Confessed Slayer Returned To The Scene Of His Crime

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Eugene Cockrell, 24, who told Little Rock police he had killed his wife at Meridian, Miss., April 21, was turned over to Mississippi officers last week.

Cockrell said he shot and killed his wife and then set fire to her body and house. He also told police he took an automobile at gunpoint to escape, and then climbed a Negro and a white man at Memphis during robberies.

Richard Veal, 26, of Natchitoches, La., was arrested with him. Veal reportedly was his accomplice in the Memphis robberies.

Both waived extradition. Veal was returned to Memphis.
