

Goldsboro News

By HENRY C. MITCHELL

GOLDSBORO — The Public Relations Committee of the North Carolina Teachers Association is trying to further better public relations with parents and citizens of our city. At the January meeting of the local unit, the group voted to accept six recommendations which might be helpful in furthering an understanding of the needs by the public. The recommendations which will bring each school to the public through radio programs will begin on Saturday, February 15 at 8:30 A. M. over radio station WF. MC at the time Dillard High School was featured in a 15 minute program. The remaining schedule follows: Feb. 20, West Elm Street Junior High school; March 1st, Greensboro school. The public is invited to listen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Lewis announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth to Clifford Best, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Best of Goldsboro.

The Business and Professional Woman's League at a recent meeting elected officers for the year. Those chosen to serve this year were: Mrs. Laura J. Foster, president; Miss Rosa L. Moore, vice president; Miss E. C. Smith, recording secretary; Miss Lois M. Howell, corresponding secretary; Miss C. R. Hinton, assistant.

Mrs. Nannie Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. E. Wooten, financial secretary; and Miss Geneva B. Hamilton, reporter.

Mrs. Julia C. Davis and son, former faculty members of School Street School, now a faculty member of the Greenville School system, her home town, was a visitor in the city last week-end.

Mrs. Thelma L. Johnson's third period social studies class, Dillard

High School, presented a chapel program in the school auditorium Tuesday morning. The pageant was entitled "Ethiopia At The Bar of Justice" celebrating Abraham Lincoln's birthday.

East End School Parent-Teacher Association met last Monday night in the school's gymnasium with the president George Wilson presiding.

Mrs. Joel Silver presented plans for a P-TA Founder's Day Program to be held in March. Boy Scout Troop 106 under the leadership of William J. Smith presented a court of honor celebrating the 48th anniversary of scouting. Achievement Awards were presented. W. A. Foster Cub Scout of Pack 101 also attended the meeting along with their Den Mothers: Mrs. Ann Isler, Mrs. Daisy Best, and Mrs. Lula McLamb. The attendance banner was won by Mrs. A. C. Grant's second grade with 24 parents present.

Open house was held prior to the meeting. W. A. Foster is principal of the school.

Mrs. Minnie Bennett, 817 W. Elm Street, was honored at a birthday party Friday, February 7th at her home. The affair was given to her by her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Moore and Mrs. Willa B. Durham.

Guests present included the following: Mrs. Cherie Artis, Mrs. Virginia F. Sutton, Miss Hilja Thompson, Mrs. Core Hatcher, Miss C. E. Hatcher, Mrs. Elizabeth Whitted, Mrs. Eunice Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chestnut, Mrs. Virginia M. Dawson, Mrs. Ruby Inman, Mrs. Roxie Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Bell, O. H. Moye, Mrs. Lula Barfield, Mrs. Lizzie Barfield, Miss Lue Barfield, Mrs. Roberta Cooper, and Mrs. Anna B. Ward.

A very appetizing repast of turkey, mash potatoes, Spanish peas, hot rolls, Ice Cream, candy, cake and peanuts. Mrs. Bennett was the recipient of many thoughtful and useful gifts.

Mrs. Irene Hartwell of Bluefield, W. Va., has returned to her home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Janis McNeill, 1008 B Slaughter.

The C. C. D. of the Sacred Heart's Catholic Church met at the home of Mrs. Pocahontas Ward, 901-B Lincoln Drive, Sunday. Plans were discussed for a fashion show to be staged soon in the interest of the organization.

Nathan Monk is president of the group. Refreshments were served.

The Lincoln Homes Young Men's Club is sponsoring a boy scout troop at the Goldsboro Training School with uniforms. W. C. Taylor, spokesman for the club, says, "various clubs of the city are being asked to provide a white uniform or a part of one so that the troop can qualify for a charter." Charlie Gunner is scoutmaster, he is assisted by H. B. Cowan.

The Training School Boy Scout Troop committee is composed of the following: Rev. James Arnette, Raymond Exum, William Whitaker and T. C. McNeill, principal of the school. Lenay Clarke is president of the Lincoln Homes Young Men's Club.

