University, 1946-1949; Anne L. Novak of McLeansville, Boston University, 1951-1952; Marvonne E. Cox of Raleigh, University of Pennsylvania, 1957-1959; Loden Paul Anderson of Salisbury, Northwestern University, 1957-1959; Thomas Franke Phillips of Winston-Salem, Northwestern University, 1954-1959.

POLIO FRESHEN-UP COURSE: Grace V. Roberts of Greensboro, Knickerbocker Hospital, 1947; Edward Davis, M. D. of Winston-Salem, Knickerbocker Hospital, 1952; Nola Byers of Winston-Salem, Knickerbocker Hospital, 1953.

HEALTH EDUCATION: Basil Frazier Creech of Rich Square, University of Michigan, 1944-1945.

SCIENCE: William Thomas of Florence of Greensboro, University of Southern California, 1957-1958, in work toward the Ph. D. degree in science.

Allen U. To Hold Founder's Day

February 13-14

COLUMBIA S. C. (AP)—President Frank R. Veal has announced that Allen University will observe its 86th annual Founders' Day, Feb. 13-14.

Dr. William J. Trent Jr., executive director of the United Negro College Fund, Inc., will be the main speaker on the evening of the 13th.

Trent is a native of Asheville, N. C. and received his B.A. degree from Livingstone College in 1950.

He is the son of Dr. William J. Trent Sr., president emeritus of Livingstone College.

500 LEADERS ATTEND ANTI-BIAS CONFERENCE — Five hundred leaders of business, civic, fraternal, professional and social organizations were in Washington January 15 when the President's Committee on Government Contracts held a one-day meeting to mobilize community support in the National Equal Job Opportunity program. In the top photo, Under Secretary of Labor J. Ernest Wilkins, center, points out to attorney William Thompson, and businessman Mrs. Harold E. Robbins one of the exhibits on display at the Willard Hotel session. In bottom photo, right, Vice President Richard Nixon, Chairman of the President's Committee on Government Contracts, who presided at the sessions greets Hobson Reynolds, Philadelphia civic leader and an official of the Elks fraternal group, Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, Vice Chairman of the Committee, discusses some of the issues of the conference with Dr. Willa Payer, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. (lower left).

4 Seniors, 10 Juniors Get AKM Membership

GREENSBORO — Four seniors and ten juniors at Bennett College were named last week for membership in Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society.

Students chosen include Misses Eleanor Bell, music education major of Winston-Salem; Sonia Loudon, Chemistry; Fannie Miles, English major of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Margaret Robinson, commercial education major of Miami, Fla.; and Juniors named include Wilhelm and Lundy, pre-medical major of Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara Campbell, English major of Greensboro; Jamesena Chalmers, English major of Fayetteville; Eleanor Fields, chemistry major of Richmond, Va.; Theoria Houston, pre-medical major of Miami, Fla.; Inez Jones, pre-medical major of Lenoir; Queen Murphy, English major of Fayetteville; Nannie Poole, biology major of Baltimore, Md.; Joanne Raiford, chemistry major of Greensboro; and Mary Jane Williams, chemistry major of Winston-Salem.

Basis for membership is a consistently high scholastic record.

Yes, We All Talk

By Marcus H. Boulware

The Point Of Order
QUESTION: Does the point of order require a second and discussion?—Mrs. P. L.

ANSWER: The Point of Order requires neither a second nor discussion. This is true because the purpose of this motion is to correct a mistake in the observance or enforcement of the rules of the assembly.

It is urgent that the club cease all further business until the mistake has been corrected. Hence, this motion may be made at any time—even though a member has the floor.

Instead of addressing the chairman and then waiting for recognition, a member says:

Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order. Where upon the chairman immediately assigns the floor by saying:

"State your point"

The chairman upon hearing a statement of the mistake must "rule upon" the point of order. For example, he may say, "Your point of order is well taken do I hear a second to the motion?" etc.

Upon request the writer will appear at the meetings of clubs and give a lecture-demonstration on parliamentary law.

READERS
For my parliamentary chart of motions, send 30 cents in coin or stamps to Marcus H. Boulware, St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C.

STRENGTH FOR YOUR DAYS
from The Bible

I have set the Lord always before me; because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.—(Psalm 16, 8.)

God is always with us, His children. But our willfulness, our selfishness, our stubborn clinging to unworthy thoughts and habits, keep us from knowing His love, in which we will find the strength to surmount all life's trials.

Champion Bourbon

by Schenley

8 Years Old

$2.85 Pint $4.45 Fifth

Anti-Bias Committee Seeks Efforts Of Area To Spur Youth Training

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A nationwide series of local campaigns to stimulate the youth of minority groups to acquire skilled training for the increasing variety of job opportunities being opened to them has been urged by the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

More than 500 leaders of business, civic, fraternal, professional and social organizations from 38 states and the District of Columbia attended the Minority Community Resources Conference here January 15 at the invitation of Vice President Richard Nixon, Chairman of the President's Committee.

included the superintendents of their guidance officers, and leaders the public and parochial schools, of business and labor.

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT QUINN'S

Freshen Up Your Home For Spring From Distinctive Furniture
R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
108 E. Martin St. Your Capital City Tel. TE 2-4471

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

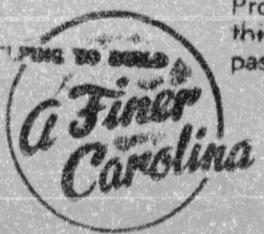

FIRST STEPS in the New Year

As the new year of 1958 begins, six months remain in the 1957-58 Finer Carolina Contest. The 18 month contest period will end on June 30th, 1958.

For many communities entered in the contest, the first step in the new year will be a quick look at the accomplishments of the past year and then a re-evaluation of what must be done in the remainder of the time to bring their Finer Carolina Program to a successful conclusion.

Projects selected in early 1957 have been brought a long way along the road to completion. Your town can realize the advantages of the completed projects only if you are willing to offer your assistance toward the attainment of the goals. Let your Finer Carolina Committee know that you are with them in their efforts to make your town Carolina's Finest.

P. S. As shown in the illustration above, a helping hand brings quicker achievements. A tremendous backlog of community leadership has been built up over the past six years of the Finer Carolina Program. Especially during the final six months of this contest period, would the aid and assistance of past participants in the program be appreciated.

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

MAKE EXTRA MONEY SELL The Carolinian

Your own state newspaper, with news of your community while it is still news.

Liberal Commission

Fill out and mail the coupon below at once.

The CAROLINIAN
518 E. Martin St.
Raleigh, N. C.

Please send details of how I can earn money selling The CAROLINIAN in my community. I think I can sell _____ copies weekly.

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
CITY OR TOWN _____