3 Faculty Members
Feted For Long Service

GREENSBORO — Three faculty members of A&T College were honored last Tuesday night for having completed twenty-years of service at the institution.

Those feted included: William H. Gamble, dean of men; Dr. W. L. Kennedy, chairman of the Animal Industries Department and J. C. McLaughlin, professor of Rural Sociology. The three were presented gold certificates by the Fellowship Council at the organization's ninth annual banquet held in Murphy Hall. The awards were presented by Miss Dollie Horton, Pikeville.

The organization also honored Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president of the college for "his deep interest in the spiritual life of the students, his outstanding service as a church-

Are you on the team?

What makes your town is not a part of organized baseball, but it has a team which is "playing ball," so to speak, for community progress. Your Finer Carolina committee is such a team with every facet of community life represented. Their goal is to make your town a better place in which to live.

Carolinians are running up big scores with their cooperative, team effort. Each advancement in beautification, recreation, business and industrial promotion, and other projects is a run across the plate.

There is no limit to the number of players on the progress team. You qualify if you possess a desire to aid in the attainment of the goals and a willingness to see them realized. Play ball with your Finer Carolina Committee. Join the progress team in your town.