Charter Presentation Day for the new troop is scheduled for Sunday, February 23 in the school's chapel. 12 boys are registered so far.

Suitcase Stuff

By "Skink" Browning

Herman Bridges, manager of the College Motel in Greensboro, will soon launch an advertising campaign that will exceed any publicity project ever instituted for a Negro business of its kind in North Carolina.

"Tuffy" Bryant, the Rocky Mount restaurateur, civic kingpin, social instigator and a religious worker, is seen very often on the campus of Fayetteville State Teachers College... especially on game night... "Sugar Lump" the new coach there is his brother... moral support.

Alexander Barnes, premier promotion representative for the Carolinian and former president of the Fayetteville State Teachers College Alumni Association, has recently turned his attention toward the cause of Livingstone College of Salisbury... Too strong a man to lose and a powerful man to gain... some Fayetteville Alumni are hoping that Barnes is just temporarily throwing his weight to Livingstone and will continue to sound the virtues of his alma mater as before.

Wes Covington, "Sad Sam" Jones, Carl Easterling, Selpio Easterling, Dizzy Gillespie and band director, Sherry Hall.

Ruth Brown, the singer, is originally from Warrenton.

Singer and model Sarah Lou Harris is from Wilkesboro.

The internationally known Flying Nesbites are from Statesville, St. Augustine's College and Shaw University once missed years playing each other in any sport. Betty grievances.

Duke Allen will take over the managerial end of the Winston-Salem Pond Glantz this season. Where does that put Babe Davis, the erstwhile manager for ten years? More money is made on baseball in Winston-Salem than any other town in North Carolina. Average crowd: 2,990.

The Dr. Donnels of Durham are vacationing in Florida. Mrs. Donnell forgot to take a costly coat and sent the chauffeur back on the bus to get it.

Ted Stroud (Mechanics and Furners Bank in Durham) and wife recently moved into their new home on Alston Avenue.

Called the shot when he booked singer Sam Cooke and at the Raleigh Auditorium Feb. 21... Every chick and child will be there.

The Person County High School dance group was scheduled to appear on the Top Ten evening program of WYTT in Durham Feb. 15. The first colored group to be televised on the Spot.

The new gymnasium at Person County High School of Roxboro is said to be the largest in Central Carolina.

Charles Deberry was the principal speaker at the fabulous banquet given for the Stephens Lee High School State champion football team two weeks ago in Asheville.

Basketball is sub-par in the CIAA this year.

"Big Train" Turner has left Duke Hospital and is resting well at the home of his parents in Winston-Salem.

Morgan College sent its basketball team south, and it was mauled by Winston-Salem and North Carolina College. A&T College looks good for the champs of the season.

Frank McDuffie's Laurinburg Institute basketball team slaughtered Carl Easterling's Hillside "big five" last week 78-73... Frank had better look out, the cry to oust him from the conference will start again soon.

Clarence Moore, ran into trouble when he took his basketball team to Knoxville last week to challenge Dusty Leonard's Austin High Skyers... Dusty's team averaged 64". His center is 6'9". The Tennessee clan is always tough, especially after they return from their yearly Chicago trip and Moore caught them on the rebound after they had trounced Dusable 81-76 and Wendell Phillips 93-88. The Asheville boys won over Knoxville last year by a close score.

"Mug" Bynum of Kinston has a double attending Johnson C. Smith University—gray streak in hair, size and everything... calls himself "Mug"... oddly, he is no relation to the original "Mug"—never met.

Outstanding sports and musical personalities from Laurinburg:

Wes Covington, "Sad Sam" Jones, Carl Easterling, Selpio Easterling, Dizzy Gillespie and band director, Sherry Hall.

Ruth Brown, the singer, is originally from Warrenton.

Singer and model Sarah Lou Harris is from Wilkesboro.

The internationally known Flying Nesbites are from Statesville, St. Augustine's College and Shaw University once missed years playing each other in any sport. Betty grievances.

