KINSTON NEWS

BY (MISS) YETTA E. DUNN

March 23 at 5 p.m. in the J. H. and Doctors R. L. Foye and James Junt contest on Sunday afternoon, Sampson School audiorium. The Cameron. program opened with selections by he Adkin High School Glee Ciub tioch Free Will Baptist Church ren-E. B. Bryant presided.

Witner of first place honors was pastor of the church. Otis Davis of Wilson, N. C. who presented a clarinet solo, Second attended on Sunday at the Second and third place winners were Miss | Baptist Church on North Street Margaret Sue Hopkins of Tarboro where Rev. Mr. Coley is pastor and Miss Mary Alice Branch of and at the St. Peters Disciple Kinston, respectively. Critic judge Church on Lincoln St. where Rev. was Mr. Lee Howard, professor of S. W. R. Keyes is pastor. music, Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N. C.

David Baldwin, Clarence Hicks, and John F. Sledge, James Parker cipal of the Goldsboro school. offered a clarinet solo and Miss

Loretta Ryder, a piano solo. as winner was to compete in a later | pital.

Sampson Boys Glee Club, a piano and friends. solo by Brother J. F. Cameron and a selection by Misses Shirley Gra- Shine St. was ill last week at his ham, Matie Fisher, Frances Grain- home. ger, Evelyn Koone, Margaret Munford and Laura Daughety.

Omega Song led by Brother T. K. Siade of Williamston, N. C., con- Rte. 4, is home after recent hoscluded the program.

Comprising the chapter roster of the Kinston Area are Messrs. E. K. home after being hospitalized. Best, U. Best, Harvey Beech, Wil-C. Franks, R. L. Flanagan, W. F. after spending 10 days here. phy. Jr., Grady Bethel, David Len- ill at her home last week

KINSTON-The Nu Alpha Chap- | hardt, E. R. Bryant, Thomas Lof-

The Junior Church choir of An preceding and following the invo- dered music on Sunday night at beautifully sang a solo. cation by Brother C. L. Bond. Bro. the St. James AME Church on East Street. Rev. J. A. Humphrey is ercise, a pageant was presented en-

Quarterly services were largely

The West Elm St. School Dance Group of Goldsboro presented a Other competitive vocal solos program at the Adkin High School were offered by Misses Gladys last week. The group was spon-Barnes, Dorothy Tillery and Gladys sored by the Adkin High School Sapp. Also Messrs James Battle, Science Club. C. K. Harris, formcrly of the Adkin faculty, is prin-

Little Gisele Willarene Bryant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erdman This talent program comprised Raye Bryant, was seriously ill last the entire eastern N. C. Otis Davis | week at the Lenoir Memorial Hos-

Sgt. William Garner left Tuesday competitive numbers in for Eglin Air Force Base, Fla. afsluded a seelction by the J. H. ter three weeks here with relatives

Mr. Lewis J. Jones of 1405 E

Mrs Sina Harris of New Berr is at home after recent hospitali-The awards were presented by aztion at the Good Shepherd Hos-Brother J. H. Broadhurst, basileus pital. Mrs. Harris is the aunt of of the Nu Alpha Chapter. The Miss Elsie R. Dove of Kinston. Mrs. Penney Cox of Kinston, pitalization. Mrs. Lottie W. Chapman is a Sgt. Eddie Kornegay has return

fred Bynum, Stephen Carraway, C. ed to duty at Fort Bragg, N. C. Grice, J. A. Harper, E. S. Houston, Mrs. Novella Jones of the 600 Alexander Raye, Jr., Edgar Mur- block of Lincoln St. was seriously service during a special Vesper Ser-

Invocation was given by Ivan troduction of speaker, Phillip Hyman, address by Fonda Boman, whose topic was "Are we preparboquet of flowers were presented

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO:

SICK AND SHUT-INS

gery but her condition is consider-

DEATHS

Night. Funeral arrangements are boro, N. C. was held on Sunday.

Mr. Hugh Harris and daughter of last week to attend the funeral of

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Herring was held Sunday afternoon at

Union Grove Disciple Church,

HOME DEMONSTRATION

pel Home Demonstration Club furnished music for the sixteenth annual state council which met in Raleigh on Wednesday, March 26.

dames Mildred Fowler, Addie M.

Members of the chorus are: Mes-

Johnson, Cora F. Powell, Marie

Caldwell, Luberta Williamson, Maggie Cousin, Marie Caldwell of Andrew Chapel, Thelma Parker Man-

nie Simmons, Maggie Fryar, Mary

Sams, Emaline Sampson, Leah

Carwell, Estelle Chestnutt, Elizabeth Williamson and Clarise Samp-with the Farr County agents.

him home from the hospital.

