CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

CHIRURG ADVERTISING FELLOWSHIP

The Harvard University Business School is offering the James Thomas Chirurg Advertising Fellowship worth $100 to a first-year student who is seeking training in business administration with particular emphasis in the field of advertising.

Any man admitted to the first year of the Master of Business Administration Program at the Harvard Business School and who plans to make a career in the field of advertising may apply.

While at least the B. A. degree or its equivalent from a recognized collegiate institution is ordinarily required for admission to the Business School, men who are not graduates but have exceptional qualifications are also eligible to apply for admission. There are no citizenship restrictions.

A candidate may apply for the fellowship at the same time he applies for admission to the Business School.

Both applications must be returned before April 30.

Acceptance of the fellowship involves no commitment with respect to later employment.

Write the dean of Graduate School of Business Administration, Morgan Hall, Soldiers Field, Boston 65, Massachusetts.

Report On Rural Progress Made To Evaluating Group

LILLINGTON -- A meeting was held Friday, January 24, in the Agriculture Building in Lillington in which a report on Rural Progress in Harnett County in 1957 was made to the State Evaluating committee. Mrs. Rosa Washington of Johnsonville community presided over the meeting.

Reports were made in the areas of Desirable Adjustments in Agriculture by C. Ray, Agriculture Teacher of Harnett High School, Dunn; The House and Surroundings by Mrs. Callie Arnold, Secretary of the Home Demonstration County Council; Community Improvements by the Rev. William Freeman, Local minister; Opportunity for Rural Youth by J. A. Brown, Agriculture Teacher of Shawtown high school; and Coopereration of All Agencies, Groups and Individuals by the Rev. R. E. Stitt, Pastor of Lillington Presbyterian Church. Others who appeared on the program were G. T. Proffit, Superintendent of schools in Harnett county, and a representative from the Welfare department.

Ray said 400 farmers had loans in excess of $1,200,000 from the following agencies: F. H. A. Federal Land Bank, P. C. A. and the six banks in Harnett County for the purpose of constructing dwellings, farm buildings and other farm and home supplies. The individual amounts of these capital improvements vary from $100 to an excess of $8000.

Negro farmers in Harnett County had a gross income of $1,229,376.00 in 1957, and the average per capita income is $675.00. Most of the income was from tobacco, cotton, corn, what, ASC, beef cattle, poultry, swine, and the Soil Bank.

Mrs. Arnold reported that 55 new homes were built while 200 homes were remodeled with 60 bath rooms added. Two hundred-fifty families seeded lawns and set shrubbery, five church yards and six school yards and were seeded and shrubbery planted, 175 mail boxes were improved or replaced with new boxes and five cemeteries were beautified. Nine hundred families conserved 100,000 quarts of meats, vegetables and fruits, eighty 4-H Club girls canned 4000 quarts, 850 families are using home freezers or locker plants and 300 families are using both.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—(Galatians 6:7.)

Each of us who has grown to maturity knows only too well that the bad things we have thought and done live on, if only in our dreams, to haunt and plague us. But, likewise, the good things we think and do live on to bless us—sometimes in unexpected ways when we most need comfort-walk away from WASH DAZE!

TURN your back on that basket, little lady, and take a giant step into a new world of comfort. You'll find that the automatic convenience of an all-electric home laundry is a real wife-saver in steps, time and effort. Dragging hours dwindle and leisure hours pile up when these electric servants work for you. You just naturally find more time to spend with your family, friends and hobbies.

With a team of a dial, you can whisk away washday drudgery as your electric washer cleans and spins the bird's clothes. Stormy weather is for the birds as your electric dryer freshens and fluffs your linens and dainties with electric sunshine. Ironing give you the miseries? Then smooth your way to a perfect finish with the sit-down solid comfort of an electric ironer.

So walk away from "wash daze" into this new world of comfort with a quick trip to your electric appliance dealer. He can show you this modern short cut on the road to gracious living, electrically! Visit him soon and make wash days a walk-away for you and your family.

Washes so Cleanly—Dries so Quickly—Irons so Smoothly—
ELECTRICALLY, of course!