Duke Allen will take over the managerial end of the Winston-Salem Pond Glantz this season. Where does that put Babe Davis, the erstwhile manager for ten years? More money is made on baseball in Winston-Salem than any other town in North Carolina. Average crowd: 2,990.

The Dr. Donnels of Durham are vacationing in Florida. Mrs. Donnell forgot to take a costly coat and sent the chauffeur back on the bus to get it.

Ted Stroud (Mechanics and Furners Bank in Durham) and wife recently moved into their new home on Alston Avenue.

Called the shot when he booked singer Sam Cooke and at the Raleigh Auditorium Feb. 21... Every chick and child will be there.

The Person County High School dance group was scheduled to appear on the Top Ten evening program of WYTT in Durham Feb. 15. The first colored group to be televised on the Spot.

The new gymnasium at Person County High School of Roxboro is said to be the largest in Central Carolina.

Charles Deberry was the principal speaker at the fabulous banquet given for the Stephens Lee High School State champion football team two weeks ago in Asheville.

Roxboro News

ROXBORO—Mr. Romie Barnett has returned from the Veterans Hospital in Durham and is resting well at home with his family.

McDonald Lunsford lost control of his car and ran off the road into a tree on Ivey Street. Lunsford received minor bruises on the chin. Little "Bronnie" Smith lost a few front teeth.

Rev. U. R. Booker is running second in the Pastor's Popularity Contest which is statewide. He is topped by Rev. Cunningham of the First Congregational Church in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Robie Barnett recently entertained Miss Josephine

Angier News

By MRS. POLLY C. STOKES

ANGIER — Services at Cutts Chapel were very good as Rev. A. J. Avery of Fayetteville, pastor delivered a very soul-stirring and inspirational sermon. He used for his subject, "Working On My New Home," II Cor. 5:1. He made emphasis on (a) foundation, being born again, (b) Good material, laying down some of our habits and ways, working conditions are not always pleasant but we have a charge to keep. If we live, walk and talk right, God will meet you there.

Visitors at the service were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Dewar of Fuquay Springs, N. C., Mrs. Lucy B. Betteha, and Mr. and Mrs. Willie McCloud of Chayalabeate Springs N. C.

The Missionary Circle of Black River Grove attended a missionary meeting at St. John's Missionary Church in Dunn, N. C. on Sunday evening. The topic discussed, "The Improvement of Christianity Among the Youth."

There will be an all male program at Black River Grove on the second Sunday evening.

The Home Demonstration club will meet at the home of Mrs. Gladys Rasland. Demonstration: Yell Dressed At Small Cost.

SICK-LIST

Mrs. Ophelia Sulte, Rev. Wiley Cutts, Mr. Madison Dewar.

A THOUGHT

Christianity is a battle, not a dream.

CONCORD

By MRS. MARION W. BOYD

CONCORD — Using the topic "Negro Life and History" Barber-Scotia College celebrated Negro History Week with a series of six programs from February 8th through February 18th. Dr. John Bevan of the Davidson College and Barber-Scotia College faculties opened the observance with a vesper sermon "Race Relations".

The students of the Library Staff presented reviews of books by recent Negro authors. The third program was based on an "analysis of scientific studies in the area of race relations based on attitudes". The mid-week prayer service was devoted to a discussion of "An Adventure in Race Relations" with a setting at Warren-Wilson College.

The Music Department presented a program of Negro music from the spirituals to contemporary music. The final program was an address by President L. S. Corzart at Vespers.

THE ZETA FINER WOMANHOOD PROGRAM

The Gamma Epsilon Zeta chapter of the Zeta Phi eBia Sorority, Inc. presented its annual Finer Womanhood Program on last Sunday at the First Baptist Church. Soror Conette H. Harper of Livingstone College delivered the main address using the topic "Stewardship of Today's Women". She discussed the roles of Biblical and modern women emphasizing modern woman's responsibility for Christian Stewardship.

