

Drs. Jas. H. Robinson, Kenneth I. Brown To Deliver "Finals" Addresses At NCC

DURHAM — Dr. James H. Robinson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of the Master, New York City, and Dr. Kenneth I. Brown, executive director of the Danforth Foundation, St. Louis, will be baccalaureate and finals speakers at North Carolina College on June 1 and June 3, respectively.

Dr. Robinson is expected to preach to some 350 candidates for undergraduate, graduate and professional degrees at 3 p. m. Sunday, June 1 in the Men's Gymnasium.

Dr. Brown's speech to the graduates will be given at 11

a. m. Tuesday (June 2). NCC's 48th finals get underway at 8 p. m., Friday May 30 with Senior exercises. Alumni Day will be observed Saturday, May 31. A national alumni meeting at 10 a. m. and traditional installation services at 8 p. m. are features of the day.

Among the activities scheduled for Baccalaureate Sunday are Dean of Women Louise M. Latham's annual breakfast at 9 a. m., the annual sermon at 3 p. m., President and Mrs. Alfonso Elder's traditional reception for faculty, graduating classes, and visitors at 4:30, and the annual commencement recital in Duke Auditorium at 8:15. As in past years, parents of graduates will be guests at NCC starting Saturday night and continuing through Tuesday night.

Monday, June 1 will be Senior Day, highlighted by the annual Senior play in Duke Auditorium at 3 p. m.

Commencement planning is under the joint planning at NCC of a committee headed by Mrs. F. M. Eagleson, registrar, and Dr. Joseph H. Taylor, chief marshal.

History Of Negroes In NC Legislature, US Congress

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Nelson Harris of Shaw University, Raleigh, will campaign in Wake County for a seat in the state legislature. To acquaint its readers with the participation of Negroes in the North Carolina Legislature and U. S. Congress, the CAROLINIAN will publish a series of articles dealing with this subject. The fifth of these featured stories appears in this issue.

When the Fusionists came into power in 1895, it was anticipated they would extend the system of popular election to municipal government. In fact, the Democrats alleged that the Fusionists did so in order to turn the towns over to Negro rule.

It is not known whether the Fusionists altered city and town charters to put Negroes in office or not, but it is very doubtful.

Investigation does show that the number of wards in many cities were reduced, and that the Fusion system of electing a mayor was as undemocratic as the one used by the Democrats.

Under Democratic administration, the city of Raleigh had five wards which elected every two years 17 aldermen who were empowered to elect the mayor.

When the Fusionists came into power in the 1890's they reduced the wards from five to four, and each elected 3 aldermen. However, the mayor, city clerk, tax collector, and police were elected by popular vote every two years.

While the Democrats predicted Negro domination of city offices in Raleigh, for example, only one Negro, E. A. Johnson, was elected as alderman among a group of twelve.

The Fusionists won the municipal election in Wilmington, N. C. in 1894. In March, 1897, three Negroes became Wilmington aldermen, namely: Owen Fennel, Elijah M. Green, and Andrew J. Walker. At the same time, the Governor appointed a Negro named John G. Norwood.

In Greenville, N. C. a board of councilmen consisting of four Negroes and two whites appointed white Republicans as mayor and chief of police, a Negro clerk, and two Negro policemen.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED that between 1890 and 1901, a number of Negroes held municipal offices but did not dominate city administration. Among them were:

Raleigh had some Negro magistrates and police and one alderman; Wilmington elected four Negro aldermen as well as policeman and firemen. Greenville put in office four Negro aldermen.

Studies show that Populists and Republicans, who were mainly put in office by Negro voters, were not enthusiastic in Negroes holding office.

No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

Each summer millions of Americans take to the road with visions of a pleasant trip. Only too often, however, these dreams turn to unpleasant delays or repair bills due to an overheated engine.

According to the American Automobile Association and Society of Automotive Engineers, the green in most overheating cases is last winter's anti-freeze.

Contrary to what you may have heard, anti-freeze, particularly the so-called "permanent" type, should be drained every spring. Here's why:

After one season's use, acids may form in anti-freeze solutions. Rust inhibitors neutralize the acids but inhibitors eventually lose strength and the solution becomes corrosive. Corrosion of iron causes rust which can clog the radiator and engine water passages. Then—you're in trouble, serious overheating trouble.

So, before you head for that pleasant vacation take these precautions:

1. Have dealer drain anti-freeze from radiator and engine block.
2. Clean and flush cooling system.
3. Check cooling system for leaks.
4. Refill radiator with water and add chemical rust inhibitor.