Christ on March 28, 29 and 30.

Mesdames Catherine Walker and

The family and friends of Mr

James Herring are glad to have

The General Union of Goldsboro son director.

CHORUS SINGS

Rev. J .F. McLaurin officiated.

March 23, in Greensboro.

Greensboro, N. C.

incomplete at this time.

vice Period.

rears of age) cars of age).

Highlights Of High Point

HIGH POINT - In observance of their maron Mrs. Mattie Perry of Brotherhood in action, the mem- 1119 Kivett Drive, for her devoted bers of the Y.Teens of the Mary Bethune Branch YWCA met jointly with the Y-teens of the Central Ashley, solo, Roosevelt Clark, In-YWCA on Monday Night. The devotions were conducted jointly by to Teens from the Mary Bethune branch, and two Teens from the ing to indure' After the speech a Following this very insipirational service, Mr. Tart Bell, execu- Perry gave a brief response after tive secretary of the American which time the Rev. Kenneth Wil-Friends Service was introduced. liams, chaplin, pronounced the ben- good health means good care for Mr. Bell showed a film entitled "The Broken Mask." This film debicted the trials and conflicts that as matron at Teachers College for faced four interracial youngsters 14 years. She is the mother of that were friends from the period three daughters who are graduates afterwhich, Mrs. Annie Robinson, ner President of Shaw University, of playing together in their neight of Teachers College borhood, attempting to be served together in the town malt shoppe, their college days, and finally, the shock that was registered when they attended worship together. However in spite of it all they enjoyed a lasting friendship. At the films conclusion, the assemblage was divided into study groups to discuss the film. Frappe, Posnuts and Mints were served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Syrena Hudson, chairman of the Teen-age committee, her coworkers, and Miss Winifred Carter. Teen-Age director of the Mary Bethune Branch, accompanied the The Teens to this m eeting. Carter, Teen-Age director of the Mary Bethune Branch, accompanied the that Mrs. Muriel Byrd Harrison,

Teens to this meeting. CLUB MEETINGS THE PATRICIAN CLUB met at the home of Mr. Talmadge Carter. Plans were completed for the Clubs annual Night in Harlem to be held at the local armory April 4th, The club donated the sum of $25.00 to e family that recently suffered a MINISTERS WIVES ALLIANCE The ministers wives held their regular meeting with Mrs. M. D. Glark Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Wanyt Cole, presiding. A very interesting business session was held and plans completed for the annual meeting. The club will feature this year a banquet to he held April 25th in the Brooks ing room. The guest speaker will be. Attorney Eiretta Alexander of Creensboro.

After the business period hostess. Mrs. Clark served a very tasty chicken dinner. Members attending were: Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Cole, Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Elloit, Mrs. J. J. Patterson, Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mrs. F. O. Bass, Mrs. Birdie Saunders, Mrs. Maggie Burris, Mrs. Z. Simmons, and Mrs. Ophelia Sutton.

WISTERIA GARDEN CLUB Mrs. Hattie Hall was hostess to the Wisteria Garden Club at her home on East Street Friday evening. The routine business session was presided over by the president. Mrs. Mozell Lander. The highlight of the evening was a luncheon table and an arrangement of jonquil and greenery done by Mrs. J. I. Hall received the door prize.

The hostess served a very tasty repast at the conclusion of the meeting

MATRON HONORED On last Sunday evening, men of Bickett Hall at Winston-Salem Teachers College paid tribute to

ALLAN MIMS, INC.

FORD SALES

AND

SERVICE

225 TARBORO ST. Telephone 2-2191 ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Apex News

By MRS. E. H. WILLIAMS

APEX-The Apex consolidated High School held its monthly meeting on Monday night, March 10th, in the school's gymtorium.

The White Oak Section of the er of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, tin, Norwood Speight, Bernard Ter- school was in charge of the devopresented its annual Talent ry, George Williams, James Wynn tion. After the opening song, Mrs. Pauline M. H ayes read the scripture from the 5th chapter of St. Matthew and Mr. Garland Herndon, a deacon of the White Oak church offered prayer. Mr. Leroy Farrar

At the close of the devotional extitled, "P. T. A. Cornerstones." a representation of Founders' Day. The characters were: (1) Spirit of the Founders- Mrs. P. T. Atwater. (2) Home-Mrs. Ada Farrar. (3) School, Miss E. Little, (4) Church -Mrs. Odell Stewart. (5) Community-Mrs. Cassie Wilson, (6) Spirit of P. T. A .-- Mrs. Inez McClarant. Mrs. E. H. Long, 6th grade teacher played for the exercise.

