Newspaper Comments On Noted Surgeon's Return

DR. YANCEY

Dr. Asa G. Yancey, a native of Atlanta, Ga., and head of the Department of Surgery at the U. S. Veterans Hospital, Tuskegee, Ala., was featured in a recent editorial by the Atlanta Daily World newspaper.

Dr. Yancey, who is soon to take over a similar position at the Hughes Spaulding Pavilion, is the brother of Mrs. B. Yancey Jervay, who heads the Department of Home Economics at Shaw University, Raleigh. The editorial which the Daily World printed follows:

DR. YANCEY'S FINE OPPORTUNITY

That Dr. Asa G. Yancey, native born and at present head of the Department of Surgery at U. S. Veterans Hospital, Tuskegee, Ala., will come to Atlanta to begin a like service at the Hughes Spaulding Pavilion, is being widely hailed as the opening wedge for larger opportunities for Negro doctors and nurses in this area.

The announcement of his coming was made by Hughes Spaulding at the recent dedicatory service of the new Grady Memorial Hospital. It is well that such a huge project as this big medical center, whose cost runs high up in the millions, would include opportunities for all physicians alike.

For some time there has been talk of a program in Atlanta providing for internships for young doctors in our racial group. The coming of Dr. Yancey is supposed to mark the beginning of a program which will make this possible. There is no question of the need for additional doctors so this announcement is a welcomed one.

Needless to say that Dr. Yancey comes from a family of fine medicine men; that by his studious application he has merited the esteem of the U. S. Government as a result of his outstanding record in his chosen field.

We look forward to Dr. Yancey's arrival because we feel Atlanta will profit by his coming.

Rabbi Shoen Reviews Book At Library

"Using old knowledge when good, and employing new knowledge when it is adaptable" is the magic formula of Bernard Baruch, the great investment manipulator, and is described in "Baruch, My Own Story" which was reviewed by Rabbi Abe W. Shoen of the Beth Meyer Synagogue last Sunday at the Richard B. Harrison Library for the Book Review Club at 4 p.m.

Braving the extreme cold, were approximately thirty book lovers who came to express their views on this best selling biography. Rabbi Shoen presented a keen analysis of the man, Baruch, and evidences of Baruch's condescending attitude to those of minority groups, and to those economically "farthest down." The reviewer let it be known these were merely his impressions of Baruch and his success story.

During the discussion period, many persons differed with the reviewer on several points. Mrs. G. F. Newell was moderator.
