The topic for young people and adults is "Living by God's Laws." In studying this lesson, provide yourself with the Holy Bible.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING
Originally, among Jews, the Shema consisted only of one verse, Deut. 6:4; but in the liturgy which was developed later, three portions of the Pentateuch are included: Deut. 6:4-9; 11:13-21; and Numbers 15:37-41. Josephus says that the command to read the Shema twice every day was ordered by Moses. The time for reading the evening Shema begins with twilight and ends four hours later.
