

ol'way Sisters Married On Same Day In Wayne Ceremonies

GOLDSBORO—The marriages of the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holloway were solemnized here Sunday afternoon, Dec. 22.

Johnnie Eleanor became the bride of Gene Andre Bass, son of Mrs. Estella Bass of Goldsboro, in a single-ring ceremony at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church at 2:15 p.m. Father Kenneth Parker officiated.

Nora Elizabeth became the bride of James Junius Scales, Sr., of Winston-Salem, in a single-ring ceremony at the Greater St. James AMEZ Church at 3:15 p.m. with the Rev. E. B. Lipsey officiating.

The altars of both churches were decorated with lighted candles and tall baskets of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and fern. Pews had same floral decoration tied with white satin streamers.

For their weddings, the brides wore identical formal gowns made along princess lines with V-necks, made of bridal satin, with accessories. Bridal veils consisted of scalloped tulle of the same material as the gowns. Each bride wore a single strand of pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and gaza chrysanthemums.

The mother of the brides wore a pastel blue lace dress with white gloves and hat. Her corsage was made of white carnations. The mother of one groom, Mrs. Bass, wore a slate blue crepe dress with red corsage. Mrs. Scales, mother of the other groom, wore a beige lace dress with matching gloves, a pink hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Bass graduated from Elizabeth City Teachers College and teaches at the Johnson County Training School, Smithfield. Mr. Bass graduated from Morgan State College, received the M.A. degree from Hunter College, and completed Ph.D. requirements at N.Y.U. Presently he is employed as clinical psychologist at the State Hospital at Goldsboro.

Mrs. Scales is a graduate of Winston-Salem Teachers College. Mr. Scales attended the same college, served four years in the Air Force, and was recently discharged. The couple will reside in Winston-Salem.

Wedding professionals included: Ingrid Peacock, flower girl;

Ronnie Richardson, ring-bearer; Mrs. Bestha Jolly of Goldsboro, matron of honor; Misses R. Warren and Barbara Johnson were maids of honor; Roscoe Williams, Jr. and Theodore Newsome, Thomas L. Bryant, Ennis Allen and William H. Bass were groomsmen.

A reception was held in the cafeteria of Dillard High School with Mesdames Grace Reid Ernestine Woolen, and Miss Marie Stitt as hostesses.

The wedding guest list included persons from Goldsboro, Smithfield, Kinston, Edenton, Kern, Winston-Salem, Hickory, Thomasville, Wilson, Mt. Olive and La Grange, in North Carolina; Washington, D. C.; Baltimore, Md.; Philadelphia Pa.; Newark N. J.

SURPRISE PAINTER — George T. Smith, an interior decorator and painter, shown at his home, turned out to be the mysterious stranger who walked into the Harrison Elementary School, Washington, D. C., and proceeded to paint the place, all on his own. He said he got the idea as he was driving by the school one day and decided it needed a paint job. (UNITED PRESS PHOTO).

“Get Tough At Central:” Thurgood

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (ANP)—Atty. Thurgood Marshall, NAACP chief counsel, in an address to students at Syracuse University here Thursday said that school officials in Little Rock should “get tough with the hard core of about 40 or 50 white students who are still causing trouble.”

“These toughs are still pushing our kids around,” he said. “They’re spitting on them and cursing them.”

IRONING BOARDS — Are you buying an ironing board? A vital consideration is its height—which may mean the difference between comfort and drudgery. Most new ones are easily adjustable, and buy a standard size ironing board if you possibly can. If you don't have the dollars now, the extra ones.

Mrs. Hopsey Kearney, Hospital Instructor, Speaks To Juniors

Emphasizing that students should plan their high school courses so they can meet the prerequisites for a nursing education program of studies, Mrs. Hopsey R. Kearney, clinical instructor at St. Agnes Hospital, urged 50 high school juniors and seniors, and the 1957 Debs, to consider pursuing a career in nursing when she spoke at a vocational guidance clinic at the Chavis Heights Recreation Center, on January 6.

The clinic was sponsored by the Alpha Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority of Raleigh.

The speaker called attention to opportunities in the various fields of nursing, including hospital administration and public health nursing.

Mrs. Kearney is a graduate of the Kate Bitting Reynolds Hospital School of Nursing, Winston-Salem, N. C. She received the B.S. degree in nursing education from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C. Since graduation, she has served in several positions as director of nurses and nursing education.

State College Hints

BED LINENS—Flat and fitted sheets are available in muslin or percale in the same price range. Fitted or contour sheets save bed-making time, eliminate rumped beds and so make for comfortable sleeping. Also, less ironing may be required since they fit so snugly on the mattress.

There are bottom sheets with all four corners boxed; top sheets with only two corners boxed. Fitted sheets are sanfonized and are made to fit many mattress sizes. Proper fit is important so before shopping check up on the size needed. Check chart for sizes in flat and fitted sheets.

Muslin sheets are widely used for everyday household service. The initial cost of the percales is higher therefore they are considered the luxury sheets. But they are not. They are lighter in weight than the muslins, so the cost of maintenance is less when laundered commercially since charges are based on weight.

For home laundry, wet sheets are heavy and difficult to handle so their light weight is a convenience and saving of effort the shopper will want to consider.

Nation's Leaders Join In Denouncing Attacks On 'Mixed' Highlander School

MONTEAGLE, Tenn. (ANP)—The efforts of segregationists to pin a subversive tag on the Highlander Folk School here ran afoul last week when several prominent national leaders joined in denouncing attacks made on the school.

Among those who raised their voices in protest of efforts to damage the reputation of the school were Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr widely acclaimed Protestant theologian, Msgr. John O'Grady, National Conference of Catholic Charities, and Lloyd K. Garrison, former Dean of the University of Wisconsin Law School.

SIGN STATEMENT PRAISING SCHOOL

They affixed their signature to a statement by Myles Horton, director of the school. Who refuted the charge made by a Georgia Education Commission, headed by Gov. Marvin Griffin, that the Highlander School is a "Communist-training school" to promote "Methods and tactics for precipitating racial disturbances."

AN INSTITUTION FOR STUDY

Located on a mountain plateau midway between Nashville and Chattanooga, Highlander forms a sort of retreat for those wishing to reflect upon and discuss problems of community and state. It is an institution for adult education "to study and discuss challenging social, educational and economic problems."

SEMINARS, WORKSHOPS FRUITFUL

The work of the school has been praised by several educators and civic leaders, among them Cortez M. Puryear, president of the Winston-Salem N. C. NAACP. Puryear, who attended workshops and seminars at Highlander, reported that he accomplished the following in his own community as a result of school:

- (1) A new coliseum was opened on a desegregated basis.
- (2) The baseball park was desegregated.
- (3) The stadium seating is now desegregated.
- (4) The golf course is now open to all.
- (5) White and colored signs have been removed from water fountains in public places.
- (6) The decision of the Winston-Salem school board to desegregate in 1957 without court order.
