YW SUMMER CAMP A SUCCESS
The first annual summer day camp conducted by the Sojourner Truth branch, YWCA came to a close this week after 4 weeks of successful operation.

There was a total enrollment of 45 girls who took advantage of the varied activities provided. Mrs. Purdie Anders, camp supervisor, says the net results of the camps achievements can best be told by the girls who participated in the camp programs. Several of the campers learned to swim, others gained valuable experience in teacher crafts and dressmaking.

Mrs. Anders feels however, that although the material gains were many and quite profitable, the art of learning to live work and play together, group acceptance and group participation and conformity were really the most important achievement of the camp session.

Weekly Church Roundup

By Mrs. May L. Broadie

YOUNG'S MISSIONARY TEMPLE CME CHURCH—Church School opened last Sunday at the usual hour with Mrs. Della R. Ford, superintendent, in charge. Morning worship began at 11 o'clock. It was Men's Day and a large congregation was in attendance. The senior choir was in charge of music under the direction of Miss Betty Jean Broadie, organist. The pastor, the Rev. J. N. Levanette, delivered a wonderful sermon from the Book of Exodus, 5th chapter, 10th verse: "Go's People and Plans for Moses." Holy communion was observed at the close of service. The Rev. S. M. Tate brought the message for the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Sunday School began at the regular time with the superintendent, Mr. Sherman Lewis, in charge and a large number in attendance. Morning worship began at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music. Organist, Mr. Ernest Massenburg, It was communion day and the Rev. C. E. Askew delivered the morning sermon. It was beautifully done.

WILSON TEMPLE METHODIST CHURCH—Sunday School started at 9:45 with the superintendent, Miss Nannie Morgan, in charge and a large attendance noted. The senior choir was in charge of music, under the direction of Miss Nannie Morgan. Mr. Leon Haywood was the organist. The pastor, the Rev. O. W. Burwick, preached a nice sermon from the Book of St. Matt. 26th chapter.

OBERLIN BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School opened at the usual hour with Mr. Walter Curtis in charge. Morning worship started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Taylor James. Organist, Mrs. E. H. Holt. The soloist was Mrs. Pattie Huggs. A very powerful sermon was delivered by Dr. Oscar S. Bullock, pastor, from Galatians: "Stand fast in liberty." Communion was administered at the close of the service.

BETHLEHEM BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School began at 9:45 with the superintendent, Mr. Alton Dunn, in charge. Morning worship started at 11 o'clock with the junior choir in charge. Call to worship: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Processional: "Stand up, stand up for Jesus." The invocation was given by the pastor, the Rev. Leotha Deham. The scripture was read from the 1st chapter of Galatians. A baby, Deborah Faye Gill, was blessed at the service. The morning sermon was delivered by the pastor from Proverbs, 14:12, and 16:2: "Till they meet Jesus." It was a stirring message. Visitors are always welcome.

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH—Church School opened at 10:00 o'clock with Mr. B. T. Saunders, superintendent, in charge. Morning services began at 12 noon with the senior choir in charge of music. The Rev. George Mitchell, pastor, preached a powerful sermon to a large congregation.

Following Brown's protest, the council unanimously adopted a resolution calling on the slum committee and other related agencies to discontinue relocation practices requiring tenants to list race, religion and national origin.

The protest also brought action from George E. Spargo, assistant chairman of the slum committee. Informed of the resolution, Spargo ordered the "race" tag section deleted from the forms at once. He said, "It should never have been there in the first place."

Brown, Democratic candidate for congress and opponent of incumbent Adam Clayton Powell, had produced an official relocation record of the "Office of Committee on Slum Clearance" that required occupants of sites being cleared for slum clearance to list their races.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Ellis have returned to the city after a ten-day vacation stay at Hammocks Beach.
