Bobby Boyd Gets Unanimous Decision Over Neal Rivers

Troy in 1953, and by "Spider" CHICAGO -- (ANF) -- Bobby | Boyd, Chicago's hot and cold middleweight bounced back into the fistic spotlight last Wednesday hight when he jabbed and punched his way to a unanimous 10tound decision over rugged Neal Rivers of Las Vegas, Nev. before a small ringsidse crowd in the Chicago Stadium.

The one-time No. 1 middleweight contender, handled Rivers, ranked No. 8 by the National Boxing Association, with comparative ease. He beat his man repeatedly to the punch. scoring with a spearing left jab and short uppercuts to the jaw. He also avoided many of Rivers' shots, taking particularthe sate ly care to see that no heavy bombs explode on his fragile jaw. When he opened up, he displayed a two-fisted attack which he reportedly learned under the tutelage of former heavyweight campaigner Bob Saterfield.

DENVER, Colo. - (ANP) Heavyweight Champion Floyd Pat terson, who hasn't had a fistic payday in the last eight months may soon get a chance to pick up some loose money.

A local promoter, backed up by a couple of businessmen, offered the champion $250,000 to defend his title in November against Don Hodge, a fistic non= entity outside of the Golden Gloves rank.

Dodge, who hails from Wichita; as., is the 1957 Golden Gloves champ.

The offer was disclosed by Arthur Freeman, Wichita oil operator, who said William Colbert. Wichita matchmaker, telegraphed the proposal to Cus D'Amato, Patterson's arbitrary manager.

If Patterson takes the match, it will be his second defense against an amateur. He scored a sixth round KO over Pete Rademacher in his last title fight.
