Junior Woman's Club Messdames Marguerita Davis and home of Mrs. Davis.

During the short business session the following officers were elected for the year:

vice president, Mrs. Victoria Walters; secretary, Mrs. Mamie

S. Haywood, assistant sec-

Recently, the Guys and Dolls of the Teenage Club of Jack and Jill Club of America met at the home of Geraldine Capahart with Barbara Turner and Geraldine acting as hostesses.

After the business session the group was very highly entertained by Mrs. Susie V.
Perry who took them on an imaginary trip abroad. This was thoroughly enjoyed by both adults and teenagers, as was evidenced by the question and answer period. As some of the countries were discussed, Lloydine Perry, daughter of Mrs. Perry, played the National Anthem of the country discussed.

Mrs. Perry spent two months abroad visiting many countries, too numerous to mention.

Following the very interesting discussion, of the trip, refreshments were served and everyone expressed having quite an enjoyable time.

LIBRARY'S CHILDREN'S ROOM
The Children's Room of the Richard B. Harrison Public Library carries on many activities which are designed to bring good books and children together. In order to do this it has been found that the library must be an attractive place and must offer various types of activities which will make reading alive.

The most popular activity is the "Story Hour" which is held every Saturday morning at 11:30. Children of all ages gather to listen to stories, poems, or records. Sometimes games are played and usually a short film is shown.

The following is the program for Saturday, March 29, 1958:

STORIES
1. "The Little Rabbit who wanted red wings" by Evelyn Bailey.
"The Little rabbit in this story was always wishing he was something different from what he really was. One day he wished for red wings and something dreadful happened."

2. "The Shepherd's Noddy" by Parker Fillmore.
"This story is about a princess and a prince, who wooed her in a very strange way. It may be found in "Easter Chimes," by Wilhelmina Hauper.

3. "The Country Bunny and the little gold shoes," by Du Bose Heyward.

"This story is about the little country bunny who wanted to become one of the five Easter Bunnies, and how she managed to realize her ambition."

MOVIE
"Teeth are to keep."

SUSAN TAYLOR S.S. CLASS The Susan Taylor Sunday School along with other members of the vious meeting as follows:

Mr. Daniel Crandal, president; Mrs. Milton Evans, vice-president; Miss Jacqueline Dolby, secretary; Miss Nicholas, assistant secretary; Mr. Wardell Walker, publicity agent; Mrs. Mary Alice Sanders, treasurer.

The class discussed plans for making the Sunday School stronger and received suggestions from members of the class which it plans to incorporate into its annual goal to increase Sunday School attendance. Mr. Thomas Evans of Shaw University was guest. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

"AGING IN A MODERN WORLD" GROUP MEETS APRIL 1
The Richard B. Harrison Library wishes to call attention to the second meeting of the "Aging In A Modern World" group to be held at the library, Tuesday morning, April 1 at 11:00 o'clock. This group, led by Prof. W. D. Gay, seeks to impress the older age group with the many and valuable contributions they can make not only to themselves but to their community.

Mrs. Mollie Lee, librarian at the Richard B. Harrison Library, says she was highly impressed by the interest and enthusiasm generated at the first meeting of this group, held a few weeks ago. Mrs. Lee wishes to state that because of the number of persons who attended the first meeting and the possibility that this number will be increased at the next meeting, in all probability, the April 1st meeting will be the last chance at present for persons to join this group.

There are no joining or membership fees.
