Orchids to the people in Chapel Hill. They honored their great coach, Willie Bradshaw, at a banquet last week and presented him fifty dollars in cash. The banquet was for a twentieth century lay-out - an era the cash award marked a new era for coaches in Negro high school circles.

Winston-Salem Teachers College has the greatest track team in the country. Every old grad you come across now is pulling out his Alumni card to show that he is in good standing. Since the team stole the show in Raleigh last week, I have had at least thirty cards drawn on me. Some old grads even claim to have footed the bill for Elias Gilbert's airplane flight from California to Raleigh last week.

The Central Piedmont Conference held its first track meet at Hillsdale High School last week. Hillsdale took first honors with Merrick-Moore coming in second.

Person County High School won five baseball games in the past two weeks to paste a 9-1 record in the eastern division. Ligon High of Raleigh also a 9-1 record. If no other eastern schools can better the standings of the two schools, a playoff for the eastern title may be in the making for the Little Blues the second, 4-3.

Yours truly is leaving the old stand in Person County. After eleven years, I've called it quits. After all "Daddy Grace," "Togo" Jones, "Half Head," Cliff Williams, "Robby" Robinson, Harry Coles, Kenny Farham, Sammy Elliot, Jimmy Goods, "Souza" Mangum and "Koolie" Whitted are around no more. That was fast company, and its lonesome without them. I thank them for having passed this way.

Angier News

By MRS. POLLY C. STOKES
ANGIER — The Christian Youth Council of the Central North Carolina Conference held the youth-arama Elimination Contest at Kyles Temple A. M. E. Zion Church in Durham. Miss Barbara Dean Stokes was contestant for the Raleigh District.

Service at Cutts Chapel was well attended on Sunday morning. Rev. R. J. Avery, pastor delivered a soul-stirring sermon. His text: Tell Jesus, Matthew 14:12 (and his disciples came and took up the body, and buried it and went and told Jesus). He challenged us to tell Jesus about our troubles, invite him into our lives. A good mother in the midst of all troubles will take her burdens to God. A good mother will stick by her children, home and church. God wants pure men and women.

A THOUGHT
Those who find freedom to others deserve it not for themselves and under a just God cannot long retain it.

Roxboro News

ROXBORO — Frank Graves, former student and football player at Person County High School, is home visiting his mother and relatives. He has just returned from Germany where he spent two years in the service of "Uncle Sam."

The Person County High School baseball team has tied Raleigh for the eastern championship. The state commissioner will set a date for the two teams to play for the eastern title.

Bud Thomas, "the bread and butter" pitcher for the high school, has been the Iron Man in the box this season for the Panthers. He has a 7-1 record and will be called upon to shoulder all of the heavy work in the coming championship games. John Lawson, at third base, has been a powerhouse on the defense and at times has come through with some timely blows at the bat. To coach Skink Browning, he is the player that has developed more than any in the past two seasons. Rufus Betts at shortstop, and P. T. at first base are dependable performers along with Willie Rostov at second base.

ISN'T THIS SOME RECORD? The boys softball team at Woodland Elementary School, in Person County, just completed their second straight undefeated season. They have not lost a game since 1956. They have never lost a home game in a total of five years of playing. Their last win was the 14th in a row and their record for the five years of playing 26 wins against 4 defeats (all by one score margins). Percentage wise, this means that these boys have won an amazing 87 per cent of all games played at home or away.

A LIGHT AND FANCIFUL DESSERT

This delicate fruit-flavored gelatin dessert, so appropriately named Spring Fancy, is agreeable with color and delightful flavor. It's so easy to make too, with lemon-flavored gelatin and fruit.

Juicy strawberries and canned pineapple are perfect companions for the lemon-flavored gelatin that has been prepared with pineapple juice and fresh, cool mint. A pretty fruit design is arranged at the bottom of a mold and held in place with slightly thickened gelatin.

While this is chilled, the remaining gelatin is whipped to a thick and fluffy consistency. Strawberries and pineapple are then folded into the whipped gelatin and the mixture is poured into the mold over the fruit layer. It is then chilled until firm.

Serve Spring Fancy with whipped cream and a garnish of whole, ripe strawberries. With a plate of cookies and a cup of sparkling hot tea as accompaniments, your meal will end with applause from all partakers.

SPRING FANCY
1 package lemon or lime-flavored gelatin
1 tablespoon chopped fresh mint leaves
1 cup hot water
1 cup canned pineapple syrup
2-4 cups whole fresh strawberries, hulled
1 slice canned pineapple
1-2 cup sliced canned pineapple slices
1-2 cup sliced fresh strawberries.

METHOD: Combine gelatin and mint in bowl. Add HOT water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Then add pineapple syrup, cover and let stand 15 minutes. Strain. Chill until slightly thickened.

Arrange whole strawberries and pineapple slices on bottom of 1-1/2 quart mold. Pour half of slightly thickened gelatin into the mold. Chill until slightly thickened.

Place remaining gelatin in bowl of ice and water. Whip with egg beater until fluffy and thick. Then fold in sliced pineapple and sliced strawberries. Spoon onto firm gelatin in mold, chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with sprigs of mint.

Mayor Daley Salutes Dr. Dubois On Eve Of Big Testimonial Fete

CHICAGO (ANP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley greeted the approaching tribute to the noted scholar Dr. W. E. B. DuBois as a "timely testimonial to the distinguished work of a renowned leader."