At the close of the pageant, sectional reports were made, 1. Apex -- Mrs. E. H. Williams, 2. New Hill Olive Chapel, Mrs. M.E. Raines, 4. Watthews-Mrs. O. Stewart. 5.

Remarks were made by the program chairman, Mrs. P. T. Atwate 10 ladies who brought cakes for the birthday party.

The Apex section will be in large of the April meeting. On Wednesday night, March 19, the Apex Public Library, Mrs. I. T. tuart, librarian, presented another Adult Education Program, It was the 3rd of its kind presented at the

The meeting was opened by the Chairman of Friends of the Library Committee, Mr. W. N. Beasley, afterwhich Mr. Burton of Fuquay Springs, prayed. Mr. W. T. Wilson introduced and presented the guest speaker, Dr. George Debnam, atlending physician in surgery, St. Agnes Hospital, Raleigh, N. C. and practicing physician in Fuquay Springs, N. C.

Dr. Debnam spoke from the subject-"What Good Health Means To

At the outset-the speaker stated hat many illnesses are caused today because of the "stains and stresses that exist in the world today. The doctor said that many physical illnesses originated from mental strains, and that the asylum at Goldsboro and many institutions of its kind, are filled with mental cases because of tensions. The speaker related that good health may mean a new some to to Mrs. Perry by Clide Cash. Mrs. lack of it, many persons dreams are never fulfilled. To another, the dector stated, Shaw Day at Mt. Calvary Baptist some individuals and that for the

the children in the home, education Mrs. Perry has been employed and luxuries. At the close of the lecture, a very inspirational discussion was held, Smith; Message, Dr. W. R. Strass-

Seaborn Jones. March 29th, (9 On Monday night, April 21, the ant; Presentation of Visitors, Mrs. speaker at the Apex Library will W. B. Starke; Shaw University be Rev O. L. Sherrill of Raleigh | Choir under the direction of Prof. Myrtle Hampton, March 31st, (8 who will speak on a phase of relig- | Gil-Smythe, rendered several selec-

Mrs. Verlee Love, of 1221 Hoover Mr W D. Moore, principal of the St. is a patient at High Point Mem- Berry O'Kelly School, was the orial Hospital. She underwent sur- guest speaker at the installation of the Crown and Scepter Club of the ed satisfactory, Mr. Elwood Bru- Apex Consolidated High School on ton of 1511 Davis Avenue is ill at Monday afternoon, March 24th, his home. His condition has im- 1958 proved and he is able to receive Miss Barbara Jean Jones. president of the club w as mistress of ceremony. Louis Powell offered Word has been received here prayer, Mr. Bruce Hill, science teacher at the Apex School, inform-1614 Kivett Drive passed away at ed the student body the meaning of Chapel Hill Hospital on Sunday | crown and scepter. Miss Lorene Smith sang "Mother Machree" and Miss Carolyn Lee gave the poem, "The Builders." Mr. C. C. Bryant, 9th grade teacher, presented the speaker, Mr. Moore, Mr. Moore stressed the points scholarship (Nivice and character.

At the close of the program. Mr. P. A. Williams, principal. Jean Jones, Dorothy Ann Page. Louis Carvon Powell, John Henry Jones (absent). Carolyn Matilda Lee, Jennie V. Lewis, Janice Marie CLINTON - Funeral services for Harris, Dorothy Graham. Bessie Mrs. Laurtine Headen of Greens- Mae Grimsley, Mary Edith Farrar, Rosa Lee Davis, Betty Margaret Green, Lorine Smith, Dolores Those attending the funeral from Jean Douglas, Marie Kersey, Hel-

Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Ernestine and Betty Spinks. Parker, Miss Nancy Boykin, Mrs. | The 7th grade-B teacher Mrs. J. Rosa Brewington, Mrs. Daisy Ad- J. Brown, has a new student Lukins, Miss Mildred Beaman, Mrs. ther Prince He came from the Georgia Ave., Grand District Dep-Ruby Bennett and Mrs. Reva Wil- Garner High School on Monday, March 10th.

