RUSH MEMORIAL CHURCH

By MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE Our services on Sunday were very uplifting and gratifying. The senior choir was in charge of the music. Promptly at 11 o'clock A. M. the call to worship was sounded by the pastor and the choir led the congregational singing, "Holy, Holy," etc. The doxology, pastoral prayer and choral response followed. Our 1st hymn, No. 209, "Amazing Grace," was sung, lined by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson.

The responsive reading was for the 18th Sunday, "Christian Unity." Scripture lesson was then read by our pastor, from Paul's letter to 1st Corinthians, 10th chapter, comprising 26 verses. The soul stirring prayer was offered by Brother Thomas Jones. Choral response, "O Lord Have Mercy." Our 2nd hymn No. 409, "The King of Heaven his table Spreads" was sung while the congregation reverently meditated. The pastor then chose his text from the same scripture read, 1 Cor. 10:21, "Ye cannot drink the cup of devils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of the devils." Theme: "The Significance of the Lord's Table." It is significant because it was dedicated and authorized by God before His Crucifixion, suffering and death.

Many various points were brought out which lead to a great good message. At the 7:30 o'clock hour after the singing of several selections the minister chose his discourse from Genesis, 32:29 and the latter clause "And he blessed him there." The minister told at length as to how God blesses us in so many ways. We were again privileged to witness a brief but powerful message.

Each Sunday morning we greet new faces in our worship services. We are grateful and extend to you a standing invitation to worship with us always if you so desire.

Method News CHURCHES

METHOD - Regular monthly services were held at the Christian Tabernacle Church Sunday, May 4th with Rev. Harvey Haywood, the pastor in charge. Rev. Haywood always thrills his audience with words of wisdom and truth.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE The Missionary Circle of St. James A. M. E. Church will meet Sunday, May 11. The one-day missionary convention will meet with this church on Wednesday, May 14th at 10 o'clock. This is for the whole Raleigh district. All church members are required to bring baskets.

AT BERRY O'KELLY SCHOOL Superintendent of County Schools, Mr. Fred Smith will meet the patrons of this community at the school Friday night at 7 o'clock. Every grown up person be present and please come on time. Important business. This meeting is under the auspices of the Civic League.

SICK Our sick are about as of last week. DEATH Mrs. Annie Hicks Terrell, a life time resident of Method, passed to her reward Saturday at St. Agnes hospital.

Mrs. Terrell lived in her home here until illness prevented her from doing so. She has lived with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Hicks Morgan for the past few years.

A most loyal member she was of St. James A. M. E. church here. For years she with Mrs. Callie McCray, took care of keeping the church auditorium clean without compensation. She helped in every auxiliary of the church. Paid her dues with love and pride. We shall miss this faithful member.

She leaves three sisters, one brother and several nieces and a nephew. Rest in peace, Sister Annie for one day we shall see you again. Funeral was conducted at the church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. R. W. Wisner, her pastor was in charge.

VISITS IN DANVILLE, VA. Mrs. Louise Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Curtis and daughter, Rose Elaine, and Miss Dora D. Stroud motored to Danville, Va. Sunday to worship with the Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. C. R. McCrary, pastor. He is doing a wonderful job there. The congregation has just completed an educational department to the church which is a thing of size and beauty.

We with Dr. Grady Davis, and other members of the Oberlin Baptist Church enjoyed ourselves to the highest. The occasion was the 5th anniversary of Rev. C. R. McCrary's pastoring there. He received many nice gifts from all departments of the church, also his wife and little son. We were served a sumptuous dinner.

FOOD SHOW All of us who attended the food show sponsored by the Carolinian newspaper last week at the City Auditorium enjoyed it to the highest. The talent program as well as all exhibits were grand and such lovely prizes were given to those who held lucky numbers. Everyone should avail themselves the opportunity of attending these yearly food shows.

A THOUGHT Every person is born good if he or she turns bad it's someone's fault. Do not let one fault be laid to anyone of us.

St. Matthews AME Church

By MRS. MARIE M. RIDDICK The Sunday School opened at 9:30 A. M. with a large attendance. Mr. V. P. Lesche and Mr. Wm. Tate were acting superintendents. We were very pleased to have Mr. Robert Jones and Mr. Roosevelt Liles from Hickory as our guests.

The morning worship began at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge and Miss Margaret Holt at the organ. The services began with the choir marching to the altar singing the processional and kneeling in meditation and prayer and thence to the choir stand. The first song was "Father I Stretch My hands to Thee." A fervent prayer was led by Mr. Robert Jones. The second song Just A Word For Jesus. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Troublefield, chose his text and his theme was "The Eternal Cup."

