'Be still, and know that I am God ...'-(Psalm 46, 10.)

These are days of fear and uncertainty in our beloved land, of dread and anxiety about our future. Frightening predictions come over the air waves, in our newspapers-the temptation is to lose faith and courage. We seek peace of mind and soul, and peace for our country . . . Let us take a quiet moment to reflect: Do we love God? Do we trust in Him?

Founder's Day Observance At Livingstone

Dr. Joseph Charles Price, founder and first president of Livingstone College, was observed on Wednesday, February 12, along with the formal opening of the remodeled Carnegie Library, when the college paid its annual tribute in its 63rd celebration.

All of the regular college activities were suspended on that day, traditionally known as Founder's Day", and special services were held at the college auditorium at 10:30 A. M. and in the afternoon at 2:00 P. M.

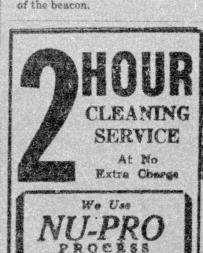

Livingstone College is one of the 33 private, accredited member institutions of the United Negro College Fund. The first of America's education chests, the College Fund has conducted annual campaigns to help meet the yearly operating costs of its member schools since 1944.