The class has a quintet composed Newhaven, Conn. were in the city of Linda Exum, manager and soprano, Otis Richardson, tenor, Pahis aunt Mrs. Lautine Headen of tricia Parrish, soprano, William Newkirk bass and Paul Sinclair, baritone Savannah Herndon was elected as the class reporter. A verse to remember: Behold the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear. Isaiah The Chorus of the Andrews Cha- | 59:1.

Durham

By MRS. IDA LEE SCURLOCK 2916 Mulberry Street DURHAM - Mrs. Cecelia Evana will leave on her vacation and grandchildren and two nieces, Mrs. tour Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., East Orange, N. J., Chi- Mrs. Catherine H. Hartley of New cago, Illinois, before returning Jersey. W. Durham Mission Circle No.

SICK AND SHUT-INS Mrs. Elnore Johnson, Alex Howard, Mrs. Moore of Crest Street, James Vickens are doing fine at Crowder: "The Church and the Raleigh District Assembly was held their homes. Other sick people World Evangelist." at the Union Grove Church of are Dallas Cole, Dalphus Davis, and Mrs. Christina Hopkins.

Washington Junior High School Happenings

Fannie Rand, Mary Taylor, Louise Taylor

Health All The Year Mrs. L. P. Eaton's third grade engaged in a unit-"Health All The Year." The class has been studying about germs. Pupils were told a story of germs: how to keep them out, about germ carriers as and people. This unit is followed | by studying colds and other contagious diseases, how to take care of colds and preventing diseases. Pupils find many interesting things to a such as 1. Sending pictures or drawings to sick friends, a follow-up of the unit will be for each person to check on himself to see what he remembered about the unit.

Bird Unit Is Studied The third grade of Mrs. R. B. Smith's class is now working on a "Unit of Birds". They have just completed a science unit on the -Mr. W. T. Wilson 3. Friendship | wind. Several pupils wrote stories and drew pictures for their books. The pupils and teachers extend a White Oak-Mrs E. Alston, 6, Car- | cordial welcome to parents to visit penter-Morrisville-Mrs. B. Wom. their classroom April 14th at Open House which is the night of PTA. Fourth Graders Study Vitamins

Mrs. Sewell's fourth grade is er, who thanked everyone for their busily engaged studying about vitrticipation on the program and amins. These children are learning many things about foods. They have learned that vegetables have a great deal of minerals and vitamins in them

Wendell Deaver, Glenda Hood, James Watson, Joseph Thomas, Brenda Morgan and Jessie Nettles are active in gathering suit-Thomas Beckwith Does Art Work soon

Thomas Beckwith, a popular Wishes Fer A Happy Easter

these days doing a beautiful job on paper mache. He is helping to make a turtle - Poky. Come and see Poky. Washington pupils and teachers wish for everyone a Happy Easter. Miss Williams Presents Easter Play The pupils in Miss Louise Williams' first grade room presented food flies, pets, unclean objects a play entitled Mrs. Bunny Rabbit's Easter Bonnet.

The characters in the play included Mrs. Bunny Rabbits, Mary Campbell, Mr. Bunny, Leon Jones and the five little bunnies: Linda Stroman, Beatrice Wilson, Ernest Perry, Annie Cameron and Charles Brown. The Girlie was Verita Eanks, the scarecrow was Gordon McCullough and the announcer was James Moore.

Many Friends Visited The guests included Drs. Netl Rosser, assistant superintendent of Raleigh city schools and many parents, including Mrs. Vera Banks, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Louise McCullough, Mrs. A. Dunn, Mrs. A. Dunn, Mrs. Lois Rogers, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Margerta Gregory, Mrs. Hazel Wilson, Mrs. Mae McCray, Mr. and Mrs. H. English, Mrs. Joseph McDuffy, Mrs.

Washington School wishes to extend a cordial welcome to all of kind friends to visit again Dr. N. Rosser Visits Special Charles Branch and Mrs. E. Perry.

Education Department Pupils and teachers were happy to have Pr. N. Rosser, director of instruction to visit the Special Education room last Tuesday. He gave many helpful suggestions. It is hoped that he returns again

Davie St. Presbyterian Church

Corner Davie and Person Sts. Rev. Robert L. Shirley, Paster JESUS NEVER FAILS

"We take too much for granted when we bunch people together or put everyone in the same brackets. We are putting m any a person in there and we are putting a lot of

We can't afford to make such a costly mistake as John Brown who SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB MEETS Roberts Chapel Baptist Church traveled many mules assuming too make up his own mind about his evening.

want to believe. Often we see only those things we want to see CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT religion. People believe what they

