ADULTS HI SCHOOL GRADS
ROCKY MOUNT — Adult education received a boost here last week when three of the twelve members of the first Adult Education Class of the Bonker T. Washington High School received their diplomas from the hands of Superintendent of City Schools D. S. Johnson following graduation exercises in the library of the local school July 17.

The school board set up the adult education program early in the year to aid those who wished to avail themselves of the opportunity to complete their high school education thru classes conducted three nights a week. According to BTW principal R. D. Armstrong, the program has been quite a success and is expected to be resumed in September with an even larger enrollment.

Those graduating were: Mrs. Mary Whitefield Dickens, Mrs. Myrtle Cooper Lancaster and Mrs. Elizabeth Moore Thomas. There were four men among the remaining non-grads.

The brief program featured an address on the "Effective Use of Power" by Supt. Johnson, following words of welcome by Mrs. E. Elizabeth M. Thomas of the class. The entire class group appropriately sang "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen" under direction of Mrs. Ann W. Neville, one of the instructors.

Mrs. W. L. Greene, one of the teachers of the class, (along with her husband, Dr. W. L. Greene) journeyed down from Raleigh to just witness the graduation. The Rev. John A. Hunter, local Baptist minister, was in charge of devotions. The class motto was: "Finish What You Attempt."

In a brief word with Dr. W. L. Greene, MCTI executive secretary, we learned that Tarheelia's NAAACP proxy, Kelly Miller Alexander of Charlotte, was much in the limelight as usual at the Cleveland national NAACP convention where he made the presentation of the Spingarn Medal to Mrs. Daisy Bates and the "Little Rock Nine" students for their courageous fighting for the right to integrated schooling in Arkansas.

Dr. Greene also informed us that our 79-year-old adopted mother, Mrs. Rosa A. Moore of 1758 Louisiana Street, Jacksonville, Florida, was present as she had written us she hoped to be Greene said, "She got a rousing ovation when introduced to the convention."

Mrs. Moore is remembered as the mother of the late Harry T. Moore, who along with his wife, Henrietta Moore, was lynched in death, Christmas night, 1951 in their Miami, Fla. home. Mrs. Moore received the Spingarn Medal which was awarded posthumously to her son at the Oklahoma City convention in 1952.

Mrs. Moore is expected to visit Rocky Mount and Gastonia on her return south.

A NOTE ON SAVING:
GARNER — There's hardly a man alive who has not remarked that keeping money is harder than making it. This is one of those great truths that require more bite as the years wear on. Yet hope of saving occasionally from the ravages of the high cost of living need not be abandoned.

The island of Yap in the Pacific The Yap folks, it seems, have no worries about letting their money slip through their fingers. Their coins are of stone, and may weigh a couple of tons.

So they get the Boss to pay you in Yap coin. You may not eat very high on the hog but keeping your money will be a cinch.

Wake Baptist Sunday School was happy to have present at its Sunday School, the pastor, Rev. George S. Stokes, who gave our Sunday School some wonderful remarks on our lesson, "Justice in the Family".

Rev. James Avery, pastor of various churches, who is on vacation to see group a very challenging sermon, his text: "For Me To Live Is Christ, To Die Is Gain." It was enjoyed by a capacity crowd.

Rev. Avery is a member of Wake Baptist Grove Church.

Rev. J. H. Jones, a young preacher of our vicinity, delivered a touching sermon, Sunday night at the Rand Street Christian Church, sponsored by the Building Committee.

Sick and Shut in
 Dr. Hubert Wilder, Mrs. Carlisle Sanders, Mr. James Hayward, Mrs. Julia Rogers, James L. Taylor and Maria White.

We wish each and everyone a speedy recovery.

Mr. Frank Smith and sons, Frankie and Danny, who spent the weekend in Washington, D. C. visiting friends and relatives, reported a very happy and successful trip.

Mrs. Emil M. Morgan parted from Garner Sunday to spend a week vacationing at a beach in South Carolina.

The Sunday School Convention will be in progress this week and at the Springfield Baptist Church. We are expecting a large crowd to help represent Wake Baptist Grove Church. Mrs. N. Edwards and Miss Mary Phillips are visiting friends and relatives in N. Y.

SPORTS
 The Rochester Heights baseball team defeated a local team Saturday by a score of 6-5.

William Hayes was the winning pitcher. Robert Johnson was the losing leading hitter; Jesse Hinton and B. Moninger.

On Saturday afternoon at 3:30 P. M. the Jones' baseball team will entertain a team from Clayton. Refreshments will be sold.

JOKE OF THE WEEK
 A drunk staggered into a bar one night and slugging his fist down yelled: "When I drink everybody drinks!"

Everyone came to the bar, including his own.

The drunk then placed a collar on the bar and yelled: "When I say everybody pays!"

Thought: God chooses that man should be tried, but let a man beware of tempting his neighbor. God knows how and how much, and where and when. Man is his brother's keeper, and must keep him according to his knowledge.

Davie St. Presbyterian Church

Using as his theme the scripture "Into Thy hands I commit my spirit," Rev. Robert L. Shirley, pastor, Davie St. Presbyterian Church challenged the church to commit themselves to God for honorable service.

To illustrate how men of the Biblical past committed themselves to the work of God's Kingdom, Rev. Shirley cited the words of Moses and others.

He said Samuel said, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth". Isaiah declared, "Here am I, send me." Christ committed himself when he uttered, "Not as I will but thine be done."

Members were urged to commit their lives into God's care for spiritual and Christian guidance.

It was announced that the Dunbar Club celebrated its 17th anniversary at the Davie Street morning service, while the services were broadcast by radio. Mr. Charles Garfield Irving read the devotional while Rev. Shirley accompanied the choir with the piano along with the organist, Mrs. Mary Carter.

The Lord's Supper will be administered next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock because at present the 11 a. m. services are designed for broadcast purposes.

Mrs. Odessa Roberts is recuperating in the St. Agnes Hospital. The pastor urges each member to express his interest and concern in an appropriate manner.

Speakers for the month of August were announced. The first three Sundays listing is as follows: Rev. John W. Fleming, Aug. 3; Rev. William Lucas, Aug. 10; Rev. Robert Shirley, Aug. 17.

A cordial welcome is extended to all visitors and a standing invitation to attend is hereby made.

Despite the very intense heat on Sunday a creditable audience turned out for the 11 o'clock services. The Senior choir was in charge of the music. They marched gracefully around the altar singing "Marching to Zion".

On entering the choir left doxology was sung, then after the pastoral prayer and choral response, "Hear Our Prayer O Lord" was sung, the 1st hymn, number 367, "Craves in A Mysterious Way" was sung led by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson.

The responsive reading was for the 29th Sunday "The Worth of Man." The singing of the "Gloria Patria" and the "Affirmation of Faith" The Apostle Creed followed. Scripture lesson was then read by Rev. Carson from Acts, 9th chapter, comprising 10 verses. He also led us to the throne of Grace in his soul-stirring prayer, as he said, "Craves in A Mysterious Way" was sung led by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson.