Dr. DuBois will be honored as "Man of the Century" at a $25-a-plate dinner Wednesday at Dunbar High School.

Headed by Truman K. Gibson, Sr., a sponsoring committee will present Dr. DuBois in a public lecture which will precede the dinner. Proceeds from the dinner will be used to re-issue some of Dr. DuBois' books now out of print and to buy volumes for presentation to the libraries of Plak, Wilberforce and Atlanta Universities where he held professorships.

The sponsoring committee includes Rev. J. C. Austin, Jr., Golden B. Darby, Atty. Earl E. Dickerson, Dr. St. Clair Drake, A. L. Foster, Col. Marcus H. Ray, and Judge Fred Duke Slater.

RUSH MEMORIAL CHURCH

By MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE
Fine services are in store for all who attend our worship services from time to time. The service begins promptly at 11: A. M. after the call to worship was sounded Sunday the senior choir led the professional singing "Marching To Zion. The praise and consecration around the altar is always a regular part of our services.

Our 1st hymn, Number 235, "Close To Thee," was sung, lined by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson. The responsive reading was for the 20th Sunday, "Life and Godliness." The Affirmation of faith "The Apostles Creed was repeated audibly. Scripture lesson was then read by our pastor from Paul's letter to the Ephesians, the 5th chapter comprising 2 verses. The soul-stirring prayer was offered by Brother Neil Sanders. Our 2nd hymn, No. 378, "O For A Closer Walk" was sung. The ministers then chose his text from the same scripture read, Eph. 5:14, "Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

Great emphasis was placed on the following: I. To awake. II. To arise from the dead. III. Christ will give thee light. This was indeed one of those powerful gospel messages that was very well received, because to day there are so many people asleep to the dangers and pitfalls of life.

At the 7:30 o'clock hour the minister, talked at length from Isaiah 19. "Come now and let us reason together saith the Lord. Again we witnessed a fine message. We dare not close this report without mentioning the Junior Church services that are being conducted each Sunday in the basement of the Church by a very capable and enthusiastic young minister, Rev. Mr. A. T. Hockaday, a student of Shaw University.

We take off our hats to this young man, because he is doing a good and great work with the children and youth of our church. We pray earnestly that God will continue to bless both him and Rev. Carson to continue to convey to us the many fine services that they have done up to the present time. We invite you to come and sit in on the Junior Church services.

CARY NEWS

By MISS MAE N. HOPSON
CARY — Sunday was regular service day at Union Bethel A. M. Church. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Hunter, delivered an inspirational message. His theme: "God's Will". Scripture lesson: St. John, II chapter, 2nd verse. Many visitors worshipped with us from neighboring churches and towns.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beckwith of Richmond, Va., were the week-end guests of his mother, Mrs. Alice Beckwith, on East Johnson St.

Sunday afternoon there was a baby contest held at Union Bethel A. M. E. Church. The babies who won the prizes for the largest amount were Felicia Jones and Hubert Allen Evans Jr. A large sum was acknowledged. This program was sponsored by this reporter for the building fund.

Mrs. Mary Crenshaw of Raleigh was the Sunday guest of Mrs. Leslie Grisson on Washington Road.

Sunday evening at 8 P. M. at the Congregational Christian Church Choir and Congregation and others motored to Apex, and attended the First Anniversary of the pastor of the First Baptist Church, the Rev. Mr. W. T. Bigelow. Quite a number attended this anniversary from here.

The C. I. H. U. Community Club gave a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Sally Bailey in honor of Mrs. Arelean Moore. The gifts consisted of everything needed. Those attending were Mesdames Robert Jones, Mary Ferris, Dennese Patterson, Virginia B. Hopson, Jeardline Arrington, Katherine Barnett, Lois Arrington, Ruth Evans, Thelma Saunders, Ann Pollard, and Christine Reeves.

SICK AND SHUTINS
We are wishing a speedy recovery to Mr. Joseph Bailey, who is in the Veterans Hospital in Durham; Mr. James Jones in a Durham hospital; also to Mr. Donald Honson at St. Agnes Hospital in Raleigh.

ASHEVILLE HOSTS ELKS
ASHEVILLE — The Fawndale lodge and Rhododendron temple of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOEW) proved themselves worthy hosts to the 38th annual State Convention of the N. C. IBPOEW here last week.

Meeting here for the first time in 27 years, only the old-timers could recall how Elkdom looked on parade. Altho the convention delegation was small since many lowlanders are loathe to climb the mountains, the group presented a creditable demonstration with Stephens-Lee high school band, Morganton band and the Highland band of Gastonia along with Hill Street school band of Asheville furnishing music.

Josephine Boyd of Greensboro was declared the winner of the Elks oratorical contest and will represent the state at the regional IBPOEW contest in Charleston, S. C. in June. Clarence Norfleet, Pailo high school student from Tarboro, finished third in the contest.

The Rev. Otis E. Dunn, exalted ruler, and Mrs. Sallie Acker, daughter ruler, along with Mrs. Irene Dudley and their loyal Bills and Daughters, perched themselves superbly on the convention. The Elk home at 382 South French Broad Avenue was well-attended for the occasion.

William T. Grimes, Rocky Mount choir director and assistant grand director of music for IBPOEW, made quite a hit with the Ashevilleans in the training and presenting