The Rev. Robert L. Shirley journeyed to Charlotte, N. C. to attend program at Chatham High School the closing worship service of the recently. a barrel who should not be placed council of Presbyterian men which was held at Johnson C. Smith. Dr. | held its regular meeting along with confidence in people who do not Frank T. Wilson, ex-doan of the an Easter program recently. The Board of Foreign Missions was the guest speaker was Rev. A. T. Mc-

The Social Service Club met at Goldsboro, The pastor is Rev. A. the home of Mrs. Julia Brightwells A student should be allowed to on East Lenbir Street on Tuesday

Goldsboro News

BY J. H. GRAHAM

Church, Denmark St., March 23rd GOLDSBORO - Program: Music was rendered by the choir; Introduction of speaker, Rev. A. R. bookmobile librarian of the Rich Raleigh; Invitational Hymn; Colard B. Harrison Library, Raleigh, lection received by Miss Lenora Linwood Ingram March, 28th (8 N. C., thanked Dr. Debnam for his Johnson, Mrs. S arah Edwards, Mr.

tions, all of which were enjoyed by a capacity crowd. Dinner was served in the Sunday School department immediate-

A. R. Smith, pastor. The Wayne County Science Fair held at Central High School, was a success and well attended. Each display showed skill. The worshop consultants appeared well pleased. Prof. H. R. McKethan of the Frink High School faculty, assistant principal has been drafted as the speaker for Health Education Day of IBPOEW Sunday, April 20.

ly following morning service. Rev.

Sgt. W. T. Cheatham of the Seymour Johnson Air Base surprised his many friends last Sunday evening by driving in with a 1958 Super Buick. It is a beauty. He had been visiting his and Mrs. Cheat-Mrs. Oreta Moore of 439 East ham's parents in Henderson. presented the certificiates and Elm Street, a teacher of the faculty cards to the following honor stud- of the Hyde County Training ents: Doris Jean Burnett, Barbara School, Swansquarter, N. C. spent the weekend with her sunt. Mrs. Emma Sasser and children, Phoebe and Rosalind in Goldsboro. Rev. B. R. Richardson, pastor of now entered the Popularity Con-

Mrs. Geraldine Hudson, Dt. Ruler of Sunbeam Temple No. 447, I.B. Clinton were Mr. and Mrs. Marion en Stewart, Nancy Faye Rogers, P.O.E. of W. of 1904A Olivia Lane is now sporting a maroon Ford coupe. Hats off to her! Dt. Sadie W. Artis of 405 South

> uty. IBPOEW will start on her tour of inspection of Temples in district No. 1 Tuesday, 1st. The newly organized choir of the Shiloh Presbyterian Church rendered very appropriate music Falm

> Sunday, We shall be looking forward to hearing them each Sun-Funeral services were held Wednesday at the First African Baptist Church for Mrs. Mary Y. Clark, wife of Mr. Daniel F. Clark, Sr., a retired merchant. Rev. M. W. Morgan officiated.

Surviving in addition to her husband are four sons, Leroy and Robert Lee of Goldsboro; James Henry of Connecticut; and Daniel, Jr. of New Jersey; four daughters Miss Christine Clark, Mrs. Carrie C. Artis, Mrs. Laura C. Smith, all of Goldsboro; and Mrs. Mary C. Williams of Connecticut: seventeen Laura J. Foster of Goldsboro and Greenleaf School News The Cub Scouts, under the lead-6 met at the home of Mrs. Anna ership of Mrs. Jones and Miss Sabara Moore made the trip along Pearley on Case Street last Mon- Green gave a program in chapel Friday. The theme was "Keep America Beautiful".

Our Sunday School lesson was

I musical numbers for the Business Tuesday night.

the Cub Scout program on Friday, cently, Froi, J. H. Carney, principal, Pike- | ton. Mass. ville Training School, Mr. Theville faculty.

Prof. W. M. Reinhart, Principal, Central High School, Mrs. A. W. McKinnie of Central High School. Mrs. Cleopatra House of the Virginia Street School faculty, Mrs. Ruby Siler of the Dillard High School faculty and many others whose names we do not have at present. We, of Eastern N. C., were proud to note that Prof. J. A. Harper of rator was Miss Yvonne Price. the Kinston N. C. School System was elected vice-president of State Teachers Association, Prof. Harp- ly er is the son-in-law of Prof. H. V.