Music was presented by the choir of Logan School, Livingstone College and Barber-Scotia College. Others appearing on the program were Rev. H. H. Hawkins, Soror G. M. Hadley, Soror Louise J. Bost, Soror A. E. Byers, and Soror E. M. Hawkins. The members of the Gamma Epsilon Zeta Chapter not already mentioned are Sorors M. W. Edwards, M. M. Harris, L. S. Blue, M. Kelsey, F. L. were members of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. The service was held in the First Baptist Church basement after the program.

Schenck in their home. She is the niece of their son, Mr. William Henry Barnett. She was also entertained at the home of Miss Mary E. Richardson and by Miss Mary Winstead and Mr. Douglas Cunningham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cunningham.

Miss Schenck is from Kings Mountain, N. C.

Burlington News

By MRS. M. M. BROWN
601 Apple St. CA. 69234

BURLINGTON

Mr. Charlie H. Brown spent the weekend in Alvin, S. C. attending the funeral of his sister, Miss Maggie Brown who had been "shut-in" for a period of two years and critically ill for one week.

BETTY CROCKER WINNERS

Alta Mae Fuller of Jordan Sellers Senior High School is among the local school winners in the Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow contest.

These girls received the highest scores in their schools on a written examination of homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating high school girls.

Their examination papers will be entered in competition with those of 387 other school winners to name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaking of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runner-up award in the state. They will each receive an award pin designed by Trifari of New York.

Alta Mae Fuller

Alta is a senior at Jordan Sellers Senior High School in Burlington, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Fuller. In her ninth grade year she was secretary of the class and in her junior year she was a junior marshal. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and secretary of the Baptist Training Union. She plans to enter Johnson C. Smith University after graduation.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Almance County Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Eliatha Gant, Burlington, announce the arrival of a daughter on February 9.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pennix, 1000 Street, announce the arrival of twin daughters on February 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pennix, 30 Old Almance Road, announce the arrival of a son on February 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Loftin Lea, 2406 Pennsylvania Avenue, announce the arrival of twins, a son and a daughter, on February 10 at Almance County Hospital.

Mrs. M. M. Brown, field secretary of the District of N. C. Congress of Negro P. T. A. was founder. Day speakers for Gifford County Council of Parent Teacher Associations held in Mt. Zion School, Greensboro, N. C. Thursday on the 18th—the timely theme of program: Imperative of growth in the home, school and community.

MALE HONOR ROLL

A total of 47 students made the Honor Roll for the first semester at Jordan Sellers Senior High School.

Veronica Jordan and Linda Wilson, eighth grade students, were included on the A honor roll.

The B honor roll included the following students:

Eighth grade: Betty Allen, Wallace Warren, Sheila Williamson, Betsy Curry, Calva Lee, Maxine Thompson, Doris Williams, Wynona Jones, Hilda Gant, Mary Dore, Bettye Brown, Willie Cameron, Bernard Chicklescales Connie Curry, Douglas Leath, Frances Satterfield, Virginia Warren and Norma Woods.

Ninth grade: Pascal Bradshaw, Willie Foust, Howard Wilson, Carmelita Koenig, Ronald Faucette, James Fowler, Irvin Heister, James Vincent, Danny Albright, Doris Lea, Brenda Williamson and Carolyn Williams.

Tenth grade: Bennie Shivers and DeWitt Shanks.

Eleventh grade: John Perry, Elaine Griffin, Laura Satterfield, Emma Curry, Doris Alston and Bettye Foust.

Twelfth grade: Marion Boldin, Alta Mae Fuller, Evelyn Jannella Toel, Annie Curry and Mary Sue Francis.

Need This Every Hour was softly sung for meditation for consecration "Lift Him Up". Today was special for missions and our guest speaker Dr. O. L. Sherrill, Executive secretary of State Convention, Raleigh, N. C. spoke from the theme: "God's method of helping to help ourselves." Story of an at the pool of Bethesda for 38 years. Highlights, time, fear and business. No time to help ourselves or others, fear of being seen or losing prestige. Selfish, might help some one else. Many beautiful parables were brought out and everyone enjoyed the spiritual message.