"And when He had blessed it, He brake it and said, 'Take eat: this is my body which is broken for you: Communion was given. We were glad to have Mr. Robert Liles and Mr. Roosevelt Jones of Hickory as guests at the morning worship.

On next Sunday a Mother's Day program will be given. Come out and join with us in all the services. The one-day annual conference will be held at Effland on May 28th. You are always welcome to our services. And if you have not heard Rev. Troublefield, you must.

Hopping About TARHEELIA

By Jay Bee Aytch CLARENCE NORFLEET, ELKS ORATOR

ROCKY MOUNT - Clarence Eugene Norfleet, 14-year-old Patullo High School freshman student and son of Mr. and Mrs. William Norfleet, 1204 Elm Street, Tarboro, was judged the best of five speakers on the district No. 3 oratorical contest program of the IBPOEW (Elks) held here at BTW high school April 27th.

The Rev. J. H. Costen, Presbyterial minister, delivered the educational address to the audience. There were five contestants who spoke on the Constitution of the United States. J. B. Harren conducted the program.

Mrs. Gladys Mathewson and Mrs. Beatrice G. P. Burnette of Tarboro, visited briefly with Mrs. A. H. Harren, 240 Penna. Avenue Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Harren was injured in a car accident while enroute school last week. She suffered a cut lower lip which required some stitching up.

Also considerably shaken up in the rear-end collision were Mrs. Bertha W. High and Mrs. Mamie Spicer Lassiter. Mrs. Harren was charged with following too close. Several cars were stopping behind a school bus and confused drivers. The annual 9-8 Club round-up for Edgecombe and Nash Counties were held last week. One in Tarboro May 2 and Nashville had theirs May 3rd. These are gala occasions for the rural citizens with schools closing and the bands, 4-H' and students marching to their hearts content as they exhibit their training in the arts which they have obtained during the year. Farm and Home agents and teachers conduct the long programs while the youths enjoy everything. Each county featured a street parade with decorated floats emphasizing better home management, farming and healthy living as well as the preserving of food.

Benjamin Jones is president of Edgecombe 4-H County Council. T. C. Boyd is Farm Agent and Mrs. Hazel S. Parker is Home Agent. Mr. and Mrs. Willie and Maudie Dickerson of Margarettsville, were here for the Elks oratorical contest April 27th. Also Principal Spaulding of Pendleton.

ents (especially those who fear facing the test of equality of training, work and responsibility) think we have struck our swords and "study war no more." That is far, far from the case. We must keep on fighting and qualify for the integrated future which lies ahead.

Even though we now have the right to ride practically unrestricted (if we'll but contend for it), there is much more to be done, particularly in the political arena.

Whoever a Negro is running for office we should support him with mass registration and voting. Wake County citizens have a wonderful opportunity to support Nelson H. Harris for the legislature and Lumberton its Rev. E. Burns Turner.

GEO. WHITE HOME A SHRINE The writer has just learned from a reliable source that the one-time residence of the late Congressman George White (last year congressman prior to Oscar DePriest) is still standing in Tarboro - and without any historical marker designation.

We humbly call on the colored and white citizens of Edgecombe County and Tarheelia in general to not longer neglect the memory of this colored leader. His home is due a marker by the State just as other worthy Tar Heels receive. The Courthouse mall in Tarboro sports several markers of their illustrious citizens. It's time whites, along with Negroes, erase this type of willful neglect.

Louisburg Happenings

By MRS. ALVIN WILLIAMS LOUISBURG - A most successful session of the Franklin and adjoining counties Ushers' Convention was held at the Haywood Baptist Church May 3-4. The theme: "The Usher's Role at the Dawn of A New Day." Main features in the convention: Theme discussion, Rev. S. L. Sutt, Louisburg; Demonstration of Ushers' Activities - Rev. O. B. Burson, Henderson; Address - Dr. Ellen S. Alston, Executive Secretary, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Convention, Raleigh; Sermon Saturday night, Rev. W. J. Hall, pastor, Spring St. Baptist Church, Henderson, N. C.

On May 2, at 8 P. M., The Mitchell Chapel Usher Board held its regular meeting with the president in charge. After a brief business period came the training period which consisted of brief discussions, questions and answers and Mrs. Mabel Davis directed the Ushers Drill.

Sunday, May 4, at 9:45 Chapel School at the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church with the Superintendent in charge.

Subject of the lesson: "God Reveals His Law." Sunday night, May 4, at 6 P. M. B. T. U. and regular first Sunday night service. The president was in charge of B. T. U. A most powerful and soul-stirring sermon was preached by the pastor. This was evidenced when the spirit was felt among the worshippers.

PERSONALS Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bethea of Long Island, New York are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Cheryl Elaine Bethea, born March 6.

Mrs. Bethea before her marriage was Miss Delith Foster, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Foster.