School, Goldsboro, Prof. A. C. Crowder who succeeded Mrs. Nannie Frederick as Amber S otten and Elizabeth Gloprincipal of the Greenleaf School, ver. has endeared himself into the hearts of parents and students. He play entitled "Cloudburst" by J. also is taking an active part in civic and community affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Williams of the July wedding of their daugh- Whitehead, Hazel Newsome, Jimmy ter, Miss Pauline Elizabeth, to Mr. | Coley, Johnny Brown, Floyd New-John M. Mathews of Rose Hill.

Mr. Thomas C. Dortch, manager of the Community Center, being ably assisted by Mrs. Grace Reid, Shiloh Presbyterian Church, has is doing much to provide wholesome recreation for the boys and girls of this city. Mrs. Freda E. McLamb of the Pikeville Training School faculty, who has been in the hospital for the past week, is improving.

Other teachers attending State A. Heartley, Mrs. A. W. Bostic, Mrs. J. I. Johnson, Mrs. E. M. Lucas, Mrs. Z. J. Foster, Miss A. E. Bunn, Miss W. Jenkins, Mr. A. R. Liggins, Mrs. L. C. Bland.

In a spelling contest sponsored by the Durham Business School, operated by Mrs. M. L. Harris, Miss Hattie L. Simomns of the Dillard High school was the winner and represented her school of the Adkin High School Kinston, Tuesday at 11:30 A. M. Mss. R. O. Weasthers accompanied her there and back. This contest was open for Juniors and Seniors over the state. Prizes were trophies and scholarships. PIKEVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL the Wooten will receive a pin with NEWS This is Dorothy Whitehead and Doris Hicks reporting the latest happenings in and around Pikesville Training School, Annette Artis one of our most outstanding seniors received a $75.00 scholarship to North Carolina College at Durham | Contest was held March 19th, The March 14th. She competed against approximately 60 other high school seniors in a competitve tests given to seniors throughout the state.

One of Pikeville Training School upcoming seniors, Miss Sylvia Exum received thrid p lace in the O-16th. She sang "Ava Maria" by reviewed Friday by Prof. A. C. where credit is due. She has a beautiful voice.

Group of Greenleaf School gave to the District Drama Festival. The Shaw University.

Rambling In Chatham

GOLDSTON - PITTSBORO - SILER CITY

By D. W. Headen - P. O. Box 55 - Goldston, North Carolina Music was furnished by the C. H. | curtains. By GUYTANNA HORTON Jazz Band. The seniors recently The 7th and 8th / rades recently

Company here last week when they held their monthly meeting and enjoyed a delightful barbecue dinner thru the courtesy of the Baker Company.

of discussion. A committee headed by Augustus Coffeld of Weldon presented recommendations to be presented to the 1958 convention extolling the virtues of holding the another state and denied being a member of that state. Mrs. Small was the only Negro on the panel

The 1129-acre farm-school project with its modern buildings an ease of access-by railroads, highway or airplane, (the latter to Rocky Mount) make Bricks an ideal convention center. The Rev. W. Judson King is resident manager of the Congregational-Christian Church property which is really owned by the American Missionary Association, which organizaattended. The pastor is Rev. D. D. tion founded the old Joseph K. Brick School with the late Thomas S. Inborden as principal in 1895.

Eastern Morticians will be with the Cofield Funeral Home, Enfield late in April. Roderick Phillips, Greenville, was listed as president of the group, F. N. Lane, Kinston, is secretary, and J. A. Joyner Farmville presided over the ses-

The guests left with words of praise for the casket manufacturing enterprise of the Jesse Bakers which employs about ten race peo-

> RACE ENTERPRISE WILLIAMSTON we were thrilled to meet a young man who is pioneering in the field of elec-grade in school, has not only got-Executive, was guest speaker at a funeral at Broadway, N. C. re- in Martin County, but is well on the way toward getting his statewide license, as was evidenced by a creditable grade be got when he school: Mrs. V. Greene, Supervisor; Henry Paige left recently for Bos- recently took a state test. He showed us the paper which permits him to try again in June. Meanwhile, young Mr. Whitfield is studying for that test with all seriousness: Whitfield lives with his family at 806 West Main Street. He is married to the former Miss Fannie Alice Edwards. They have five kids. The oldest, Joyce is an eighth grader at the age of 12 years. ALSO IN WILLIAMSTON, a race contractor and builder is highly esteemed for his work. Jesse W. Rogers, 115 N. Sycamore Street, has been building houses for both races for years with success. Rogers, who is grand master of the Odd Fellows of Tarheelis, was much in the news a few months ago when a Martin County deputy sheriff was tried and acquitted of the alleged murder of his (Roger's) nephew-an A. and T. College student in a case of what was thought to have been mistaken identity.