Mrs. Sherrill accompanied him—both of you come again soon. Our pastor was speaker for vesper hour at Shaw university and returned in time for evening services. Mrs. H. B. Blanks was at the organ.

Subject: Come and See A Man Taken from text, John 4th chapter and the 29 verse was the message delivered by Rev. F. D. Fuller to his congregation at Morning Star Baptist Church, Sunday, Feb. 9, 1958 at 11 A. M. service. The message was inspiring and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Mary Clapp of Kibow St. was hostess to the Missionary Circle No. 1 of Morning Star Baptist Church, last Thursday evening. Bible discussion and general business was the main issues of the meeting. Sister Clara Sandle, president.

Service will be held at Morning Star Baptist Church, Friday evening Feb. 14 1958. Rev. John Smith will be guest speaker, with Mr. Olive Holiness Church's Choir of Graham, N. C. sponsored by Sister Georgia Sarten.

God's free gift is the Life of the Ages, bestowed upon us in Christ Jesus our Lord—(Acts 6, 23).

As He promised in the days when He walked among men, Christ Jesus is with us today when we open our hearts to Him in faith and devotion, when we love Him as He loved us, sacrificing our self-will and self-indulgence as tiny tokens of the sacrifice He made for us on the Cross.

SEW AND SAVE

500 LADIES WANTED!

To Share In This Buy Of Lovely Irish Linen

2500 YARDS FULL BOLTS FIRST QUALITY

69¢ Per Yard

Beautiful Selection of Colors

Regular $1.98 Value

Sorry But We Must Limit Each Customer To 5 Yards

Below Is Listed 9 Other Reasons For You Being One Of The 500

Spring Suitings 45" width 4 YARDS Grease resistant Many colors and weaves Reg. $1.19 value $1.00	Lovely Gingham Beautiful quality 36 & 45" width Slight irregulars of $1.00 quality 1¢ Per Inch
Printed Cottons 1 to 10 yard lengths New spring prints Fast colors Nice assortment 59c value 29¢	Leno Cottons Beautiful quality Hemstitched type leno weave Full bolts 79c value 39¢
Drip-Dri Baptiste Very fine quality No ironing required Lovely assortment of pastel colors. 79c value 39¢	Dacron-Cotton Excellent assortment 3 to 5 yard lengths First quality Drip dry — no ironing 79¢

Manufacturers Remnants - New Spring Goods

Many fabrics Matching pieces

12¢ each 45 in. width

Excellent value

29¢ Per Yard

SEW AND SAVE

THE REMNANT SHOP

Haw River, N. C. -- City of Cone Fabrics

SEW AND SAVE

Champion Bourbon

by Schenley

8 Years Old

$285 Pint $445 Fish

Straight Bourbon Whiskey

BOTTLED BY SCHENLEY DISTILLERS, INC.

PLANTS AT LOUISVILLE, KY., SCHENLEY, IN., FRESNO, CALIF. AND LAWRENCEBURG, MD.

65 PROOF

SUPREME

Shirt Laundry & Cleaners

1-DAY SERVICE

FISHER & HOLT STS. BURLINGTON, N. C.

J. C. HARRIS LUMBER CO.

See Us For Your Building Needs

"Your One Stop Building Supplier"

704 SOUTH SPRING ST. Dial CA 6-9321—P.O. Box 688 BURLINGTON, N. C.

ANNOUNCING THE NEW LOCATION OF

THE SALVAGE HOUSE

344 N. MAIN ST. BURLINGTON, N. C.

"88" OLDSMOBILE "98"

See Us For The Best In

—USED CARS—

LILIEN & LEE, Inc.

306 N. CHURCH ST. P. O. Box 887

TELEPHONE 7448 BURLINGTON, N. C.

FOR FINE Groceries — Meats and Fresh Vegetables

IT'S...

BLALOCK'S GROCERY & MKT.

J. C. BLALOCK, Manager

Roxboro, N. C.

CHEVROLET

SALES SERVICE

No Finer Buys in Town

MELVILLE CHEVROLET CO., INC.

Dial 3-9851

Mebane, N. C.