Local Man Nabbed On Jewel Rap

City Court Judge Albert Doub found probable cause last week-end against Herbert Judge Lewis, 29, better known around Raleigh as "Pearl Harbor" and bound him over to the next term of Wake Superior Court under a $3,000 bond. Lewis, who is now languishing in the Wake County Jail, was returned to Raleigh last week by two local detectives from New York City.

He is accused of entering Roscoe's Jewelers on Fayetteville Street last year and stealing merchandise valued at $6,000. Some of the jewelry was allegedly sold by Lewis, thus leading officers to start a manhunt for him.

ORCHIDS TO THE MAJOR: Orchids to Raleigh's Mayor, His Honor, William G. Enloe, for his forthrightness in issuing a letter of welcome to the Reverend Martin Luther King. The letter was written after a member of Raleigh's City Council, over which Mayor Enloe presides, had suggested there might be trouble if Dr. King came to this city. That the action of Mr. Enloe expressed the feeling of the overwhelming majority of the people here was proven by the enthusiastic welcome the overflow crowd gave Dr. King

Negro ATU Agent Is Key To 'Slammer' In Flowers' Case

By STAFF WRITER

Spectators and I leaned forward when the alleged bootlegger, Percy Flowers, took the stand in the contempt of court case last Friday afternoon. He apologized to Federal Judge Don Gilliam and to the government.

But we waited in vain for this same Flowers to tell William Tolbert, a Negro U. S. Treasury Department undercover agent, he was sorry for allegedly calling him a "black s-o-b" and adding "I'll fix you if you ever come down here again."

Tolbert had been a witness in the famous liquor conspiracy trial held recently against Flowers. A FEW MINUTES after Flowers left the stand, I heard Federal Judge Gilliam sentence the reputed bootlegger to 18 months in the Atlanta Federal Prison. It was then that I saw Flowers wither like a vine jarred from its pedestal of arrogance to a crumpled heap of vegetation.

During the trial, ATU Agent Tolbert, of Philadelphia, Pa., took the stand and said he was reading a newspaper Friday, January 31, when Flowers approached him. After cursing him, the ATU Agent said Flowers told him that he would try him if he ever came down here again. According to the Agent, the threat of Flowers was made during a recess of the trial following which he was to take the stand

Church Bonus Money Rules

All purchase slips or receipts presented to your church must come from stores advertising in THE CAROLINIAN.

Each week carries a date in the Bonus Money period. Purchases eligible must come from the store during the week the "ad" appears.

No purchase slips representing a business should be submitted. All receipts must come from individual purchases.

All churches in Raleigh and Wake County are eligible.

All purchase slips must bear the name of the store from which the purchase was made.

All purchase slips should be submitted in the store of the church, and should be in the office of THE CAROLINIAN the Monday following close of Bonus period.

In order that smaller churches may have an equal opportunity to share in the Bonus Money the following regulation is expedient. No church group will be awarded 1st Bonus Money consecutively, i.e. should a church receive 1st Bonus Money after the first period it would have to wait until the third Bonus period to be presented 1st award again. However, this does not mean that second and third awards cannot be sought consecutively. Consequently every church group has the opportunity to secure an award every period.

No purchase of over $300 from any one merchant during a week can be counted.

There is a ceiling of $25 per person a week for grocery purchases.

In the event of the same amount of purchases by more than one entry, the award will be divided.

Weekly purchase totals should be shown on each packet and total placed on the outside of the envelope carrying the period's entry along with name and address.

Bonus money earners will be announced in the issue following the closing of each period.

All entries remain the property of THE CAROLINIAN.

All entries are final when the names of the Bonus Money earners are announced in THE CAROLINIAN, and no responsibility is accepted by this newspaper beyond that point.

No receipts from banks will be considered, except payment on mortgages.