FEDERATED WOMEN PLAN A score or more members of the olanning committee of the North Carolina Federated Negro Club Women met Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sarah S. Leonard wheer they were briefed on the plans for arrangements for the annual convention to be held at the Franklinton Center (Old Brick School) near Enfield June 8-7. Mrs. Fannie T. Newsome of Rich Square is chairman of the committee. Miss introduced him. He stressed the Katie Bunn is in charge of publi-

> Service Dry Cleaners 2-HRS SERVICE

Hats Cleaned & Blocked, Work Guaranteed. S. James St., Tel. 1019 Branch Office 903 N. John St., Tel. 2507-W JOHN R. JONES, Mgr.

MARTIN LUTHER KING COMING

NAACP field secretary Charles McLean has been covering the hers of the Eastern North Carol- state and writing letters in an efina division of the North Carol- fort to get as many of the 2000 inina Funeral Directors Association vited ministers as possible to Durwere guests of the Baker Funeral ham to a "Get-Out-The Vote" in-Home and Casket Manufacturing structional meeting to be held there April 9th to lay the ground work for the spring Register-and-Vote drive which many pastors are cooperating with. Clarence Mitchell, NAACP Washington Bureau head, John 1959 state convention were topics Brooks, Richmond, Va., who heads the stepped-up registration drive, and Dr. Martin L. King, Jr., are among the prominent leaders scheduled to participate in the special one-day conference. Any community desiring NAACP help or information to organize campaigns or branches should address: Charles A. McLean, 1453 Hattie Avenue. Winston-Salem, N. C., or state president Kelly M. Aleaxnder, 325

South Brevard Street, Charlotte. The Rocky Mount churches are combining their spiritual efforts to hold the second annual Easter sunrise service at the local Talbert Park at five o'clock Easter morning. The Rev. J. M. Vinson is the cheduled speaker and the Rev. J. H. Costen is in charge of the program. W. T. Grimes is in overall charge of the combined choirs. At nearby Franklinton Center (Bricks) the Rev. W. Judson King has announced Easter services for the rural community at the Bricks Community Church, beginning with a candle-light Communion service Thursday, April 3rd and special services on Easter morning at 11 o'clock with Rev. King preaching.

Rhamkatte

Missionary Society of Watts Chapel Church held their regular meeting Sunday evening, March 23, at 2:30 p. m. with the president, Mrs. Estella Jones, presid-

Night service began at 7:30 p. m. with the Rev. J. S. Forbes as guest speaker. This service was rendered for the benefit of the building fund, and the program was sponsored by the Trustees of

Watts Chapel Church THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK "God is our refuge and strength a very present help in trouble."

Little Miss Gwendolyn E. Mat-thews celebrated her birthday on March 24, and her many friends wished her a happy birthday.

LEMOS' Sea Food Market CITY WIDE DELIVERY FRESH FISH DAILY Tel. 2507J -- 901 N. John St.

> GOLDSBORO, N. C. MOORE'S

Lemo Clark, Prop.

GROCERY Fresh Meat at all times Prompt and Efficient Service 505 Creech 3t. GOLDSBORO, N. C.

SHANKS FISH AND GROCERIES WE DELIVER 424 E. Elm Street - Tel. 9294 Ed Shanks, Prop. GOLDSBORO, N. C.

JAMES ST. Billard Parlor For Your Recreation 329 South James Street Ed Simmons, Prop. GOLDSBORO, N. C.

-FOR GOOD-HOME COOKED FOODS GREEN PARROT CAFE Cor. James & Pine Streets

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

TARHEELIA By Jay Bee Aytch EASTERN MORTICIANS IN TARBORO - Twenty-two mem-

cussed were, "Facing Reality in Religion," "Facing Reality in Rec-'Shop talk' and plans for the reation". Mrs. Small reported that the discussion filled problems' and One of the members of the panel from Arkansas stated that during the Little Rock integration period she served on a committee in 1959 convention at the Franklinton Center (the old Brick Junior College) located on U.S. highway 301, 16 miles north of Rocky Mount An Easter Program will be held at the Mitchell Chapel Church on Sunday night, April 6. The program

