St. Matthews Sunday School opened at 9:30 a. m. with Master Wm. Tate, superintendent in charge It was a beautiful Sunday and it was well attended. After the school session a discussion review was made by Mr. O. D. Chavis and the pastor Rev. G. W. Troublefield. The morning worship began at 11 o'clock with the Senior choir in charge and Miss Ellen Giles at the organ. The process was sung with the choir kneeling at the altar in reference. After the call to worship the opening hymn was sung. Oh! for a faith that will not shrink. Prayer was led by Brother Robert Dunmore, after which the congregation read the responsive reading The second song was sung by the choir, "Just A Word For Jesus". The spirit prevailed.

The pastor Rev. G. W. Trouble field stressed that to be a true christian that we must be complete in Christ rooted and built up in him, established in the faith and abounding in Thanksgiving.

ANGIER - Sunday was regular pastoral day at Cutts Chapel. Rev. A. J. Avery preached a soul stirring sermon. His text: Walking for the Ltd. He challenged us that when we go out to walk for God. let the people see Jesus in our lives.

When we are walking in the dark prayer can be a light to our pathways. He ended his message to us by singing "I am going to walk right out in Jesus name.

Three new members were added to the church: Mrs. Emma Shipman, Mrs. Gertrude Lassiter and Mr. Lenord Parker.

Visitors at the service were Mrn. 4 Russus Freeman, Smith Grove, Dunn, N. C. Mrs. Mary Walden and Mrs. Beatrice Gilbert of Coats, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bruenson of Kinston.

The morning service was followed by a week-long drive, which inded Sunday and was highlighted by a musical program Sunday evening which was an inspiration to all who was present.

The spirit ran high during the service as various groups participated on the program. The New Zion choirs, Parks Chapel, all male choirs of Fayetteville, Stone Gospel Voices, St. Matthews Church Pinehurst, Eastward choirs, Spiritualities of Benson Chapel and The Harmonizing Five were the participants.

Visiting ministers were Rev. E. A. Jackson, Father Jackson of Pinehurst, Rev. L. J. Ford and Rev. Alexander Walker of Favetteville and Rev. McAllister of Benson.