The next monthly meeting of the

The Deep River Ushers Union Cleave. The meeting was held at Vitstors: Mr. Ernest Fuller and friends of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Berrie aPige. Mr. William Headen of Greenshoro visited in this city recently. Mr. and Mrs Willard Alston of Sanford, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Edwards Jr., trical contracting and is destined Mrs. Thelma Siler visited Mr. and to 'go places' for himself and the and Professional Women's League Mrs. Arthur Siler recently, Mrs. race. program which was held at West Elnora Paige, along with her son. W. H. Whitfield, who says he nev-Elm Street Junior High School on visited her brother, Mr. and Mrs. er advanced beyond the eighth Herbert Fuller in Sanford, N. C. Mr. E. O. Robinson, Field Scout recently, Mrs. Paige also a ttended ten his county electrician's license

Delegates to State Teachers As- Mr. and Mrs. Clercon Paige visitsociation from Wayne County ed her mother in Goldston, Mr.

PITTSBORO - The Interdenominational Ushers' Union was held on March 30, Gees Grove Church

Siler City. Over $200.00 was raised during the session. Rev. R. V. Horton of Mitchell Chapel Church, of iPttsboro celebrated its first anniversary on March 30. The first part was held at Horton School and the second part at Alston Chapel

MRS. ROXIE SMALL APPEARS

the Horton School P. T. A., Pittsboro, supervisor of the Home for the aged and pastor of Belmont ion at the University of N. C. Tues.

The subject of the discussion was

"Facing Reality in Your Community." Some of the other subjects dis-solutions on these topics.

and the only Negro present.

SILER CITY NEWS

was held at First Baptist Church

Pittsboro, recently a large crowd

Brown. The original Five Blind

Boys of Mississippi, The Highway

C. Q's and the King Stars of Greensboro, along with the Spirit-ual Five of the city rendered a

By CHRISTINE PAIGE

The Deep River Union meeting

starts at 7:30 P. M.

T. Alston.

church, spoke on a panel discuss-

Mrs. Roxie Small, President of Church.

March 25.

The Alston Chapel Male Chorus

Pittsboro, delivered the sermon.

Sick list: Mr. John Price is imdore Bryant, teacher of the Pike- proving at his home. We wish a speedy recovery The 4-W Club meeting was held at Miss Nellie Paiges recently. A brief demonstration was given on sewing. Every one seemed to en-CHATHAM HIGH SCHOOL NEWS The Junior Class presented in Chanel a play entitled "Dear Ole Chatham High" recently. The nar-The Band Parents of C. H. S. sponosred a Debutante Ball recent-Miss I inda Horton was crowd-Runners up were Misses Brown, principal, Dillard High Jacquel Martin and Christine Paige. Other participating were, Misses Sandra Kelly, Betty Check, Clark Weaver received an A-3 rating. The paracipants were advised by Miss M. L. Hoskins. The charac-801 W. Pine St. have announced ters were Georgia Exum, Dorothy

The senior class enjoyed a very intellectual talk March 18th by Mr. E. R. Williams, a member of the Phi Be Sigma Fraternity, celebrating "Bigger and Better Business Week." Mr. W. A. Foster following five points and their city. percentages as a guide to better business. 1st Good Character -41 per cent. 2. Good Judgement -Teachers Association, Raleigh: Mrs. 17.5 per cent. 3. - The ability to get along with people and to get people along with them. - 14.5 per cent. 4. - Efficiency -- 14 per cent. 5. Special training - 13 per cent.

Eleven seniors participated in a Word - O - Roma contest presented at Barnes Business College in Goldsboro. They were: Norwood Mozingo, Marvin Artis, Charles McKinnie, Robert Hill, Annette Artis, Doris Hicks, Bertha Wooten, Shirley Brown, Melen Bass, Georgia Exum, and Dorothy Whitehead. Annette Artis received a $30.00 scholarship to Barnes Business College which was second place. Berhonor written upon it as 3rd place winner and Helen Bass received a fine ball point pen as 4th place winner. Surely our trip to Barnes Business College was not at all in

The Ninth grade Declamatory winners were, Shirley Jean Best, 1st place, Shirley Ann Best 2nd place and Gwendolyn Sherrod 3rd

We are proud to say that Henry Suggs No. 28 on our Basketball team and only senior journeyed to mega Talent Hunt, Sunday March | Shaw University, Saturday March 22nd. He worked out nicely with Bach-oGunod. We must give credit the team, and was promised an athletic scholarship. He was accompanied by Mr. W. L. West and The Dramatics Club traveled to Mr. T. Bryant, members of the ath-The Choral Group and the Dance | E. E. Smith High School, March 15, letic committee and graduates of beautified the stage with new presented two one-act plays.

Hopping About